FIRST READINGA Reading from the 2nd Book of Chronicles
2 Chr 36:14-16, 19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah:

"Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled."

In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing:

"Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia:

All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PsalmPs 137:1-2, 3, 4-5, 6

R. \ Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

SECOND READING*A Reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Ephesians
Eph 2:4-10

Brothers and sisters:

God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved — raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPELA reading from the Gospel according to John Jn 3:14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus:

"Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

GOSPEL of John

‘GOD LOVED THE WORLD SO MUCH THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY SON...’ John 3:14-21. The first reading today is like an aftermath account by a reporter of the lowest point in the history of the Jewish people. It records destruction, massacres, enforced exile to Babylon and the leveling ruination of the temple.

Why did God allow this? Why did God not intervene? How could God let this happen? Similar questions were asked about Covid-19 which gripped the entire world. Why did God not stop the pandemic? What does God allow terrorists to maim and kill innocent people? Why did there young people die in a crash? Why was I the victim of horrendous, domestic abuse? Why is there famine in many parts of the world? Why did the ‘temple of my family’ have to be the one destroyed by addiction? Why do we have to die? Endless questions...

No one has any convincing answers to these profound questions. The readings from Ephesians and the Gospel today give us an image of God who ‘loved us with so much love that he was generous with his mercy and brought us to life in Christ’ (Eph 2:4). Today’s gospel is not about a God who is vengeful and spiteful. ‘GOD LOVED THE WORLD SO MUCH THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY SON’ is an expression of God’s true nature.

Our Church has faced low points in its history and in recent years has had to be confronted with a dismal, shameful past. As a Church, we failed to preach that GOD LOVED THE WORLD SO MUCH and that each and every one of us is ‘God’s work of art, created in Christ Jesus to live the good life from the beginning he had meant us to live it’ (Eph 2:10).

Lent is a springtime of new life and growth. It is a time that helps us to ask difficult questions about flaring injustice and the fragile uncertainty of life. Lent offers us the light, love and compassion of Christ to guide us through personal deserts of darkness and doubts.

‘By the River of Babylon’ was a Rastafarian song composed in Jamaica in 1970. It is based on today’s psalm. It was later popularized by Boney M in 1978. The psalm and the song are full of lament and yet kindled with hope – because no-one can ever stifle or silence the singing of the Lord’s song – which is – an unchained melody of eternal love for us all.

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel:

1. Jesus speaks of himself being lifted up, a term that can mean a physical lifting, or also exaltation. By this play on words the evangelist explains to us that Jesus’ gift of himself in the passion was a glorious revelation of love, despite all its injustice and brutality. Bring to mind occasions when the love shown by Jesus is his passion was a sacrament of God’s love for you.
2. It would be very cushy for us if we could be a source of life to others without cost to ourselves. True life-givers know that they need the generosity of being lifted up by giving their lives so that others may have life. Recall when you have had that generosity and give thanks for others who have been like that for you.
3. We receive life from God when our faith enables us to trust in God’s love for us. We give life to one another when the love between us is trustworthy. Recall memories of that kind of trustworthy love. For who have you been able to be a ‘Jesus person’ and give a love that another could trust? Who has shown that kind of love to you and been for you a sacrament of God’s love?

In Word & Deed

It can be easy to doubt God's love, especially when we are aware of our sinfulness and failings. But God's love is unconditional. We do not have to earn it, or work for it, or be someone to receive it. God's love is a gift offered to everyone. It is offered to saints and sinners, to the holy and the not so holy. The cross is the sign of God's love for us. On it, He gives you His life; through it, He gives you His love; by it, He gives you eternal life. The language of love is easy to learn and understand. Just open your heart and mind to hear the good news.

-Jim Gaffney

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

Sometimes, when you say or do something cute as a child, it comes back to haunt you as an adult, especially if you have several older brothers who will not let you forget. A favorite family story is about my youngest brother. When he was a child, he admitted that every day at lunch in school, he would kiss his homemade, chocolate chip cookies before he ate them. When asked why, he replied that he knew they were made with lots of love!

Lent is about making sacrifices and atoning for sins, and becoming better people of faith. Good Lenten practices remind us of our baptismal calling to be better people of faith. But isn't it really about loving others? Isn't the root of most of our sinfulness a failure to love? To make up for our sins and failures, to follow Christ more closely, we need to love better, more completely, and more unselfishly.

Love can restore relationships, heal past hurts and mend broken hearts and spirits. Love is the antidote to sin.

The best expressions of love are concrete actions that express our concern and affection. People need to experience our love for them. Just thinking it or saying it doesn't help a whole lot. Real love brings us together with those who need us and want us to be close to them. Acts of kindness and thoughtfulness, offering a helping hand or a listening ear makes a big difference. Even a batch of chocolate chip cookies—or a cup of water—can let others know how much we care.

-Jim Gaffney

We are the new pilgrims who must sleep every night beneath a new sky, for either we go forward to the new camp or the whirling earth carries us backward to one behind.

There is no choice but to move, forward or backward. Forward to the clean hut, or backward to the old camp, fouled every day by the passers.

-Joyce Cary

Genuine forgiveness is participation, reunion overcoming the powers of estrangement.

And only because this is so does forgiveness make love possible.

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent, your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary. Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert service because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp. Experience peace of mind in the home or on the go.
