FIRST READINGA Reading from The Book of the Prophet Isaiah Isaiah 7:10-14

The LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying:
Ask for a sign from the LORD, your God;
let it be deep as the netherworld, or high as the sky!
But Ahaz answered,
"I will not ask! I will not tempt the LORD!"
Then Isaiah said:
Listen, O house of David!
Is it not enough for you to weary people,
must you also weary my God?
Therefore the Lord himself will give you this sign:
the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son,
and shall name him Emmanuel.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 24:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

R. \ Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

The LORD's are the earth and its fullness;
the world and those who dwell in it.
For he founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.

R. \ Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

Who can ascend the mountain of the LORD?
or who may stand in his holy place?
One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean,
who desires not what is vain.

R. \ Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

He shall receive a blessing from the LORD,
a reward from God his savior.

Such is the race that seeks for him,
that seeks the face of the God of Jacob.

R. \ Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

SECOND READING*A Reading from The Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans*Romans 1:1-7

Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God, which he promised previously through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, the gospel about his Son, descended from David according to the flesh, but established as Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness through resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him we have received the grace of apostleship, to bring about the obedience of faith, for the sake of his name, among all the Gentiles, among whom are you also, who are called to belong to Jesus Christ; to all the beloved of God in Rome, called to be holy.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPELA Reading from The Gospel according to Matthew*Matthew 1:18-24

This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit.

Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly.

Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home.

For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her.

She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means "God is with us."

When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of Matthew

God is with us

In this wild, unpredictable ride that we call life, there is one thing we can always count on, one constant: Our Creator chooses to be with us throughout it all. No matter what unpredictable events take place in our lives, God's son, Jesus, promises to be there, guiding us and comforting us and challenging us, and helping us to take the next step in God's plan for us.

In Joseph's case, the way that God guided him was through an angel appearing to him in a dream. That may happen to you, but probably not. The good news is that God has many ways to appear to us, and to guide us on our life's journey. It might be a well-timed phone call or visit from a friend. It might be a verse of a hymn that we had not noticed before. It might be in some completely unexpected and surprising way. But when we have the eyes of faith, and when we trust in God, he will always be there for us, leading us on the way.

We are reminded of this promise in a very powerful way at the very end of Matthew's gospel. After Jesus has grown, and been baptized, and proclaimed the kingdom of heaven, and called his disciples, and been arrested and tortured and crucified, and raised from the dead, after all of this, Jesus gathered his disciples together one more time, to send them out to make disciples of all nations, and to baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. But before he sent them out, he reminded them of this same promise. The last words spoken by Jesus in Matthew's Gospel would echo the words spoken by the angel to Joseph before Jesus was even born. Words which are at the heart of the good news recorded in the Gospel of Matthew. Jesus, our Emmanuel, who is our promise that God is with us, spoke these final words: And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.' God is with us, always.

Seeing Your Life Through the Lens of the Gospel

1) Joseph, described as a 'righteous man, planned to divorce Mary quietly rather than expose her to public shame. His righteousness was not about strict legalism but was tempered with profound mercy. How can I blend my commitment to what is right with a spirit of compassion and grace towards others, especially when I feel wronged?

2) God's guidance came to Joseph at a moment of deep personal crisis and confusion, through a dream. This reminds us that divine revelation often meets us in our uncertainty. In the "quiet dreams" of my life - in moments of prayer, silence, or wise counsel - am I creating space to listen for God's direction even when your own plans are falling apart?

3) Joseph's obedience was immediate, and he took Mary as his wife, embracing social ridicule and accepting a life he did not plan. This required tremendous courage. What costly obedience may God be asking of me? Where am I being called to do God's will, despite the potential for misunderstanding or personal cost?

4) "God with us." This is the ultimate truth that should help us in all Circumstances. How does the reality of 'God with us" impact my current situation - my fears, my relationships, my future? Do I live as if God is truly present in the midst of my ordinary, and sometimes messy, life?

Christmas Message 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

Our celebration of Christmas 2025 comes during our Jubilee Year of Hope—a Holy Year inaugurated by Pope Francis and continued by Pope Leo XIV. How wonderful a blessing this is for us for hope is at the very heart of our Christmas joy. In the Incarnation, as the divine and human are united, hope becomes flesh in Jesus Christ.

St. Luke's Gospel conveys this hope in the first words of the Angel Gabriel to the shepherds at Christ's birth: "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy... A Savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord" (Luke 2:10–11).

