RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

Today's Gospel tells the story of the temptation of Jesus by Satan. Over 40 days of fasting, the Devil entices Jesus with offers of comfort, power and prestige. At each opportunity, Jesus responds with Scripture and reaffirms his commitment to God's will. Temptations are opportunities for our spiritual growth; the more we overcome temptation, the more we grow in spiritual strength. Jesus used his faith and knowledge of Scripture to hold fast to his convictions and not fall prey to the temptations the Devil laid out in front of him. As we start our journey through Lent, this Sunday's Gospel calls us to adopt the same confidence that Jesus had in the face of temptation. Jesus didn't need to prove that he was the Son of God, he didn't need power and glory, and he didn't need to test God. Jesus knew that God would give him all he really needed. Jesus wants us to know this, too.

Think about the temptations described in this Gospel as temptations to want more than we need. During Lent we can practice resisting temptations such as these. Our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving help us to correct our perceptions about the things we "want" versus the things we "need." They remind us of our dependence on God, and they help us to remember that God gives us everything we need.

Just as Jesus was tempted after his baptism, we too are continually tempted since the days of our own baptism. In the story of his temptation in the desert, Jesus teaches us that if we arm ourselves with the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, we will overcome any temptation to sin that comes our way. This Lent let's immerse ourselves in the Holy Spirit, and the Word of God, as we walk with Jesus to Jerusalem. That is how we will successfully journey with Him through Lent!

¡JESUCRISTO HA RESUCITADO!

Diocesan Services Appeal
is now underway!

These words are taken from St. Augustine's exposition on Psalm 127, where he explains that, although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one.

As we share this message, we keep in mind that, although there are many faithful members in the five diverse counties and 54 parishes/missions that make up the Diocese of Palm Beach, we are part of one community, one Church united in Christ.
