Office of The Diocesan Bishop

October 2, 2026

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, October 10/11, the faithful of our diocese are asked to participate in a second collection for World Mission Sunday, observed October 18, which honors those who follow the Gospel mandate to go out and preach to all nations. The 2026 World Mission Sunday theme, chosen by Pope Leo XIV, is “One in Christ, United in Mission,” highlighting the unity of believers, founded on the union of Christ with the Father, and the consequent common mission of evangelization.

The annual collection supports more than 1,000 Catholic communities in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. By supporting this collection, we join with many others to assist these missions and ministries and provide help for some of the most vulnerable regions around the world. This year’s worldwide celebration of World Mission Sunday will mark the 100th anniversary of the day’s establishment by Pope Pius XI at the suggestion of the Pontifical Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Pope Leo, recalling his personal experience as a priest and later as a missionary bishop in Peru, said: “I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer, and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.” Please consider generously supporting this worthwhile collection to spread the message of Jesus throughout the world.

Assuring you and all those you love of my continued remembrance in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and commending you to the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Apostles, I remain

Sincerely yours in our Lord Jesus Christ,

Most Reverend Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez, J.C.D.
Bishop of Palm Beach

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & FAITH FORMATION

FAMILY CONNECTION - Matthew 21:33-43

In an ideal household, family members know the rules and follow them consistently. Even the most conscientious sometimes need to be reminded of the rules and their importance. How we respond to such correction reveals our true character. In today's Gospel Jesus exposes the religious leaders for their failure to heed God's messengers. It is an opportunity for us to consider how we respond to those who are God's messengers today, calling us to correct our ways and return to the way of the Lord.

Younger children are learning how to follow the rules. Understanding that rules teach us how to live good lives can be helpful to younger children. Jesus teaches us that when we follow God's Word, we help build up his kingdom. Few of us take correction well. Children, in particular, can be less than gracious when corrected by others. Teens and preteens are sensitive about acceptance and rejection. Today's Gospel presents us with an opportunity to consider how we respond to God's word as it is sent through his messengers. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable that illustrates how we often reject God's giving himself to us. As parents and children alike learn to follow God's Word, we discover that obedience is not simply about rules - it is about helping build the Kingdom of God.

THE ROAD TO SEOUL

Following our St. Jude pilgrims on their journey to World Youth Day 2027

Thank You, St. Jude!

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who joined us for Bingo, Burgers & Brew and supported our World Youth Day fundraising efforts. Your generosity is helping send our young pilgrims to World Youth Day Seoul 2027 and, more importantly, helping them grow as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. Please continue to keep our pilgrims in your prayers!

Thank you to everyone who has already donated. We are truly grateful. For those who haven't yet donated we kindly ask you to consider making your contribution.

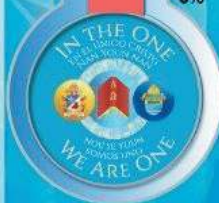

We're eager to close out this campaign as soon as possible.

Blessings to you and your Family.
