THOUGHTS FROM OUR PASTOR

A spiritual battle at war within each of us...

Most of us do not like conflict. In fact, many of us choose to avoid it, preferring harmony over open disagreements. "Choose your battles" is generally good advice. But even though we may not go out of the way to look for a fight, living our Catholic faith in today's world could be summarized in a single word, "embattled." The fight comes to us whether we like it or not, which means that we must be ready and be prepared for a fight. Perhaps more importantly, we also tend to forget that the battle God calls every one of us to engage in is a spiritual one, fought on the open fields of our hearts. There is a spiritual battle at war within each one of us.

Every person is at war against the evil one for their soul, no one is exempt in this battle of human life. Because prayer is what transforms and guides us, it is the only battle worth fighting, and the only one we must — by God's grace and our effort — persevere and win. And should our hands grow weary like Moses, though we do not have companions like Aaron and Hur to help us hold them upright, we know that God Himself will give us the Holy Spirit, the sacraments and necessary graces to persevere. For it has been promised that "those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint" (Isaiah 40:31). Keep up the good fight! — Fr. Tom

Next weekend, please welcome Rev. Robert Suit who will be with us to celebrate the Masses and tell us about the work of Unbound, a lay Catholic sponsorship ministry that helps children and elderly in 17 developing countries.

To learn more, call (800) 875-6564 or visit Unbound online at www.unbound.org.

help a child

When you sponsor through Unbound, you help a child and family achieve their God-given potential. You walk with them on their path out of poverty.

encourage a youth

Getting an education can be especially hard for young people faced with poverty. Your support provides financial resources and encouragement. It says, "I believe in you."

befriend an elder

Elders often experience challenges related to nutrition, health and social isolation. Your support helps an elder with needs like food, health care, home visits and group activities.

sponsor today

We're all part of one human family created in God's image. As a sponsor, you'll get the satisfaction of knowing you're living your faith as part of a caring, inclusive global community. You'll learn about your new friend from letters and photos, and you can write and send photos, too!

I want to sponsor:

- ☐ Any child ☐ Girl ☐ Boy ☐ Youth ☐ Elder
- ☐ I would like to contribute through my bank account or credit card (see reverse).
- ☐ Enclosed is my first monthly contribution of $40.
(Please do not send cash. Make checks payable to Unbound.)

WHO WE ARE

Unbound is an international development organization founded by lay Catholics and grounded in the Gospel call to put the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable first. We build relationships of mutual respect that bridge cultural, economic and religious divides. We work side by side with people of diverse faith traditions in Latin America, Asia and Africa.

HOW WE WORK

We believe the surest path out of poverty is a self-directed one. Sponsored individuals and families use your support to work toward goals like education, dignified housing, better nutrition and developing livelihoods. Mothers lead the way in our programs through active participation in small groups. From accessing microloans to starting small businesses and forming their own credit cooperatives, mothers are creating paths to self-sufficiency for their families.

HIGHLY RATED STEWARDSHIP

Our commitment to excellent financial stewardship of the funds you entrust to us earns Unbound top ratings from independent charity evaluators like the BBB Wise Giving Alliance and others.

⇒ Principal's Update:

This was a bit of a disjointed week, with PSATs on Wednesday for our 9-11th graders and an Inservice/No School day on Friday to mark the end of the 1st quarter marking period. We will get back into the swing of things next week, for sure! A couple of notes:

- Our Band Directors, Neal and Patty, are away next week, so NO BAND PRACTICE!
- Our middle school basketball practices will get underway starting on Monday the 20th, with a large number of 7th and 8th grade boys and girls participating
- Our high school girls volleyball teams will be on the road to Ninilchik next Friday and Saturday to compete in a Kenai Peninsula tournament
- We look forward to hosting parent teacher conferences tonight. In the midst of your conversations, please take a moment to thank your child's teacher(s). Our staff works very hard every day—for far less pay than their public school counterparts—to provide a rigorous Catholic education in a Christ-like environment for our students. We are all on this journey together and take pride in partnering with our parents for the moral, spiritual, mental, and physical development of our children!

I hope our students enjoy their three day weekend. Please pray for our teachers and staff as they participate in an Archdiocesan retreat with our fellow Catholic school educators on Friday focused on Divine Dialogue!

Have a blessed and wonderful fall weekend!

