DEACON'S CORNER
By: Deacon Mark

All deacon candidates; both transitional deacon, those men in seminary who will be ordained priests, and permanent deacons participate in four rites of the Roman Catholic Church. All of these rites are part of a formal mass. The first is the Rite of Candidacy which typically occurs after two years of aspirancy in the formation process. Approximately one year later is the Rite of Lector where the candidate is instituted to proclaim the first and second readings from Sacred Scripture. One year after that, the candidate attends the Rite of Acolyte where he is installed into the Ministry of Acolyte and can assist the deacons and priests in the Eucharistic Liturgy. This is the last Rite prior to ordination. The Rite of Ordination to the Diaconate occurs approximately a year later. A beautiful and inspiring part of the Ordination Rite has the men being ordained lying prostrate on the cathedral floor while the Litany of the Saints is sung. After the Litany of the Saints, the men individually approach the bishop who lays his hands on the candidate and ordains them as a deacon. Following this, the newly ordained deacon is vested with a dalmatic, the proper dress of a deacon. Each newly ordained deacon now kneels before the bishop who places the Book of Gospels in their hands and says these words: "Receive the Gospel of Christ whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach." When I was ordained, I received my own personal copy of the Book of the Gospels. After each deacon has those words spoken, the bishop and all attending deacons at that ordination mass give the sign of peace to those newly ordained. The Rite of Ordination to the Diaconate confers a permanent indelible mark on the soul of the men being ordained.

National Vocations Awareness week: is Sunday, November 6th to Saturday, November 12th
During this National Vocation Awareness Week, we pray for an increase of "yeses" to the priesthood and consecrated life, especially within the Diocese of Green Bay and our parish. Let us keep them in our prayers today and everyday.

Thank you to all of our Veterans. Thank you for serving!

As we await the coming of the Lord, we pray for the endurance of Christ and the needs of the world.

MASS MINUTES
By Deacon Ed

The second scripture reading is from the New Testament, usually one of the letters or epistles. These are 21 documents, mostly actual letters written to local Churches of individuals, usually beginning with a greeting. The body of the letter is a Christian teaching, usually responding to a circumstance or condition in that Church, and ending with a recommendation of ethical behavior. Fourteen are attributed to St. Paul. Seven were written to a wider audience than a local Church community and are called universal or “catholic epistles.” The genuine letters written by St Paul were written before the gospels and are, therefore, among the earliest Christian writings. The others were written later and include the letter by James, 2 letters by Peter, 3 by John, and 1 by Jude. The last book of the New Testament is Revelation, or the Apocalypse, a revelation given to John, probably in response to the persecution of early Christians by the Roman authorities. More about that later. Next, blessings.
