FIRST READINGA Reading from The Book of the Prophet Isaiah Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:
Observe what is right, do what is just;
for my salvation is about to come,
my justice, about to be revealed.

The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD,
ministering to him,
loving the name of the LORD,
and becoming his servants—
all who keep the sabbath free from profanation
and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer;
their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. \ O God, let all the nations praise you!

May God have pity on us and bless us;
may he let his face shine upon us.
So may your way be known upon earth;
among all nations, your salvation.

R. \ O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity;
the nations on the earth you guide.

R. \ O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the peoples praise you, O God;
may all the peoples praise you!
May God bless us,
and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

R. \ O God, let all the nations praise you!

SECOND READINGA Reading from The Letter of St. Paul to The Romans*Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Brothers and sisters:

I am speaking to you Gentiles.

Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.
Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPELA Reading from The Gospel according to Matthew*Matthew 15:21-28

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon."

But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her.

Jesus' disciples came and asked him,

"Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us."

He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying,
"Lord, help me."

He said in reply,

"It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs."

She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

Then Jesus said to her in reply,

"O woman, great is your faith!

Let it be done for you as you wish."

And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Fr. Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of Matthew

Sometimes in the story of the gospels, it is not the disciples chosen by the Lord who display great faith but the minor characters, those who appear once in the gospel story and then are never heard of again. It is these minor characters, rather than the leading ones, who are often the most attractive and inspiring. We have an example of one such minor gospel character in today's gospel reading. We never hear of this pagan woman again, outside of this story, and, yet, she displays a depth and strength of faith in Jesus, persuading him to do something he was initially very reluctant to do. At this point in his ministry, Jesus' focus was the people of Israel. He wanted to proclaim the gospel in word and deed to his own people first, so that a renewed Israel could then bring the gospel to the pagans. This is what Jesus means by his very short parable that seems harsh to our ears, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the houndedogs.' The children, the people of Israel, have to be fed first. However, this persistent woman was not prepared to go along with Jesus' timetable. Her daughter was desperately ill, and she couldn't wait. Jesus came to recognize that her need was more important than his timetable, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your wise be granted.' This woman displayed a determined, passionate, unflinching faith, in the Lord's healing power, even in the face of his initial refusal to respond to her. We need something of her faith today. We need a quality of faith that keeps us engaged with the Lord, even when the Lord seems unresponsive. In reality, the Lord always responds to us when we engage with him, even if it is in ways we don't fully understand at the time.

Points To Ponder

We admire the mother or father who really fights for their child. They won't take no for an answer if their child is being bullied or treated unjustly in any way, they will fight for the best medical treatment for their sick child. The woman in the gospel is like that. She has a sick child and really wants healing. Who would not want the same? She almost forces Jesus into curing her little daughter. Her persistence is an effect of her faith, and because of her faith Jesus cures her child. 'Dogs' was a name for the Gentiles - and in this story the woman plays on its meaning to get Jesus to feed the dogs and, in this way, care for her. Maybe this is a 'change moment' for Jesus when he realizes through this poor woman that he is sent not only to his own lost ones, but that his mission is for the whole world.

This is not the first biblical figure to argue with the Lord: Genesis and Exodus tell of times when Abraham and Moses gave out to God. This woman is different from the scribes who often tried to trap Jesus with arguments. She is begging for her daughter. There is something teasing and humorous about Jesus' first reply to her. He enjoyed that Semitic style of thrust and counter. His first response is what we often experience in prayer no give. But a mother seeking health for her child is not easily deterred, and Jesus rewards her persistence.

World Mission Rosaries The Beatification of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

On September 24 in St. Louis, the Church will honor one of the greatest evangelists in American history. Before the Mass begins, tens of thousands will gather to pray the World Mission Rosary.

Parishioners from around the world were challenged with making and donating Rosary Beads for this special moment. Thank you to Nancy Sylvester, who led the project to complete 500 Rosaries, and thank you to all of the women from our parish who volunteered to take on this challenge, spending countless hours creating these special Rosaries.

The Traveling First-Class Relic of Saint John Vianney Is Coming to Our Parish!

We are blessed to welcome a first-class relic of Saint John Vianney, the patron saint of priests, as part of the diocesan renewal initiative Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church.

The relic will be here for veneration from August 26th — September 2nd.

The visit of this relic is more than a moment of devotion — it is a call to consecration. Our priests have consecrated themselves and their ministry to Saint John Vianney, and now every member of the faithful is invited to do the same. Holy cards will be available to make your personal Act of Consecration to Saint John Vianney. Through this shared act of faith, may our Diocese be renewed in holiness, strengthened in charity, and united in mission. Visit www.fallriverdiocese.org to learn more about the Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church initiative.

SAINT JOHN EUDES AUGUST 19

For 20 years, this Oratorian priest preached the basics of the faith to unschooled Catholics across northern France, distinguishing himself especially by serving the sick during epidemics of the plague. John, devout from childhood, helped spread devotion to the Sacred Heart and was the first to call for an official feast day.
