THOUGHTS FROM OUR PASTOR

Rejoice and wait patiently

This weekend we celebrate the Third Sunday in Advent, Gaudete Sunday, a word meaning "rejoice"! Indeed, as we continue through this season we are reminded that we are in a time of waiting, of great expectation, and of joyful anticipation. The patience of Advent is meant to train us far beyond the patience of waiting to open presents until Christmas. We are waiting for the fulfillment of all things in Christ. We are waiting for the end of the world. We are waiting for the end of our own lives. We are waiting for judgment. We are waiting for God to act. We are waiting for a solution to "that" problem that hangs over our heads. Growing in patience is hard work. There are many ways in which we can begin to cultivate and grow in patience. We can grow in patience when we have no visible results for our prayers, sacrifices, and efforts. We can practice patience when we experience our many personal failures and see the failures of others. We can mature in patience when we feel helpless in the face of all the evil and injustice spreading in our world. Our patience is strengthened when we endure many trials and temptations and overcome personal struggles. We grow in patience as we love the ones who irritate and annoy us. Our patient God will provide us many moments to grow in this virtue of patience as well as the graces of being patient like Him. So, "be patient; do not lose heart, because the Lord's coming will be soon." Rejoice amidst your patient waiting! -- Fr. Tom

Living Faith, Celebrating Family, and Achieving Excellence

⇒ Principal's Update:

Thank you to all who joined me for our quarterly Principal-Parent Forum last Thursday night. You should have received the slide deck chock full of information for the remainder of this semester as well as a close look into our spring activities. We've updated the Important Upcoming Events above, so that you can populate your own home and family calendars.

This has been a festive spirit week as we walk through Advent with the Jesse Tree celebration each morning and look forward to Christmas and the birth of Christ! Our students are entering the last few days and hours of the semester, so no doubt stress levels are higher than normal. Our Big A/little a program spent lunch on Tuesday together talking about ways to overcome and manage stress with the upperclass sharing their experiences with the under-class. Classmates have been exchanging Secret Santa gifts and Houses have had house Christmas parties/potlucks to share in the Christmas cheer. Our Senior class are giving their end of semester presentations on all sorts of topics related to Catholic moral decision-making and bioethical issues. Evenings are busy with end of season awards dinners and high school basketball practices. This is always a fun time to be around the school-hustle and bustle, to and fro, with much joy and celebration despite the challenging workloads. On Saturday, we will host our Winter Formal dances, so please pray for our students as they take a few hours out of the busy season to dance the night away! Please see the sign ups below to volunteer to chaperone the dances and/OR to help with takedown afterward-WE NEED YOUR HELP OR ELSE WE CANNOT HOLD THE DANCE!!!!

Have a blessed and wonderful weekend!

Blessings... Brian

Third Sunday of Advent

Christmas is coming! Christmas is coming! This is a familiar chant of all children as they daily open a door on their Advent calendars. It is a special time for all people "young at heart." Children try to be extra nice to all those around them. Teens try to be less dramatic and adults hold fast to the true meaning of Christmas, knowing our Lord and Savior is born to redeem the world.

The Third Sunday of Advent is often called Gaudete Sunday. "Gaudete" means "Rejoice" in Latin, celebrating the nearness of Christ's birth and the joy of the coming Messiah. This candle signifies this joy as the Lord's coming is near, and is marked by lighting the rose/pink candle on the Advent wreath instead of purple.

The season of Advent in the Christian calendar anticipates the "coming of Christ" from three different perspectives: the physical nativity in Bethlehem, the reception of Christ in the heart of the believer, and the eschatological Second Coming.

In its early years, Advent was associated as a time of penitence with a period of fasting. It was recommended fasting from three days to all days of Advent. Now the Church recommends parishioners make a conscious effort to spend daily quiet time with the Lord. The liturgy of Advent remained unchanged until the Second Vatican Council introduced minor changes, differentiating the spirit of Lent from that of Advent, emphasizing Advent as a season of hope for Christ's coming now as a promise of his Second Coming. (Adapted from Wikipedia Advent)

Questions:

1. How have you been able to honor this period of waiting with all the activities of the Christmas season?
2. What have you discerned are your important daily meditations with our Lord?

Challenge:

Spend some quiet time with the Lord.

Quote:

"The liturgy of Advent...helps us to understand fully the value and meaning of the mystery of Christmas. It is not just about commemorating the historical event which occurred some 2,000 years ago in a little village of Judea. Instead, it is necessary to understand that the whole of our life must be an 'advent,' a vigilant awaiting of the final coming of Christ. To predispose our mind to welcome the Lord who, as we say in the Creed, one day will come to judge the living and the dead, we must learn to recognize him as present in the events of daily life. Therefore, Advent is, so to speak, an intense training that directs us decisively toward him who already came, who will come, and who comes continuously." ~St. John Paul II
