Behold the Greater Love

"See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are." — 1 John 3:1

This month is Valentine's Day, a holiday that often prompts us to think about love. And because of this, we will sometimes celebrate romance, affection, and commitment with cards, chocolates, flowers, and carefully chosen words. Sometimes we might even sit down to watch a Romcom on television.

Now there is nothing necessarily wrong with any of this because love is a gift from God. Human love can be beautiful and meaningful. But Valentine's Day can also reveal how limited our grasp of love often is. So much of what we celebrate is conditional, fragile, and passing. It depends on feelings, circumstances, or reciprocity.

But Scripture, however, calls us to stop and behold a form of love that is far greater. In fact, John begins this verse with an invitation to experience God's love: "See what kind of love the Father has given to us." The word "see" could also be translated as "behold—pause, look closely, take this in. John is not rushing past God's love as a theological concept; he wants us to stand in awe of it. This is an affection that demands reflection, wonder, and gratitude.

What kind of love is this?

John answers by pointing to its result: "that we should be called children of God." We should not be admirers. Not servants alone. Not distant followers. Children. God's love doesn't merely express affection—it confers identity. Through Christ, God adopts us into His family. This love reshapes who we are and how we belong.

That's where God's love differs so sharply from many of the loves we celebrate on Valentine's Day. Human love often says, "I love you because..." Because you make me happy. Because you meet my needs. Because you're attractive, kind, loyal, or familiar.