Blessings, Brian

Contributions beyond our Archdiocesan goal help us to:

Prep and paint exterior.

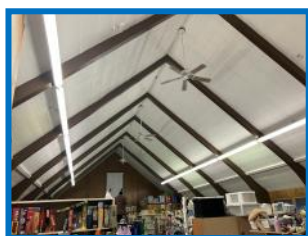

Close off old access.

Weatherproof the foundation.

Replace all windows.

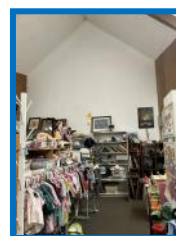

Convert lighting to LED.

Update bathroom.

Install secure door.

Paint the interior.

Install a new furnace.

Renovate the "Archangel Attic"

Why? The "old church" or "the rummage room" has quite a history, serving also as a youth center and a preschool before the "Archangel Attic" opened its doors in 2011, following an extensive renovation by the Knights of Columbus. The Attic serves as an outreach to the needy in our community, as well as a revenue source for scholarships to Lumen Christi Catholic High School (generating more than $1.4 million since 2011!). All staff, including managers Mary and Colleen, are volunteers. In order to "keep the rain on the outside and the heat on the inside," this renovation will include exterior and interior painting, new energy-efficient windows, a secure entry door, new bathroom, LED lighting, and a new furnace. With a properly maintained building this ministry will continue to thrive! Thank you!

We are highlighting the Archdiocesan ministry “Project Rachel”, this ministry is dedicated to helping those who have been affected by abortion. It is for those who are suffering as a result of experiencing abortion, or by being part of a family affected by abortion. Carrying the sorrow of this experience alone is unimaginable, but this ministry is here to accompany those affected. Offering individual and group healing, Project Rachel helps those who need the mercy of our Lord most tenderly, for there is nothing that cannot be redeemed for His purpose.

We possess each friend not less but more as the number of those with whom we share him increases. In this, Friendship exhibits a glorious 'nearness by resemblance' to Heaven itself where the very multitude of the blessed (which no man can number) increases the fruition which each has of God. For every soul, seeing him in her own Friendship exhibits a glorious 'nearness by resemblance' to Heaven itself where the very multitude of the blessed We possess each friend not less but more as the number of those with whom we share him increases. In this way, doubtless communicates that unique vision to all the rest.

C. S. Lewis, The Four Loves

Have friends. Live life in communion. Don't live life alone. We believe God is a radiant communion of three persons in one nature. God is the opposite of alone. The very names "Father" and "Son" imply an "other." God is the perfection of and the ground for true, authentic friendship. Then why do we, who are made in his image and likeness, sometimes prefer the darkness of isolation? During COVID a "new normal" engulfed us causing us to stay in our rooms; interacting through screens and social media.

A deep truth was revealed about the human person and our desire to live a fulfilled life. Many remained home, isolated, alone, and we tried to entertain ourselves with media—but they left us unsatisfied and lifeless. Many discovered we don't actually desire to be alone, mindlessly doing whatever we want. Our hearts cry out for more! The immediate temptation of self-indulgence is attractive at first, but the fruit it bears is undeniably fleeting and empty. We weren't made to be alone; we're made for communion in friendship.

True friendship occurs when people share life and commune together. A life shared between friends illuminates a path in the heart of the other. Friendship kindles a fire in the heart, which leads to deep, abiding communion. Jesus reveals a deep desire to share his heart with his friends and we, his friends, desire a deep friendship with Christ so our yearning hearts may be consumed by Christ.

All authentic friendships flow from and share in this ancient relationship. God, who is rejected by man, unflinchingly faces us at our worst revealing the power of friendship: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. . . . I no longer call you servants any longer . . . but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father" (John 15:13, 15–16). Jesus has given us everything, even the very word spoken to him by the Father. His friendship empties our darkest dungeons and introduces intimacy to our hearts.

Friendship is an absolute essential in life. Many have encountered a test stopping us dead in our tracks. Alone, we are done. We all had to process things through conversation—with the help of friends. If you have friends, rejoice, delight in this goodness! God always provides what/who we need in our lives. If you don't have a friend, ask the Lord to send someone into your life. With a friend, suffering is turned into joy, mourning into laughter, and death into victory.

We need reminders about the joy of life, fulfillment and support given to us with friendships God has given us. The light of relationships can initially blind us, but the vision it affords later is heavenly.
