

BLACK ANKLE

vineyards

2019 Bedlam

Geology Decomposing slate laced with veins of quartz

Winemakers Sarah O'Herron & Ed Boyce

Slope Orientation Predominantly East

Vines per Acre 1895

Blend 34% Chardonnay, 29% Grüner Veltliner, 23% Albariño, 11% Viognier, 3% Muscat

Bottled March 2020

Cases 196

ABV 12.9%

Tasting Notes Made from our white wine grapes, the 2019 Bedlam is a co-fermented beauty that is smooth and lush with complex aromas and flavors of citrus, tropical and tree fruits that all lead to a lingering finish laced with mineral, citrus zest, and spice.

The 2019 Bedlam will pair with a wide variety of foods and will make an excellent pairing with your holiday turkey (or ham).

