BORACAY

Boracay Awaits

and here's why you can't afford to miss this tropical treasure

Achieve that perfect tan or relax at the White beach sun

White Beach truly embodies the beauty of Boracay! Its powdery white sand and crystal-clear waters make it a tropical paradise. Each station has its own charm.

- Station 1 offers a more laid-back vibe, perfect for those looking to relax on the beach or enjoy luxury resorts.
- Station 2 is buzzing with life, featuring numerous restaurants, bars, and shops, making it ideal for socializing and entertainment.
- Station 3 provides a peaceful escape, perfect for budget travelers or those seeking a quieter experience.

Island Hopping

Island hopping in Boracay is a great way to take in the area's natural beauty. Crocodile Island boasts vibrant snorkeling, while Crystal Cove offers stunning views and hidden spots. Puka Beach is known for its beautiful shoreline and peaceful vibe. Tours often include swimming, snorkeling, and relaxing on secluded beaches for a perfect mix of adventure and relaxation.

Island Activities

Boracay is a paradise for thrill-seekers and relaxation lovers alike! Experience parasailing for breathtaking views, or dive at top sites like Yapak and Crocodile Island, where beginner courses are available. ATV rides through the jungle offer stunning scenery, while stand-up paddleboarding is a fun, easy way to explore the calm waters. For a romantic touch, enjoy a sunset cruise on a traditional outrigger boat. Boracay has something for everyone!

The must-experience land tour

Keyhole

Keyhole, located at Newcoast Boracay in Brgy. Yapak, Station 1, is a stunning natural rock formation with a narrow opening that frames breathtaking ocean views. This serene spot is ideal for photography and reflection, perfect for those seeking a quieter experience. With easy access to pristine beaches and upscale amenities, Keyhole enriches the overall island visit.

Puka Beach

Puka Beach in Boracay features a stunning coastline with powdery white sand and crystal-clear waters. Located at the island's northern tip, it's less crowded than White Beach, providing a serene atmosphere. Named for its unique puka shells, this beach is perfect for relaxation, beachcombing, and enjoying picturesque sunsets, making it a must-visit for a peaceful escape.

The Mangroves

The mangroves of Boracay are lush coastal ecosystems filled with salt-tolerant trees and vibrant greenery. Their intricate root systems and serene waters provide a stunning backdrop for photography, while the interplay of light and shadow creates a tranquil atmosphere, perfect for capturing Boracay's natural beauty.

Bulabog Beach

Bulabog Beach, or the back beach, is located on Boracay Island and is known for its beautiful white sand and clear waters. Quieter than the popular White Beach, it's ideal for water sports like kite surfing and windsurfing, thanks to consistent winds. With a laid-back atmosphere, it's perfect for unwinding away from the crowds.
