ESSAY QUESTION

Kelsey lived her life by exemplifying so many positive and wonderful traits. Some of these were her strong sense of determination, the compassion and caring that invited diverse groups of friends into her “fold”, loyalty and faithfulness to all, and complete honesty and integrity that came across in all that she did as she lived her life to the fullest.

With those “Kelsey Characteristics” in mind, please describe your view of your role in life, your personal goals and mission and how you feel you contribute to the greater good. Please be specific in providing examples of how you have demonstrated your connection to the community.
