Welcome to our Parish

We invite you to share in our mission

St. Jude Parish is a Catholic Community of God's People of the Diocese of Palm Beach located in Boca Raton, Florida, founded in June, 1979. We are a people of diverse backgrounds and ethnic origins united by God, formed by the Gospels, strengthened by the Sacraments and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

We seek to deepen our personal union with Jesus Christ and to grow as a faith community. We seek to enrich our heritage of care and concern for all by sharing God's love and healing with the world around us.

Guided by the Holy Spirit, we pledge ourselves to pursue this mission by participation in the liturgical, educational, and social ministries of the Church. We recognize that to be effective, these ministries require spiritual, physical, and financial resources, and we accept our responsibility as Christian Stewards to provide these resources.

The Second Sunday of Advent

I begin this letter with an invitation, and a reminder, that on Thursday, December 11, we will gather at 7pm for our annual Advent Reconciliation Service. As usual, we expect to have at least ten priests on hand to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I remind you that on December 17 we will gather at Saint John the Evangelist and on December 18 we will be at Saint Joan of Arc for the Evening of Reconciliation. We are available for the Sacrament every Saturday at 4pm in the Church. As I wrote in my previous letter I ask that you honor these times—in the past we have been asked to hear a confession ten minutes before Mass on Christmas Eve---the Sacrament is too important to be rushed.

Tomorrow, December 8, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. Mass will be celebrated at 8am and 12 noon.

Next weekend, December 13-14, we commemorate Bambinelli Sunday. We invite you to bring the “baby Jesus” figurine from your nativity display to Church for a special blessing. This tradition was started by John Paul II to emphasize that Jesus is the center of Christmas.

I trust you have marked your calendar and plan on attending our Christmas Concert on December 17. This yearly event is one that we all look forward to. Nobody leaves the Church without the Christmas Spirit after the Concert!

Looking ahead—on Saturday, December 20 at 5pm we will celebrate our second candle light Mass. This Mass for the 4th Sunday of Advent will be celebrated by candle light. Following Mass, we invite you to the Gathering Place for hot chocolate and Christmas cookies. Many people commented on the peace they felt and the beauty of this Mass when we celebrated it last year.

December is certainly a busy month! Remember that our Adoration Chapel is open and provides a peaceful oasis for prayer and quiet reflection---something I know I need especially amid the hustle and bustle of this time of year and the days leading up to Christmas!

I remind you that our Church can only seat a limited number of people at the 5pm Mass on Christmas Eve and for everyone’s safety after we reach capacity nobody will be admitted to the Church. Ushers will seat people as they arrive—no saving of seats. A Palm Beach County Sheriff will be at the doors and he will not admit anyone once capacity has been reached. We remind you that on Christmas Eve we have Mass in Mount Carmel Hall at 5pm.

December 5, 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious, which helps meet the growing needs of more than 21,000 elderly sisters, brothers and religious-order priests who have been faithful servants of the Church, will be next weekend, December 13/14.

Rising health care costs and the absence of traditional retirement plans have placed significant strain on many religious communities. In 2024, the average annual cost of care for those over age 70 was about $56,600 per person, with skilled nursing care averaging $96,000. Also, the average annual Social Security benefit for a religious is $9,090, while the average lay beneficiary receives $23,704. The Retirement Fund for Religious helps address these challenges.

Since 1988, the U.S. Catholic bishops have organized a collection to address the deficit in retirement funds among religious communities. Last year, the appeal raised more than $28.1 million, providing assistance to 266 U.S. religious communities. Beyond financial aid, the collection supports educational programs, empowering religious communities to plan for their long-term needs.

I am grateful for the impact these women and men have had on our faith journeys, inspiring and guiding us all. Your donation to the Retirement Fund for Religious plays a vital role in providing necessary financial support. I invite you to give whatever you can toward this year's collection, and please keep all our women and men religious in your prayers.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
 Bishop of Palm Beach

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

2ND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

A pastor was working in his office one day when the church secretary came scurrying through the door out of breath. "Pastor, Pastor, I have news!" she said, trying to regain her composure. "Well, what's the news?" asked the perplexed pastor. "Jesus is coming. He's back, and he's coming here right now. What should we do?" The pastor smiled, turned back to his computer and answered, "Look busy!"

The 2nd Sunday of Advent is about getting ready in the right way. It is not just about waiting. It is about turning back to God with open hearts and open hands. In the Gospel, John the Baptist appears. He tells the people to repent. Turn around. Get ready. Someone greater is coming. He will bring the Holy Spirit and fire. John reminds us that real faith shows in our actions. Advent is about more than our preparation for the Church's celebration of Christ's birth at Christmas. Advent is also about preparing ourselves for Christ's return in glory at the end of time.

In family life, we try to prepare ourselves for many future things: our next vacation, our children's education, our retirement. We are careful not to allow ourselves to be caught by surprise so that we can handle any challenges our family may face. Today's Gospel reminds us that we are called to be just as attentive and alert to the coming of the Son of Man so that it will not catch us unprepared. This means attending to our family's spiritual life as carefully as we attend to other important family matters.

As you gather as a family, talk about a time when you received surprise visitors at your house, perhaps a neighbor who stopped by or a relative who arrived unannounced. Was your household prepared to receive this unannounced guest? What might your family have done differently if you knew ahead of time that this visitor was going to arrive? Jesus told his disciples that no one knows when the Son of Man will return, except the Father.

The 2nd Sunday of Advent helps us focus on changing our lives to be ready for Christ. It's not enough to just "look busy", by turning away from sin and living with hope, we welcome Jesus into our hearts. Advent reminds us that waiting is not passive but active and joyful, filled with expectation and faith.
