THE DIOCESAN
BISHOP

March 27, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Every year, the Holy Father asks parishioners to support the Pontifical Good Friday collection, which seeks to bolster Christian presence in the Holy Land, aid ministry in its sacred shrines and parishes, provide for formation and education in communities and schools, and fund basic needs for struggling people. The 2026 collection will be taken up on Good Friday, April 3.

Your awareness of and generosity toward this year's collection will help enable Christians and the Catholic Church to stay in the Holy Land, in the very land made holy by the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. The Franciscans of the Custody of the Holy Land help maintain and safeguard sacred sites and shrines, as well as care for the "living stones" who are present among them.

I humbly ask for your prayers and financial support for this annual collection, as encouraged by Pope Leo XIV. By supporting these efforts, you stand with the Church in the Holy Land, and you become an instrument of peace in a troubled region.

Assuring you and all those you love of my continued remembrance in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and commending you to the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Apostles, I remain

Sincerely yours in our Lord Jesus Christ,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, starting with a cross symbol and followed by the name 'Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez'. The signature is written in a cursive style.

Most Reverend Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez, J.C.D.
Bishop of Palm Beach

Creating a Safer Community Together

The Diocese of Palm Beach is deeply committed to protecting the most vulnerable among us, especially children and vulnerable adults. The Office of Safe Environments is a trusted resource for families, educators, and community members who want to ensure safety is always a priority.

Explore <https://www.diocesepb.org/safe-environments.html> to find:

- Clear policies and procedures that promote accountability
- Educational tools and training programs
- Background screening guidelines
- Tips for staying safe both online and in everyday life
- Parenting insights and links to helpful websites

Through proactive measures and a strong commitment to prevention, the diocese continues to build a culture where safety isn't just a goal - it's a way of life.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

Palm Sunday and Holy Week

The very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road. The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." Matthew 21:8-9

During Lent, we have walked a long way with Jesus. And now here we are, at the gates of the city of Jerusalem. It's the last part of the journey. It will be hard. But it doesn't seem that way right now, does it? For today, we are singing songs of praise and waving palm branches for Jesus! Suffering lies ahead, though.

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me" is the most poignant cry Jesus utters in the gospel. The very word "forsaken" is one of the most tragic words in all human speech. And it makes us shudder, because we've all been there. Who hasn't wondered in a time of great anguish: Why is God doing this? Why would God let this happen: to me, to my loved one, to my country, to the planet?

To suffer is overwhelming; to suffer alone, when love itself seems to have departed from us, is unbearable. That Jesus speaks these words reminds us that He has fully taken on our human condition, including our need to know that someone cares and sees our struggle. To ask this question is not to lose faith. It's to trust that God does hear, it's to trust that God does care, it's to trust that God is near enough to encircle the enormity of our pain. Jesus was not alone or forgotten in those dark and distressing hours, and neither are we.

In these last few days leading up to Easter, as we prayerfully reflect on the events of Jesus' passion and death, remember that above all, Jesus has given us a model of how to live. May we strive to be all that He created us to be; spreading the love of God and the truth of our Catholic faith wherever we are able.

Wishing you a blessed Holy Week as we prepare to celebrate the joy of Easter together.
Susan

THANK YOU!

We are truly grateful to all the parishioners who participated in the Baby Shower! Your generous contributions resulted in a remarkable collection of 350 baby items, which will greatly assist families in need within our community.

Diocesan Services Appeal is now underway!

These words are taken from St. Augustine's exposition on Psalm 127, where he explains that, although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one.

As we share this message, we keep in mind that, although there are many faithful members in the five diverse counties and 54 parishes/missions that make up the Diocese of Palm Beach, we are part of one community, one Church united in Christ.

Thank you!
