Catholic Schools

The beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord,
and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
Proverbs 9:10

From the desk of Fr. John ...

This weekend we are happy to welcome Father Daniel and Sister Jadwiga to our Parish. This dynamic duo has a very special ministry in the Church in general and our Diocese in particular. Father Daniel and Sister Jadwiga are the face of the Office for Vocations and Seminarians of the Diocese of Palm Beach. What makes them so effective is their obvious love for the Lord, their zeal in their particular vocations and their desire to accompany those who are responding to their call to holiness especially as religious or ordained ministers. It really is a privilege to have them with us this weekend. Please pray for them, for those discerning their vocation and of course an increase of vocations to religious life and the ordained ministry.

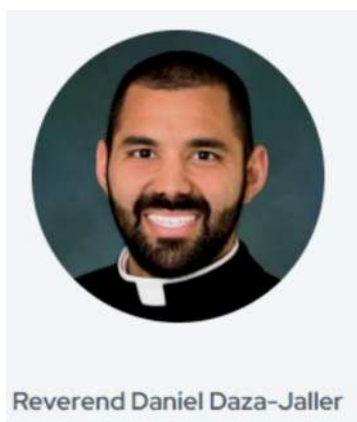

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week. I wish to thank Miss Armstrong for her leadership as Principal here at Saint Jude. To her administrative team along with our faculty and staff I also extend my gratitude for their commitment to Catholic education. I know that we stand on holy ground here, that the Gospel is modeled and our beautiful Catholic culture and traditions are passed on to the next generation. Catholic Schools do make a difference!!! We are mission driven—and that mission is given to us by Jesus—go, make disciples. We exist to make lifelong disciples of Jesus.

The Parish Gala and Auction is on Saturday, February 7th. Did you get your ticket yet? This yearly event gives us an opportunity to gather socially and enjoy each other's company, to honor some parishioners for their service and to raise needed funds to continue the mission of the Parish. Since the venue is the Opal Resort in Delray our theme this year is Broadway on the Beach. Guests will enjoy some exceptional entertainment, great food, the opportunity to bid on a wide variety of auction items and have the satisfaction of knowing they are supporting a great cause. I hope to see you there!

Before you know it we will be in the season of Lent. Ash Wednesday begins on February 18. We are using Ash Wednesday as an opportunity to reach out to those who may not ordinarily worship with us but do come to Church on various occasions like Ash Wednesday. We will distribute Lenten Reflection booklets to those who are not registered or regular members of the Parish. I ask that you, our regular parishioners, do not take a booklet that evening in order that those we wish to evangelize and reach out to can get one. If any are left over you are certainly welcome to have one.

So many people have told me that the book 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory is giving them a new appreciation for the Eucharist. Stayed tuned to learn how we may mark the Consecration on February 2.

Thank you to each and every one of you for your commitment to the Parish. May God help us to be the people and the parish He desires us to be!

Reverend Daniel Daza-Jaller

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

"COME AFTER ME, AND I WILL MAKE YOU FISHERS OF MEN."

Today's Gospel tells us little about the background of these fishermen, their work, and their families. In today's Gospel, we are simply told that James and John left their father, Zebedee, in the boat and followed Jesus.

Some details about the families of these first followers of Jesus are found later in Matthew's Gospel, however. In Matthew 8:14-15 for example, Jesus goes to the home of Peter and heals his mother-in-law of a fever. Matthew 20:20-28 relates how the mother of the sons of Zebedee (James and John) approaches Jesus with the request that her sons be given places of honor in Jesus' kingdom. These brief references suggest that the first disciples' separation from their families may not have been as complete as the verses in today's Gospel might lead us to believe. Matthew points out the separation because he wants to show that Christian discipleship can require a change in our lives and even our family relationships.

Perhaps the message for us today is to balance the radical call to be a follower of Jesus with the challenge to be "fishers of men" even within our own families. Creating this balance may require that we change some of the priorities of our own family life.

As a family, detail the activities of a typical day. Discuss together what priorities are reflected in this daily schedule. How does your family respond when your daily plans are interrupted or must be changed? Together read today's Gospel, Matthew 4:12-23. Reflect together on the example of the first disciples who dropped everything to follow Jesus. Ask: Does our family schedule give evidence that we put God first in our family life? What might we do to better reflect that God is our priority?

Pray together that your family will always give evidence that God comes first in your family life.

(Excerpts taken from Loyola Press - Sunday Connection)

Susan

Creating a Safer Community Together

The Diocese of Palm Beach is deeply committed to protecting the most vulnerable among us, especially children and vulnerable adults.
