FIRST READING*A Reading from The Book of the Acts of the Apostles*Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an Indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Thanks be to God.*GOSPEL*A Reading from The Gospel according to John*John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Fr. Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of John

One of the most central, marked, and these days, controversial aspects of Christianity is its proclamation of the forgiveness of sins. It is central in that Jesus preached about it a lot and Christianity would be unrecognizable without it, marked in that it's not a common theme in world religions so it stands out, and controversial in that we are in the midst of a graceless moment in which the right wants people punished and the left insists grace is incompatible with justice.

Now, there's a lot to be said about the importance of justice, rejecting any notion of what Bonhoeffer called 'cheap grace', and about what genuine repentance looks like. But it remains that Christianity is a religion of second and third and fourth and fifth chances. We see this all over today's Gospel reading, a jam-packed reading that includes Jesus' appearance to the disciples in the upper room, the so-called 'mini-Pentecost', and the story of 'doubting-Thomas.'

Thomas is given his second chance, or really even a third chance since he not only abandoned Jesus with the rest of the disciples but also refused to accept their witness to the Resurrection. But again, Jesus greets him with the words, 'Peace be with you.' And he goes so far as to meet Thomas where he's at, inviting him to touch his wounds.

Our God is a God of second chances. Our Good News is a message of second chances. A second chance for all humanity, including us. The world may define us by our failures or worst moments, but God does not. Now, God also wants us to do and be better, and the Scriptures are clear that we will be judged on our actions moving forward, but the point is still that we are forgiven. That is the beginning of everything else that follows. It was true for the disciples in the Upper Room and it's true for us.

Intercom April 2026

Points To Ponder

There are times when we seem to be all alone in the world. There are times when we wonder if God is really out there, during loss, illness: we long for some sign that He is out there, and that He cares about us. And we, like Thomas, begin to doubt.

If you hang around skeptical, unbelieving people, then you are in trouble. Your faith is not fed, belief does not do well in faithless company any more than resistance to drugs rarely survives well among drug-taking friends. Faith is like a muscle in the body: if you do not use it, it begins to weaken. If you do not exercise your faith, it too dies.

The way you exercise your faith is by living it. First and foremost, you have to talk to God. We call that prayer. You have to talk to God because you cannot have a relationship with anyone unless you communicate with them. When Death asks the question, 'Is there anyone out there' the answer is a firm 'Yes!'

If you are a person of faith, hold on to it. Exercise it, use it, it is a gift more precious than gold. You are indeed fortunate when you can say, and believe, the words of St Thomas, 'My Lord and my God.'
