INFO: STJUDEMOMSClub@GMAIL.COM

Journey to Justice is a ministry of St. Jude Church that provides help with school homework to the children of low-income farmworker and immigrant families in our community. Reading and math skills are helpful, but volunteers are always welcome! In the next few months the ministry will also participate in other projects that help our neighbors, including the Thanksgiving holiday, and the annual Giving Trees project.

For more information, come to our meeting at 10 a.m. at Mt. Carmel Hall, on Monday October 6, 2025.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Our Small Groups Discipleship Ministry “kicks-off” today! This is our 3rd year embracing the Diocese of Palm Beach’s vision for Youth Ministry and Confirmation preparation. The ministry model of Jesus switches the focus from programs to individuals. Like Jesus with the disciples, the church is calling us to see and meet people where they are, to walk with them, to listen to them, and to journey with them back to Jesus. This vision, of evangelizing and life changing youth ministry, includes Confirmation Preparation.

In preparing for Confirmation the teens are asked to choose a Saint name. They are told to choose a Saint that they admire, someone that shared their same interests, or someone they aspire to be like. We are devoting this school year to Saint Carlo Acutis. The students will be learning more about his life, and the things that he was passionate about. St. Carlo Acutis certainly could be that Saint that many students admire and feel connected to. Here are a few of his attributes:

- Carlo Acutis had a profound love and devotion to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, which he considered the center of his life.
- As a teenager, he was a gamer and computer programmer who used technology to spread the message of Christ and create a website cataloging Eucharistic miracles.
- He showed that holiness can be lived out by anyone, even a teenager in the modern world, through small, consistent acts of faith.
- Carlo was known for his compassion towards the poor and for standing up for those who were bullied or disabled.
- His faith was so strong that it influenced adults to convert and receive the sacraments, leading his own mother to a deeper conversion.

I always love reading the Saint Reports that the Confirmation students write. It’s intriguing to see why they chose a particular Saint as their intercessor and friend. I’m curious to see how many will choose St. Carlo Acutis this year. You really can’t find a more perfect Saint and role model for this generation. I pray that our young people will aspire, as Carlo did, “to always be close to Jesus, that’s my life plan.”
