FIRST READINGA Reading from The Book of the Prophet Jeremiah*Jeremiah 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped;
 you were too strong for me, and you triumphed.
 All the day I am an object of laughter;
 everyone mocks me.

Whenever I speak, I must cry out,
 violence and outrage is my message;
 the word of the LORD has brought me
 derision and reproach all the day.

I say to myself, I will not mention him,
 I will speak in his name no more.
 But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart,
 imprisoned in my bones;
 I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

Thanks be to God.Responsorial Psalm Psalm 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
 O God, you are my God whom I seek;
 for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.
R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
 Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory,
 for your kindness is a greater good than life;
 my lips shall glorify you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
 Thus will I bless you while I live;
 lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.
 As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied,
 and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
 You are my help,
 and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.
 My soul clings fast to you;
 your right hand upholds me.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READINGA Reading from The Letter of St. Paul to The Romans*Romans 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.
 Do not conform yourselves to this age
 but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God,
 what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Thanks be to God.GOSPEL*A Reading from The Gospel according to Matthew*Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised.
 Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke
 him,
 "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you."
 He turned and said to Peter,
 "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me.
 You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Then Jesus said to his disciples,
 "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself,
 take up his cross, and follow me.
 For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it,
 but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.
 What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world
 and forfeit his life?
 Or what can one give in exchange for his life?
 For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory,
 and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

Fr. Edward A. Murphy

Gospel of Matthew

In today's Gospel, Jesus shows the disciples that while it might be nice for him continuing to pray, teach and heal, he must instead go to Jerusalem and be killed. Peter got it into his head that suffering and death were wrong for Jesus, inwardly rebelling against the apparent cruelty of the divine plan. So Peter thought he would cheer Jesus up by saying: 'may you be spared master, God forbid that such a thing should ever happen to you'. To Peter's astonishment Jesus exploded with a violence rarely seen in the Gospels. The path of suffering and death wasn't easy for Jesus to accept and Peter wasn't making it anyway lighter by his well-intentioned comments. Jesus summarized Peter's whole problem in one sentence; 'You are not judging by God's standards, but by human standards,' (like, 'take care, don't overdo it'). God was demonstrating in Jesus that real happiness comes through suffering, true joy through sorrow and everlasting life through death.

The Christian cannot eliminate the cross of salvation from his or her life no more than Jesus could. The mystery of suffering boils down to a test of love, of being willing to suffer for another, because we love that person so much. So we accept suffering in trust and confidence as Jesus did. That involves every kind of suffering, not just the physical kind, but also all the mental and emotional anguish, the frustration, the loneliness, the boredom of human existence. Accept it all we must, but we need not be surprised if that acceptance is a struggle as it was for Jesus. As we look at the crucifix, we remember that Jesus tells us to take up our cross. We could be tempted to say like Peter, 'may I be spared, Lord, God forbid that any such thing could ever happen to me!' One must not save one's life as one would save a treasure, but as one who would lose a treasure by spending it.

Points To Ponder

Peter has just been congratulated as the rock on which Jesus will build his church. He is comfortable in a theology of grace and glory. Suddenly that rock looks sandy and unsafe. Jesus calls him abruptly out of his comfort zone into the real world where suffering must be faced (cross is used here as a proverbial term for suffering and agony, not referring specifically to Jesus' crucifixion).

One of the ideas in the gospel is that we take up the cross of doing what is right and being willing to bear it. Like parents who try to explain, cajole, encourage and define what is right for their children, even when they are thought foolish. Jesus bore a cross to the end of his convictions and love.

Taking the cross is also accepting and living with pain, suffering of any sort, and the griefs of life we can do nothing about. Crosses may be inflicted on us by others. We know of people who have accepted a heavy burden in life and who ploughed tough furrows, through no fault of their own. They have been helped often by the example of the one who carried the cross to the end. Help often came to them also from family, friends and neighbors.

On the way to Calvary, Jesus was helped by one man, remembered forever, Simon from Africa. Help can come from expected or unexpected quarters, but help there must be if we are to bear our crosses in life. In prayer we might ask how we help those near us carry the burdens of their lives.

Medjugorje Message (August 25th, 2026)

“Dear children! Today I am calling you: return to God, return to prayer, so that you may become carriers of peace. Pray, little children, for peace that is in danger; and may prayer begin to flow anew from your hearts and from your families, so that, in joy, you may feel the voice of Jesus in your hearts: 'Peace be with you.' Be, little children, carriers of peace and prayer for all those who do not pray. I am with you and I pray for you before my Son Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Men of St. Joseph Fall Kickoff Meeting

The first Men of St. Joseph meeting of the season will be held this Saturday, September 5th. It will begin with Holy Mass at 9:00am, followed by Rosary, fellowship, and their Men's Meeting. This will be their pre-Labor Day Fall kickoff, and every man in the parish is welcome.

The meeting will consist of a short video, coffee, snacks, and an open format that encourages real conversation — faith, family, culture, and the challenges men face today. Come join us as we start the fall season together!

The Traveling First-Class Relic of Saint John Vianney is Here!

We are blessed to welcome a first-class relic of Saint John Vianney, the patron saint of priests, as part of the diocesan renewal initiative Stronger Priests, Stronger Parishes, Stronger Church.

The relic will be here for veneration from August 26th — September 2nd.

The visit of this relic is more than a moment of devotion — it is a call to consecration. Our priests have consecrated themselves and their ministry to Saint John Vianney, and now every member of the faithful is invited to do the same. All parishioners are invited to come pray before the relic and to make a personal Act of Consecration to Saint John Vianney - joining our priests in entrusting our lives and vocations to Christ through his intercession. Holy cards will be available to make your personal Act of Consecration to Saint John Vianney. Through this shared act of faith, may our Diocese be renewed in holiness, strengthened in charity, and united in mission. Let us unite as a parish family in praying for holy priests, vibrant parishes, more vocations, and renewed faith across our Diocese.

Prayer to Begin A School Year

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart, you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways. At the beginning of this new school year we implore your mercy, bless our students, teachers, and staff, that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus. Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge, deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways, and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need. Glory and praise to you, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever.

Amen
