FIRST READINGA Reading from The Book of the Prophet Isaiah Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus says the LORD:
 All you who are thirsty,
 come to the water!
 You who have no money,
 come, receive grain and eat;
 Come, without paying and without cost,
 drink wine and milk!
 Why spend your money for what is not bread;
 your wages for what fails to satisfy?
 Heed me, and you shall eat well,
 you shall delight in rich fare.
 Come to me heedfully,
 listen, that you may have life.
 I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,
 the benefits assured to David.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

R. \ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.
 The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. \ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
 and you give them their food in due season;
 you open your hand
 and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. \ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
 and holy in all his works.
 The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
 to all who call upon him in truth.

R. \ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

SECOND READING*A Reading from The Letter of St. Paul to The Romans

Romans 8:35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters:
 What will separate us from the love of Christ?
 Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
 or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
 No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPELA Reading from The Gospel according to Matthew

Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself.
 The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot
 from their towns.
 When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.
 When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves."
 Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves."
 But they said to him,
 "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here."
 Then he said, "Bring them here to me,"
 and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.
 Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves,
 and gave them to the disciples,
 who in turn gave them to the crowds.
 They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full.
 Those who ate were about five thousand men,
 not counting women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Fr. Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of Matthew

There is no greater joy than spending some quality time, one-on-one, with the person we love the most. We may have heard our dad say, 'Let your mother and I spend some time together', or 'We are going on our second honeymoon.' It is also like the dad who treats his kids to a special dinner to celebrate something special - just father and son; father and daughter. Special things happen when we open our hearts to the one we love. Christ did this a lot.

Always united to his Father, he treasured the moments of solitude he could spend speaking with him of the things they loved.

After his love for the Father, Christ's greatest love is us. He cannot stand to see us in need. Like any father, friend, or brother, his heart melts when he sees us suffering. Christ always came back from the heart-to-heart times with his Father with a keen awareness of the needs of others and of ways to remedy any problem. It was so natural, almost effortless. Our own growth in virtue is directly related to how much time we spend in real, personal and passionate prayer with our Lord. From these heart-to-hearts, virtue grows and overtakes us in a very natural way, because our Lord's love is contagious.

God can perform miracles whenever he wants and however he wants. Nothing can hold him back. Still, we often ask ourselves, 'Why doesn't Christ perform the miracle that I need in my life - my health problem, my work, my spouse, my children?' Could it be that we're seeking something less than what He wishes to give us? God has a plan for each of our lives. It includes moments of great joys and of crosses. At times we may not understand God's plan, but that's when we need to pray all the more and entrust ourselves to him even more than before. It is only through humble, constant, urgent prayer that we'll receive the answers to our heart-wrenching questions and the grace we need to carry the cross courageously and lovingly, following in the footsteps of the one who shows us the way by carrying our cross first.

Points To Ponder

What will happen to us if we are generous? We never run out of things to give be it money, goods, intellect or anything that we are generous of giving. Everything flows back in return a hundredfold. Why is this so? The reason behind is, the moment we give; we don't only give to the person who needs it we also give to Jesus. And Jesus whom we can never outdo in generosity gives back to us many times over what we give Him. With five loaves and two fish He feed the nearly five thousand people not including women and children. After all of them had eaten they had an excess of twelve wicker baskets. The simple message of the gospel for us is we must be generous at all times.

We just have to look at what is happening during Holy Mass which is very similar to what happened with the feeding of the five thousand people in our gospel. Inside every Holy Mass Jesus generously gives to us His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity during Holy Communion. Has Jesus stopped giving Himself to us during Holy Mass? No. Since HE instituted the Eucharist up until this very moment Jesus has been generously giving Himself to us through Holy Communion. As Jesus is merciful and generous most especially to the poor so we must be also. Let us not worry if our pockets will hurt from our being merciful and generous. For Jesus will always see to it that we will be filled with anything that we need.

Medjugorje Message (July 25th, 2026)

"Dear children! While darkness and peacelessness rule in many hearts, you, little children, be prayer and my extended hands of love. Little children, place the Sacred Scripture in a visible place in your family and read it, so that it may be an encouragement for you to conversion and a new life; because Satan is strong and seduces hearts. Your hearts, through my maternal Heart, I desire to commend to the Heart of my Son Jesus, so that He, the Risen One, may reign in you and joy may begin to reign in you and around you.

Thank you for having responded to my call."

St. Ann's Shrine, merged with St. Patrick's Parish, 16 Church St Fiskdale Ma 01518.

The Traveling First-Class Relic of Saint John Vianney Is Coming to Our Parish!

We are blessed to welcome a first-class relic of Saint John Vianney, the patron saint of priests, as part of the diocesan renewal initiative Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church.

The relic will be here for veneration from August 26th — September 2nd.

The visit of this relic is more than a moment of devotion — it is a call to consecration. Our priests have consecrated themselves and their ministry to Saint John Vianney, and now every member of the faithful is invited to do the same. Holy cards will be available to make your personal Act of Consecration to Saint John Vianney. Through this shared act of faith, may our Diocese be renewed in holiness, strengthened in charity, and united in mission. Visit www.fallriverdiocese.org to learn more about the Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church initiative.