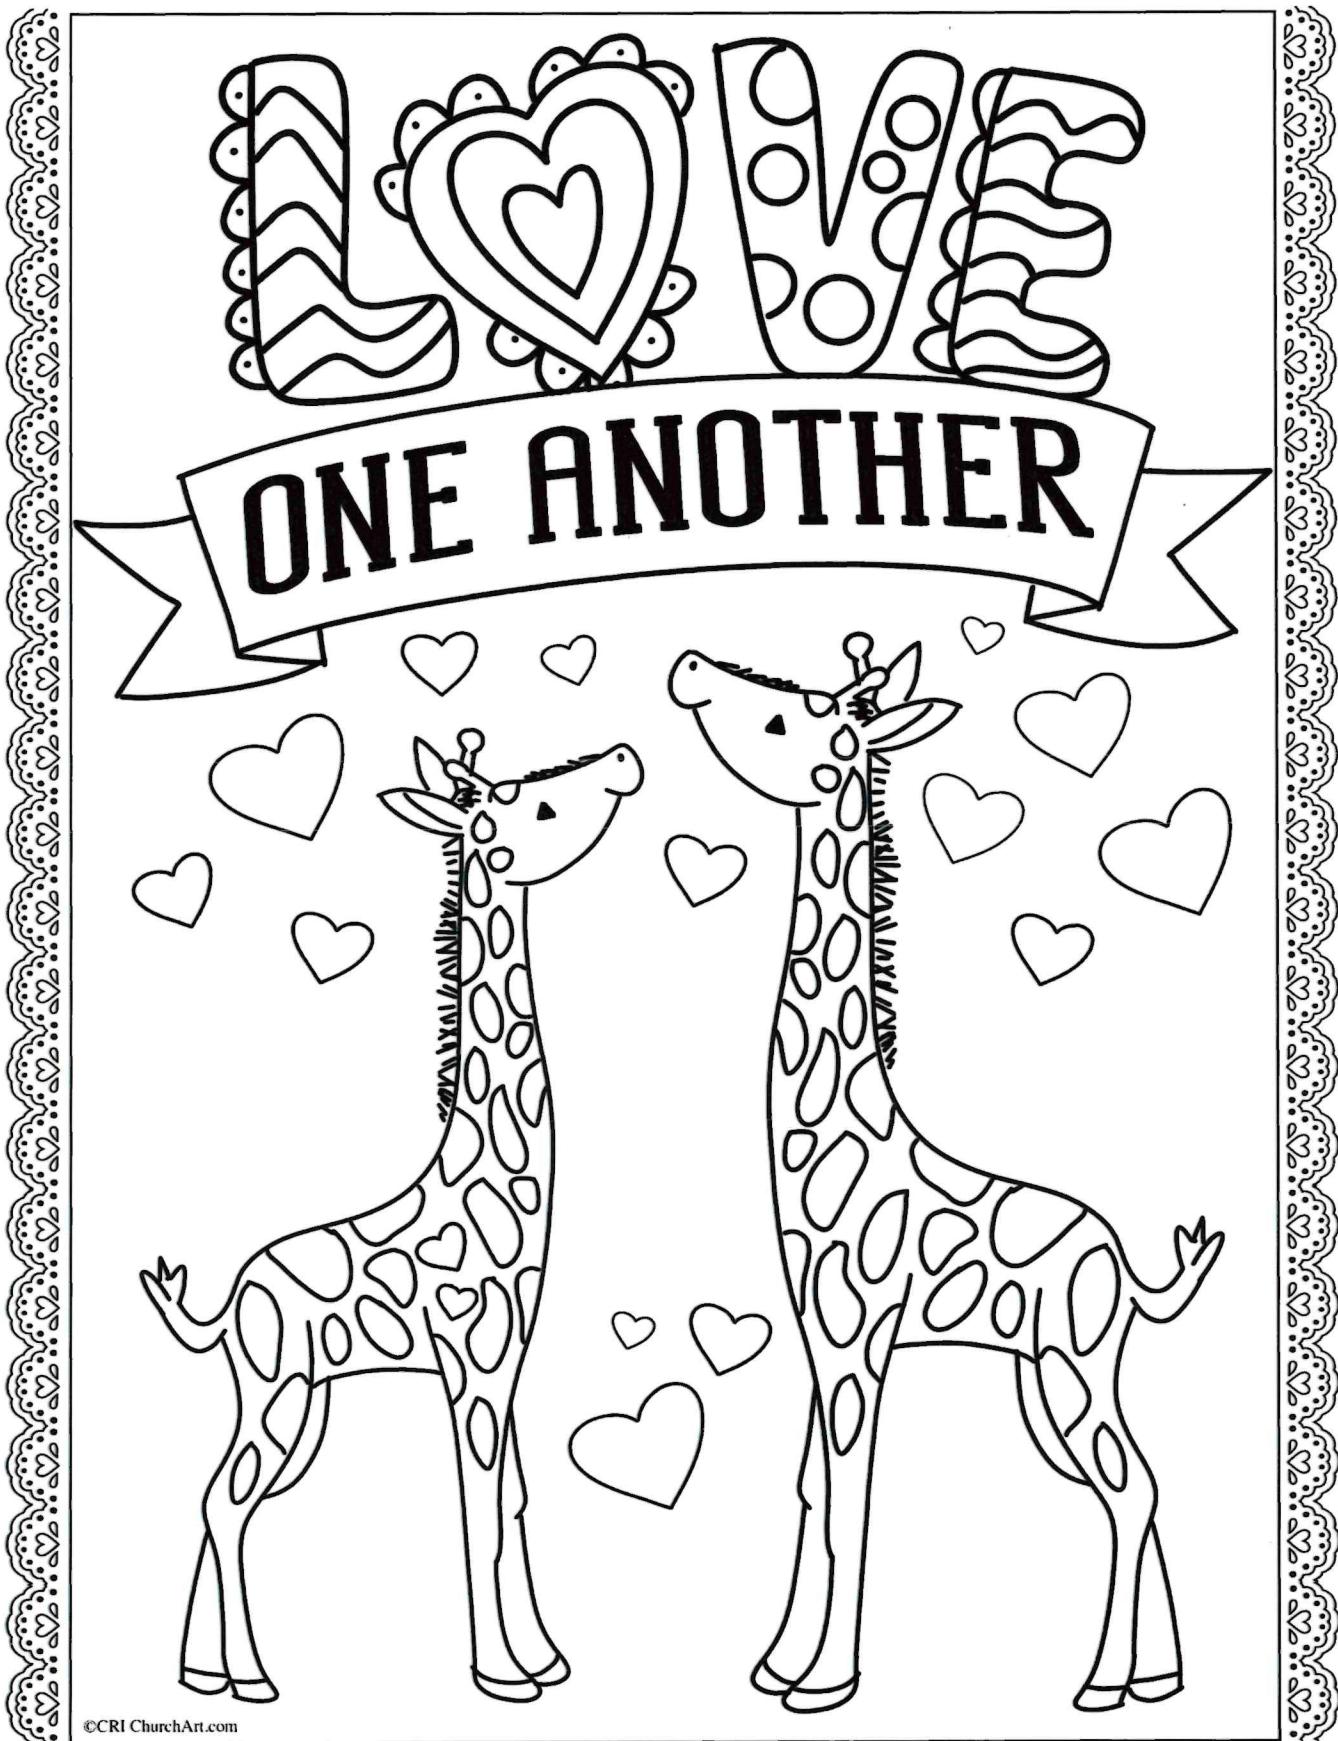

But God's love says, "I love you, therefore..." Therefore you are my child. Therefore you belong. Therefore you are secure, forgiven, and known. His love does not arise from our worthiness; it creates our worth.

And John goes even further by adding a small but powerful phrase: "and so we are." He wants us to know this is not symbolic language or wishful thinking. If you are in Christ, you truly are a child of God right now. God's love is not something you're hoping to grow into—it is something already given. On days when you feel unloved, overlooked, or inadequate, this truth remains unchanged.

A Valentine's Day type of love can fade. Feelings shift. Relationships can disappoint. Even the best human love will sometimes fall short. God's love, however, is steady and unchanging. It is not determined by gifts exchanged or words spoken once a year. It is displayed most clearly at the cross, where God loved us at our worst and paid the highest price to make us His own.

