Mission and Core Values

Saint Benedict Parish is a community of Catholic, Christian stewards, working to live and preach the Word of God in thought, word and deed.

As a ministry of Saint Benedict Parish, Lumen Christi High School provides a rigorous Catholic education in a Christ-like environment. We are called to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to build community, and to serve our brothers and sisters.

We are united in our core values of living Faith, Celebrating Family and Achieving Excellence!

THOUGHTS FROM OUR PASTOR

Seeing as Christ sees...

It's a sad thing to say, but most people are blind, and this blindness extends even to ourselves. Yes, our eyes can see the world around us. We can see other people and things. We can see ourselves in a mirror. But we are still blind, nevertheless. We are blind to the deeper reality in which we live. We are blind to the truth about many other people. And we are certainly blind to the whole truth about ourselves. In the Gospel, Jesus cures a man who was blind from his birth. Most of the Pharisees hated Jesus. They refused to accept the miracle. They were blind to the greater reality of who Jesus was, the truths He taught, and the mission that God sent Him to complete. Looking at ourselves, our personal blindness is usually the result of our pride and insecurity. It takes real openness not to reject the truth of what others say to us. If a friend or loved one confronts us, we can grow angry, get defensive, or point out their faults. Saint Paul teaches us that we don't have to remain in the darkness of our spiritual blindness. Our inherited darkness is due to Original Sin. However, our Baptism has brought us the Light of God. This is Jesus Christ who is the Light of the World. As we celebrate the Second Scrutiny this weekend may we earnestly seek to see as Christ sees! -- Fr. Tom

Lumen Christi School

Living Faith, Celebrating Family, and Achieving Excellence

⇒ Principal's Update:

Well, we have made it to Spring Break! This spring semester is half over and when we return, we will have about 8 weeks remaining before the end of the school year! Whew—time is going by fast!

Please pray for our high school basketball teams as they compete in the 2A Southern Regional championships in Homer this weekend. Our teams are lined up against Ninilchik, Su-Valley, Seward, and Unalaska. The top two girls teams and top two boys teams will earn a berth to the 2A State Championships scheduled for March 11-14 here in Anchorage next week! Good luck Archangels!

On behalf of our school community, we wish everyone a restful and relaxing Spring Break and we look forward to seeing all students back on Monday, March 16! May God Bless You!

Blessings, Brian

⇒ Campus Minister:

Even God rested. Spring Break is here, a time for Students and Staff to rest, and recharge. When I asked the 7th Grade students today to tell me what they were looking forward to during Spring Break, but told them they could not say “sleep”... most of them sighed audibly.

I reminded them all that Lent will continue during Spring Break and that they need to remain diligent on that journey. I, for one, am looking forward to some Adoration Time during Spring Break! Time to just sit in silence with the Lord.

I hope you and your families find rest, time with each other and time with the Lord during this Spring Break.

In God's Love

It is hard to believe a young woman appealed to God for three things we usually think are things to be avoided at all costs. One of which was a sickness unto death while still young. She prayed to be allowed to experience all a body and soul experience in death (including attack by devils and administration of the last rites), but without actual death—so she might learn to live more mindful of God.

Julian of Norwich lived during the same time as St. Catherine of Siena, though in her writings, she does not write of the Church's turmoil. Her life is of a woman who has set herself apart for God and lives isolated in a cell.

She believes last rites gives special sanctifying grace and strengthens a sick person bodily and spiritually at death. Her unusual prayer is answered. Julian indeed becomes deathly ill. Everyone despairs of her life. She also believes she is dying. The last rites are administered to her.

Then a wonderful thing happens: Julian experiences what a future generation might describe as a near-death experience. At the crisis of her sickness, between four and nine one afternoon, she receives fifteen "showings," or revelations. She reports heaven opens to her, she beholds Christ in his glory, and she sees the meaning and power of his sufferings. She also sees Mary, exalted and beloved.

In her thirteenth showing, Julian receives a comforting answer to a question long troubling her: "In my folly, before this time I often wondered why, by the great foreseeing wisdom of God, the onset of sin was not prevented: for then, I thought, all should have been well. This thought was to be avoided, but nevertheless I mourned and sorrowed because of it, without reason and discretion.

"But Jesus, who in this vision informed me of all that is needed by me, answered with these words and said: 'It was necessary that there should be sin; but all shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well.'" "These words were said most tenderly, showing no manner of blame to me nor to any who shall be saved."

The following night Julian will receive a final, sixteenth showing while she sleeps. In it, Satan and his hosts assail her, but God gives her grace, and she fixes her eyes on the crucified Christ and trusts that because of his suffering and victory over sin he can protect her, and he delivers her from the demonic jeers and mutterings. (Adapted from Catholiconline.org)

Questions:

1. What have you asked of God so you are better able to walk with Him?
2. What are your thoughts of Julian's appeal to God?

Challenge:

During Lent, concentrate on what Julian heard in her revelation 'but all shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well.'

Quote:

"...all shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well."

~Julian of Norwich
