RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

WHEN LENT BECOMES ABOUT RELATIONSHIP

I remember those Lents when I kept my resolution but still failed in what I set out to do. By giving up chocolate, coffee, or social media, I emerged from those 40 days slimmer, less addicted to caffeine, and Facebook-free, yet no stronger spiritually. The Lents that drew me closer to God were those when I stopped trying to “better” myself and focused on my relationship with Christ.

If you’ve found yourself flunking out of Lent, perhaps it’s time to reassess your practice and your goals. Have you chosen a Lenten resolution to deepen your relationship with God or are you doing something for yourself and calling it a Lenten sacrifice?

Next Sunday we celebrate Laetare Sunday, a day that reminds us to rejoice because Easter draws near. Even as we reach the halfway point of Lent, the Church gently encourages us not to lose heart. The Lord is not keeping score; He is inviting us into relationship. At every moment, He stands ready to receive us, strengthen us, and guide us forward.

Perhaps your prayer life has been inconsistent. Perhaps your fasting has faltered. Perhaps your almsgiving has yet to begin. Do not let discouragement have the final word. God always meets us where we are - not where we think we should be. A sincere resolution made today is just as beautiful in His sight as one made weeks ago.

Lent is our time in the desert with Christ. The desert is not a place of failure, but of encounter. It is where distractions fall away and we learn again to rely on God alone. So begin now. Turn your heart toward Him. Step back into prayer. Choose one small sacrifice. Offer one concrete act of charity.

Do not let a good resolution today go to waste simply because it isn’t Ash Wednesday. The Lord is already waiting for you in the desert. Start walking toward Him, and you will find that He has been walking toward you all along.

¡JESUCRISTO HA RESUCITADO!

Diocesan Services Appeal
is now underway!

These words are taken from St. Augustine’s exposition on Psalm 127, where he explains that, although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one.

As we share this message, we keep in mind that, although there are many faithful members in the five diverse counties and 54 parishes/missions that make up the Diocese of Palm Beach, we are part of one community, one Church united in Christ.

Thank you!