This verse invites us to reset our hearts. Enjoy the celebrations of love around you—but don't let them distract you from the greater love they point toward. God's love is larger than romance, richer than affection, and deeper than emotion. It is a covenant love that pursues, redeems, and adopts.

So this Valentine's Day—or any day—pause and behold. Let yourself be amazed that the Creator of the universe calls you His child. Let that love anchor your identity, quiet your insecurity, and change how you love others. Because when we fully understand the love of the Father, it doesn't just change how we feel—it changes how we live. ~ Pastor Mark

Registration Opens on February 1!

Register before April 15 to receive the
EARLY BIRD DISCOUNT!

This year's Summer Camp theme will be Not of This World taken from John 17:16 which says "They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world." This verse comes from Jesus' High Priestly Prayer when He is praying for His disciples, and subsequently us. In this verse, we find a key truth that Jesus reveals, that as believers we are NOT OF THIS WORLD. We do not belong to this world, but rather to the Kingdom of God.

Everyone has struggled or is struggling with where they belong. It is our hope that through time spent at Inspiration Hills in God's creation, surrounded by new and old friends and hearing the Gospel, individuals would leave changed, knowing that they BELONG in Christ's Kingdom

Camp options will include: High School Camp | Wilderness | Lodge | Saddle Up | Day Camp | Discovery | Take Me Fishing | Girls Only | Guys Only | Journey | Grand Camp | Family Camp | CHIPS

PLANNING AHEAD

Our first packing party for Operation Christmas Child was a huge success. Thank you again to all that helped in preparing for that day. We packed 50 boxes for 5-9 year olds in less than 45 minutes. We have started on the plans for OCC Packing Party 2026! This year we are gearing up to pack 50 boxes for 2-4 year olds and 50 boxes for 10-14 year olds.

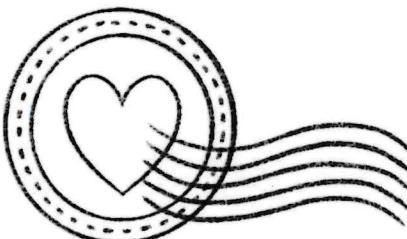

As you start your spring cleaning, please be on the look out for things you might have in a cupboard and maybe forgot about. Here is a list of things that we will be using this year:

- Ribbon (Ex satin, polyester, fabric, etc) any size between 1/4" up to 1". Any bright color or patterns are great! Any length can be used.
- Organza Gift Bags The kind used for wedding favors or other gifts. Any size, color or amount.
- Jewelry Can be used if not broken or something you don't wear anymore and don't know what to do with it. For girls aged 1-14 - rings, bracelets, necklaces.
- Old T-Shirts Any size. Logos are ok, but they can not have side seams on the body of the shirt. These are needed as we will be making jump ropes again.
- Used Prescription Bottles Keep saving these. Last year we used them for bead and fishing kits. We will be making those again and adding mending kits for the 10-14 year old group.

Early in March, a table will be set up where you can drop off your donations. Also, there will be examples of what we are looking for if you have any questions.

Last year several ladies helped for 2-3 hour sessions in the church, mornings and afternoons. It was a great help and a lot of fun getting some of the organization work done preparing for the packing party. We filled pencil bags, made sticker kits, assembled hygiene items, etc. If you'd like to help, please sign the volunteer sheet on the upcoming table. Ida Evertse will call you when work is available for volunteers.

Thanks again for helping make this a church wide mission that all ages can contribute to!

ARC Mission: Youth Mentorship Program

We are thrilled to announce the launch of an intergenerational ministry: a dedicated Youth Mentorship Program. This initiative moves beyond traditional programming to focus on the relational discipleship modeled by Jesus, strengthening both our youth and our entire church community. This program is specifically for our Jr. High and High School students, who will have the opportunity to select a mentor. Our Youth Mentorship Program will run for eight weeks between February and March of next year. Mentors and mentees will be asked to meet 4 to 6 times during this period in a public location. All selected mentors will be asked to attend a quick training session, with more detailed information coming out in January. If parents prefer their student not participate, please contact the Christian Education Committee.

Youth Benefits

1. Spiritual Growth: Mentors model committed adult faith.
2. Strong Belonging: Consistent support provides a stable presence, meeting the need to feel known, valued, and anchored to the church community.
3. Life Skills and Wisdom: Mentors share practical guidance on key areas in life.

Church Benefits

1. Intergenerational Unity: Mentorship bridges age gaps, fostering mutual respect, understanding, and a stronger, more unified church fellowship.
2. Leadership and Continuity: Programs intentionally develop the next generation of church leaders.
3. Transformational Discipleship & Outreach: It shifts the focus to deep, relational discipleship, making the church more vibrant and better motivated to extend Christ's love to the wider community.
