Mass Minutes
By Deacon Ed
The Gospel, or “Good News” of Jesus, tells the story of Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ, how he lived, travelled, taught, suffered, died, and rose from the dead. The first three gospels, Matthew, Mark, and Luke are all similar in story line and so are called the synoptic gospels. The fourth, according to John, differs in outline but tells the same story. The disciples who lived with Jesus had their followers who listened to their teaching and the stories of Jesus, including his own words. At some point, perhaps 35 years after Christ’s resurrection, someone said, “You know, maybe we should write all this down.” And so it began What is “The Creed?”

DEACON’S CORNER
by Deacon Mark Bortle
How does one become a permanent deacon? Men must be a confirmed member of the Roman Catholic Church, permanent residents of the Green Bay diocese, and be between the ages of 30 and 55. they must be recommended by their pastor; have a history of parish involvement, service to others, and leadership capabilities; be in good physical and emotional health; and have a stable work history. A married applicant must have a stable and happy marriage and his wife and children must support his interest in the diaconate. Single applicants must be willing to commit to celibacy after ordination. Applicants must have at least a high school diploma or its equivalent and be able to take college level courses.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
On September 27, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Vincent de Paul, who knew that “God had sent him to bring the good news to the poor.” Together with your gifts, the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul continue his work and mission right here at St. Joseph. Thank you for your generosity! We simply could not do what we do without your help . Also, a Big shout out to all those who supported our “Friends of the Poor Walk” last Saturday. We were able to raise over $9000.00 to assist our “Friends in need.” Father Bob, Deacon Ed, Deacon Mark, Knights of Columbus, Green Bay Packer, Jon Runyan (76) and all who walked or helped in any way, we are so very grateful. “We cannot better assure our eternal happiness than by living and dying in the service of the poor, in the arms of Providence, and with genuine renouncement of ourselves in order to follow Jesus Christ.” (St Vincent de Paul)
HELP WANTED: We are looking for a few good people to join us as fellow Vincentians. It is a great way to help you live out your faith. Call Denis McCarthy 715-212-1190. Thank you for helping us help others. Keep us in your prayers and know that you are in ours.

Jesus invites us to remain faithful, and to resist the temptation to stray.

Blessing Box
Located on the side of Church

Caring Angels are volunteers from our Catholic Community that have a strong desire to sit with children on their journey. We can achieve this by listening, reading, playing a game, talking, and spending time with them. If you cannot get to the school physically you can become a pen pal with a student. We recognize the need to foster our youth in our schools to help children to grow to their full potential and feel empowered to be who they are. Only by joining together and helping each other can our youth build upon their self-confidence. Please contact Laura Hoffman at 920-743-2062.
