FIRST READINGA Reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah Isaiah 66:18-21

Thus says the LORD:

I know their works and their thoughts,
and I come to gather nations of every language;
they shall come and see my glory.
I will set a sign among them;
from them I will send fugitives to the nations:
to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Mosoch, Tubal and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have never heard of my fame, or seen my glory; and they shall proclaim my glory among the nations.
They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses and in chariots, in carts, upon mules and dromedaries,
to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD,
just as the Israelites bring their offering to the house of the LORD in clean vessels.
Some of these I will take as priests and Levites,
says the LORD.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 117:1, 2

R. \ Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

Praise the LORD, all you nations;
glorify him, all you peoples!

R. \ Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

For steadfast is his kindness toward us,
and the fidelity of the LORD endures forever.

R. \ Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

SECOND READINGA Reading from The Letter of Saint Paul to The Hebrews*Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Brothers and sisters,
You have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as children: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reprov'd by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges."
Endure your trials as "discipline";
God treats you as sons. For what "son" is there whom his father does not discipline?
At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it.

So strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPELA Reading from The Gospel according to Luke Luke 13:22-30

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?"
He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from. And you will say, 'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.'
Then he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!'
And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves cast out.
And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God.
For behold, some are last who will be first,
and some are first who will be last."

Thanks be to God.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of Luke

In today's Gospel using the image of a door, Jesus wants his listeners to understand that it is not a question of numbers – how many will be saved – but rather, it is important for everyone to know the way that leads to salvation. This way means entering through a door. But where is the door? Who is the door? Jesus himself is that door. He says so in the Gospel of John: 'I am the door' (10:9). He leads us to communion with the Father, where we find love, understanding and protection.

Once more, Jesus extends a pressing invitation to us today to go to Him, to pass through the door of a full, reconciled and happy life. He awaits each one of us, no matter what sins we have committed, to embrace us, to offer us his forgiveness. He alone can transform our hearts, He alone can give full meaning to our existence, giving us true joy. By entering Jesus' door, the door of faith and of the Gospel, we can leave behind worldly attitudes, bad habits, selfishness and narrow-mindedness. When we encounter the love and mercy of God, there is authentic change. Our lives are enlightened by the light of the Holy Spirit: an inextinguishable light!

Let us think now for a moment, in silence, of the things that we have inside us which prevent us from entering through the door: my pride, my arrogance, my sins. Then, let us think of the other door, the one opened wide by the mercy of God who awaits us on the other side to grant us forgiveness.

The Lord offers us many opportunities to be saved and to enter through the door of salvation. This door is an occasion that can never be wasted: because at a certain moment, the master of the house will rise and shut the door (cf. Lk 13:25), as the Gospel reminded us. But if God is good and loves us, why would he close the door at a certain point? Because our life is not a video game nor a television soap opera. Our life is serious and our goal is important: eternal salvation.

Seeing Your Life Through the Lens of the Gospel

What types of challenges do we face in our lives today and what do we choose to do? And when we face these challenges, do we persevere to do what is right or do we take the easy path out through the back door.

- When faced with situations that make us angry, how often do we stay calm? • When faced with those who are better and more successful than us, how often do we give in to jealousy?
- When faced with situations to tell the truth, how often have we given way to lying?
- When faced with people in need of our love, our respect and our kindness – our parents, spouses, children, neighbors, orphans, widows, the weak and underprivileged, the lonely, the elderly... how often have we given them our love?
- When faced with situations to speak out for justice and what is right, how often have we raised our voice?
- When faced with the need to be with our children – either for their homework, their play or another need – how often have we given in to our personal pleasures.
- When faced with the need to work hard, how often have we given way to laziness and pushed things away for later?

Those are all situations when we need to go through the narrow door. Do we push our way through the narrow door, or do we give up and take the easy way out?

Prayer to Begin A School Year

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart, you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways. At the beginning of this new school year we implore your mercy, bless our students, teachers, and staff, that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus. Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge, deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways, and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need. Glory and praise to you, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever.
Amen

Young Adult Section

By Brooke Pina

What are some ways God inspires you in daily life?

Jesus can work in any way he wants to, but I have found that He often works through other people. He doesn't always have to go directly to you; sometimes He will bring a person and experience into your life in order to shape you in a profound way. I think it's very important to surround yourself with other Catholics who have a very deep faith. Those that are truly passionate about God will have a grace that no one else has, and surrounding yourself with those people will allow you to feed off of them. They will inspire you to dive even deeper into your own faith because you will be able to see and feel the Holy Spirit in them. If you are constantly surrounding yourself with ungodly things or individuals, it is so much harder to focus on God and the things He wants from you. It's very important to me as a young adult to stay close with those who follow the Lord. Even though they aren't perfect and make mistakes, I know they will be able to get back on track because of their faith, which in turn inspires me to do the same whenever I fall into sin. The Lord invites certain people into your life for a reason, so it's important to pay attention and cherish those relationships that God gives us.

Saint Bartholomew, Apostle

Feast Day — August 24

The apostle Bartholomew (also known as Nathaniel) was born at Cana and brought by the Apostle Philip to meet Jesus. Nothing further is known for certain. Eusebius speaks of him in India, but the Roman Martyrology has him martyred in Armenia, skinned alive according to the Persian custom. He is thus often shown holding a knife with which he was martyred.

This stained glass window of the apostle is by Sir Ninian Comper, and it is in Downside Abbey in Somerset, England.
