RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

LET IT BE HIM

At this point of Lent, with less than 2 weeks to go don't worry so much if you ate that chocolate bar or not. Just ask where your heart is. Where your thoughts are. What your feet walk toward. What your eyes search for. Sometimes the deepest truths of faith aren't discovered through words, but through a quiet moment of simply seeing and letting your heart respond. Sometimes you have to put the books aside and just "see".

Find an image of Jesus that moves your heart and get lost in it. The Saints did that, you know. St. Thomas Aquinas said he learned more from looking at the Crucifix than from all the books he read. He began all his works in prayer at the foot of the cross.

St. Catherine of Siena described the Crucifix as an "open book," a testimony that taught her the love of Jesus without words. She taught that by gazing at the crucified Jesus, one reads the story of salvation and mercy in his wounds. And St. Francis de Sales said the "book of the Cross" was the source of his meditations.

In the midst of our busy lives, it's easy to become distracted by countless worries, responsibilities, and opinions. When life feels overwhelming, when faith feels dry, or when we do not know what to pray, simply look at Him. Stay there for a moment. Let the silence speak. In that gaze, Christ meets us. He comforts us, strengthens us, and gently reminds us that we belong to Him.

Sometimes the surest way to soften your heart is to do precisely what the Saints did: keep your eyes fixed on Jesus Crucified. Let it be Him.

Diocesan Services Appeal is now underway!

These words are taken from St. Augustine's exposition on Psalm 127, where he explains that, although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one.

As we share this message, we keep in mind that, although there are many faithful members in the five diverse counties and 54 parishes/missions that make up the Diocese of Palm Beach, we are part of one community, one Church united in Christ.
