Mission and Core Values

Saint Benedict Parish is a community of Catholic, Christian
stewards, working to live and preach the Word of God in thought,
word and deed.

As a ministry of Saint Benedict Parish,
Lumen Christi High School provides a rigorous Catholic education in a Christ-like environment. We are called to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to build community, and to serve our brothers and sisters.

We are united in our core values of living Faith, Celebrating Family and Achieving Excellence!

THOUGHTS FROM OUR PASTOR

May we learn to pray for whatever God wants for us!

In the Gospel the disciples wanted to have a form of prayer that identified them with Jesus. So He gave them the "Lord's Prayer". They were to understand that God was a loving Father; that His name is holy; that it must always be used with reverence; and that God must be honored, praised, and acknowledged as the Creator of all that exists. God's Kingdom is the only worthwhile kingdom. It is spiritual. It can never be replaced by any kingdom of this world. They were to ask for what they truly needed to live each day, and they were to share with others part of everything given to them as well. Forgiveness would always be granted to them, but only if they were to forgive all others who had offended them. Finally, they were to ask not to be tested beyond their ability to endure. Jesus then went on to teach several truths. They must persist in their prayer. God hears and answers any prayer we can offer. But His answer might really be something that is spiritual or hidden, instead of the material thing we requested. Often God will not take away our pain, because it is an opportunity to stand with the suffering Christ for the sins of the world. May we learn to pray for whatever God wants for our life. - Fr. Tom

United in Mission: Radiating

Christ's Love and Hope Annual Catholic Appeal

By now, you should have received your letter from Archbishop Bellisario asking you to be partners for the gospel and to support Archdiocesan ministries for all of parishioners in our faith communities. When you pledge your support for the United in Mission: Radiating Christ's Love and Hope Annual Catholic Appeal, you help make possible diocesan-wide ministries that offer opportunities for ongoing conversation and lifelong faith formation.

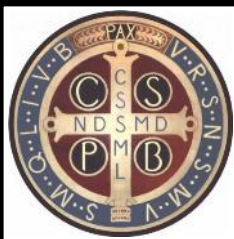

Who are we, as the Archdiocese of Anchorage-Juneau?

- There are 32 parishes, 14 missions, 1 Retreat Center and 1 National Shrine in the Archdiocese of Anchorage- Juneau. 21 of our 32 parishes serve remote or rural communities.
- The Archdiocese of Anchorage- Juneau covers over 176,000 square miles. That's more square mileage than these eleven states: Rhode Island, Delaware, Connecticut, New Jersey, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maryland, West Virginia, South Carolina, and Maine combined!
- There are over 10,000 registered parishioner households in the Archdiocese of Anchorage-Juneau.

Please prayerfully consider making a gift to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal.

Your participation as an active steward of these vital ministries matters more than the amount of your gift. We are united in this effort – join the mission.

Contributions beyond our Archdiocesan goal help us to:

Prep and paint exterior.

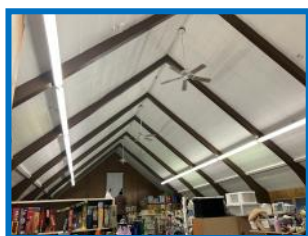

Close off old access.

Weatherproof the foundation.

Replace all windows.

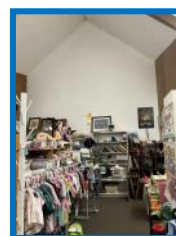

Convert lighting to LED.

Update bathroom.

Install secure door.

Paint the interior.

Install a new furnace.

Renovate the "Archangel Attic"

Why? The "old church" or "the rummage room" has quite a history, serving also as a youth center and a preschool before the "Archangel Attic" opened its doors in 2011, following an extensive renovation by the Knights of Columbus. The Attic serves as an outreach to the needy in our community, as well as a revenue source for scholarships to Lumen Christi Catholic High School (generating more than $1.4 million since 2011!). All staff, including managers Mary and Colleen, are volunteers. In order to "keep the rain on the outside and the heat on the inside," this renovation will include exterior and interior painting, new energy-efficient windows, a secure entry door, new bathroom, LED lighting, and a new furnace. With a properly maintained building this ministry will continue to thrive! Thank you!

We are highlighting the Archdiocesan ministry “Project Rachel”, this ministry is dedicated to helping those who have been affected by abortion. It is for those who are suffering as a result of experiencing abortion, or by being part of a family affected by abortion. Carrying the sorrow of this experience alone is unimaginable, but this ministry is here to accompany those affected. Offering individual and group healing, Project Rachel helps those who need the mercy of our Lord most tenderly, for there is nothing that cannot be redeemed for His purpose.

If you'd like to participate, either as a path for healing, or in support of the ministry, please call (907) 297-7781, or email projectrachelalaska@gmail.com.

Pilgrimage will be out in August.

Mercy

The Catholic calendar has one Sunday a year marked as Mercy Sunday. However, mercy is a daily responsibility-- not one day a year obligation--for each us. Our God is a God of relationships. He desires a relationship with each of us. We, in turn, want to please God through our relationship with Him. In all relationships, mercy is an important ingredient. Seemingly, though, it is an impossible task for humans. How can we show mercy when we so desperately need it ourselves? Thankfully, we do possess the necessary components to show mercy. The following four ordinary ways will start us on our journey. Begin with those persons closest to you and stretch yourselves to others around you.

1. Be patient with one another. Don't immediately get angry and don't get upset. Instead, take a deep breath. When we control our anger, we make a decision to be understanding and merciful. "Be patient with each other, making allowances for each other's faults because of your love." (Ephesians 4:2)
2. Be kind to those who have offended you. Ephesians 4:32 says it succinctly, "Be kind to one another compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you."
3. Give others a second chance. Show mercy through not choosing to get even nor forgetting about that person. (Again, take a deep breath and ask God to open your heart to that person.) Give them a second chance; treat them cheerfully with a smile, and don't give up on anyone.
4. Help anyone hurting around you. Also, do good to those who hurt you. Mercy is giving people what they need, not what they deserve. Mercy is not what we do but what God has done for us. We need to know this mercy of God to be merciful.

Ephesians 4:25-32 gives us how we are to conduct ourselves daily, including what to remove from our daily emotions. Often, hearing the unsavory ways we have acted makes us cringe and wanting us to eliminate those reactions. Ephesians 4:31 says, "All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice." Those words churn our stomachs as we are aware of the times we have acted disgustingly. Those are responses we do not want to possess nor have lashed out at us. May our patience with one another, our kindness toward those who offend us, our desire to give all a second chance, and our helpfulness toward those hurting become our daily outcomes as we strive to become merciful.