The hope and joy of Christmas offer us an opportune time to pause and reflect on our lives, giving thanks to God for our blessings—especially for our loved ones gathered with us in this holy season, and for those whom prayerfully we remember who have been called to eternal rest.

Throughout this Jubilee Year, we have been inspired by the many young people who have turned to God and to the Church in search of answers and meaning in an increasingly complex world. This is truly a sign of hope for the Church, our Diocese and for our world. We have also witnessed the very best in humanity as countless generous and selfless individuals have worked to make a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters who are suffering. In them, we see the darkness of despair overcome by the light and love of Christ.

An honest reflection must also acknowledge the challenges we face in our personal lives and as a nation. We are called to this reflection amid the noise and divisions of our time.

In his recent document Delexi Te (I Have Loved You), Pope Leo XIV calls us to respond to the many "faces of the poor and of poverty," including "the poverty of those who lack material means of subsistence" and those "who are socially marginalized and lack the means to give voice to their dignity and abilities" (9). The Holy Father has also consistently urged world leaders to come together to find peaceful solutions to conflicts that inflict suffering and destroy the lives of the innocent.

This Christmas, I invite all of us to turn to God in fervent prayer for peace in our world. Let us unite in prayer that no one, especially innocent children, is forced to spend another year in fear, uncertainty, hunger and wondering if they will live to see another day or embrace their loved ones once again. This holy season calls us to renew our confidence that, with prayer, hearts can be changed and peace is possible, and that each of us has a part to play in building it.

Even in the midst of division, uncertainty, and conflict, God continues to enter our lives and our world to bring hope, light, and renewal. Christmas invites us to look beyond the darkness that may surround us and to recognize in the simple manger of Bethlehem an enduring sign of God's love for humanity. Hope will not disappoint, and God will continue loving, caring for, and protecting each of us, our families, and our world.

Please be assured of my prayers for a happy, joyful, and Merry Christmas. May God bless you and your loved ones now and in the coming year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Nativity Crèche

In its present form, the custom of displaying figures depicting the birth of Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas crèche for Christmas Eve of 1223.

The blessing of the Christmas manger or nativity scene may take place on Christmas Eve or at another time:

Lord, bless all who look upon this manger;
may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus,
and raise our thoughts to him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

What does it mean to you to "keep Christ in Christmas?"

I think the most important thing to remember is to not get completely caught up in the commercial side of Christmas. Yes it can be fun to buy and wrap and receive gifts, but only focusing on the material things won't make the holiday fulfilling. While many Christians go to Mass on Christmas for an hour or so, people must remember to think of the Lord outside of the church as well. You shouldn't stop just because you walked out of the building. Every bit of love and happiness you receive comes from God, so when you're laughing with your loved ones, or eating tasty foods, or enjoying the beautiful lights and decorations, remember that Christ made all of that possible.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

All parishioners are invited to participate in the Parish Giving Tree Program beginning the First Sunday of Advent, November 30th.

Gifts from the Parish Giving Tree go to the needy, the homeless, nursing home residents, and Birthright. Those in need will benefit from your generosity during the holiday season. Gifts should be returned no later than Sunday, December 21st.

If you know of someone, a family, or you yourself are in need, please contact Tara Sousa at tarams1231@gmail.com or 508-272-1173 or call the parish office. All calls will be handled in confidence.

Paint Party

The Women of Faith will be hosting a Paint Night on Saturday, January 17th, at 5:00pm. Tickets are $25 per person and proceeds will benefit teens going to Steubenville. For tickets, please contact Tara Sousa at tarams1231@gmail.com or call 508-245-5792.

Saint Peter Canisius

Feast Day - December 21

This Doctor of the Church was born in Holland and studied canon law in Belgium before turning to the study of theology in Germany. In 1543, after meeting St. Peter Faber, one of St. Ignatius of Loyola's companions, he entered the Society of Jesus and soon became a well known preacher. He attended two sessions of the Council of Trent and was an important figure in the post-conciliar Catholic revival in Europe. After completing his doctorate, St. Ignatius assigned him to renew the Catholic faith in Germany. As the Jesuit provincial in southern Germany, Austria, and Bohemia, Peter Canisius started schools, colleges, and seminaries. He wrote three catechisms in German and is credited with keeping the southern German peoples Catholic.
