FIRST READINGA Reading from The Book of the Prophet Isaiah
Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the LORD:
Just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down
and do not return there
till they have watered the earth,
making it fertile and fruitful,
giving seed to the one who sows
and bread to the one who eats,
so shall my word be
that goes forth from my mouth;
my word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14

R. \ The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You have visited the land and watered it;
greatly have you enriched it.
God's watercourses are filled;
you have prepared the grain.

R. \ The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Thus have you prepared the land: drenching its furrows,
breaking up its clods,
Softening it with showers,
blessing its yield.

R. \ The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You have crowned the year with your bounty,
and your paths overflow with a rich harvest;
The untilled meadows overflow with it,
and rejoicing clothes the hills.

R. \ The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

The fields are garmented with flocks
and the valleys blanketed with grain.
They shout and sing for joy.

R. \ The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

SECOND READINGA Reading from The Letter of St. Paul to The Romans
Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters:
I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing
compared with the glory to be revealed for us.
For creation awaits with eager expectation
the revelation of the children of God;
for creation was made subject to futility,
not of its own accord but because of the one who
subjected it,
in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.
We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains
even until now;
and not only that, but we ourselves,
who have the first fruits of the Spirit,
we also groan within ourselves
as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPELA Reading from The Gospel according to Matthew

Matthew 13:1-9

On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea.
Such large crowds gathered around him
that he got into a boat and sat down,
and the whole crowd stood along the shore.
And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying:
"A sower went out to sow.
And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path,
and birds came and ate it up.
Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil.
It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep,
and when the sun rose it was scorched,
and it withered for lack of roots.
Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it.
But some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit,
a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.
Whoever has ears ought to hear."

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Fr. Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of Matthew

In today's Gospel Jesus begins by praising the Father, acknowledging that He is the source of all wisdom and understanding. This recognition reminds us of the humbling truth that our knowledge and insights ultimately come from God. As Catholics, we are called to approach the mysteries of faith with a humble and open heart, recognizing that God's wisdom surpasses our limited human understanding. This serves as a reminder to lean into the gift of the Holy Spirit, namely those gifts of wisdom and understanding. Jesus then reveals that the mysteries of the kingdom of God are revealed to the childlike rather than the wise and learned. This does not imply a disregard for knowledge or intelligence, but rather a call to embrace childlike qualities such as trust, simplicity, and dependence on God. In our journey of faith, it is crucial to cultivate a childlike spirit, placing our trust in God's loving providence and surrendering our reliance on worldly wisdom alone.

Next, Jesus invites all who are weary and burdened to come to Him for rest.

This invitation is a source of immense comfort and solace, especially in times of trials, struggles, and the weight of life's burdens. It is in His presence that we discover the true peace that surpasses all understanding.

Jesus does not promise a life free from challenges or difficulties, but He assures us that when we embrace His teachings and follow His example, we will find grace, strength, and a profound sense of purpose. The yoke of Christ, though it may involve sacrifice, is ultimately one that leads to freedom, fulfillment, and eternal life.

As we meditate on this week's gospel, we are reminded of the importance of humility, childlike trust, and finding rest in Jesus. We are called to embrace the wisdom of God's kingdom, surrendering our burdens to Him and following the path that Jesus has laid before us. May we strive to live out these teachings, seeking solace and guidance from our loving Saviour, and finding true rest and peace in His presence.

Points To Ponder

What if we woke up every morning and said to Jesus: I can't carry the burden of this day without you. I need you to teach me. I need you to lead me and to guide me. I need you to place your yoke upon me.

If you are like me, you need a daily reminder from Jesus to come to him, and take his yoke upon you and learn from him. It's too easy to get caught up in life and forget to do this. It's too easy to neglect our soul. It's too easy to forget that we don't have to bear life's burden ourselves. That Jesus wants us to take his yoke upon us so that he can help bear our burden. Most of us need a daily reminder to do this.

This daily invitation from Jesus can become something even more than that. It can also become our daily mission. What if we approached every day with this invitation in mind for others? What if we kept this invitation in mind whenever we met someone who was weary and carrying a heavy burden? We can see plenty of evidence all around our world of this weariness, this burden. We see a world that regularly neglects its soul, and desperately tries to distract itself from all of life's burdens, and will do anything, no matter how absurd, to avoid facing its soul. Our world needs to know that there is a place to turn when life becomes overwhelming. That there is one who wants to help bear the burden, if we will only come to him.

Eucharistic Procession

On Monday, June 29th, a special Eucharistic Procession was held in Easton, Ma, with our very own Joe Sollecito leading the procession! The visit to our Diocese is part of its 2,200 mile journey in celebration of faith and the country's milestone 250th anniversary.

The Traveling First-Class Relic of Saint John Vianney Is Coming to Our Parish!

We are blessed to welcome a first-class relic of Saint John Vianney, the patron saint of priests, as part of the diocesan renewal initiative Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church.

The relic will be here for veneration from August 26th — September 2nd.

The visit of this relic is more than a moment of devotion — it is a call to consecration. Our priests have consecrated themselves and their ministry to Saint John Vianney, and now every member of the faithful is invited to do the same. Holy cards will be available to make your personal Act of Consecration to Saint John Vianney. Through this shared act of faith, may our Diocese be renewed in holiness, strengthened in charity, and united in mission. Visit www.fallriverdiocese.org to learn more about the Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church initiative.

Saint Camillus de Lellis

Day: July 18

This tall Italian was prone to aggression and gambling in his youth. The son of an army officer, he served for three years as a Venetian soldier. During one military engagement, he received a leg wound that would continue to plague him. At age 24, his regiment disbanded, and he gambled away all his property. Destitute, he found work as a hospital servant in Rome to pay for treatment of his ulcerated leg, but he was dismissed for quarrelsomeness. This brought him to become a laborer at the Manfredonia Capuchin monastery, where he experienced a pivotal religious conversion.

In 1575, he tried to join the Capuchins but was denied admission because his leg wound had returned. He went to the hospital in Rome for treatment, and while there, decided to devote his life to caring for the sick. He took a hospital job where he oversaw administration and introduced reforms to patient treatment. This time, he became known for his piety and prudence. On the advice of friends and his spiritual director, St. Philip Neri, he decided to become a priest. Camillus was ordained in 1584, at age 34, and founded the Order of the Servants of the Sick, more generally known as the Camillians. The order is visibly distinguished by the large red cross they wear. He was canonized in 1746, the "founder of a new school of charity." He is a patron of the sick, of hospitals, doctors, and nurses.
