Job Summary

Founded in 2001, Kalasho Education & Youth Services is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting youth with comprehensive educational programs, advocacy, healthcare, legal aid, and business literacy training.

The Social Worker will be dedicated to helping individuals and families in need improve their quality of life through providing resources, counseling, and advocacy.

Specific responsibilities for the social worker position include:

- Provide individual, family, and/or group psychotherapy using evidence-based therapeutic approaches to support clients' mental health and overall well-being.
- Provide parent-child relationship focused therapy to children aged 0-6
- IMH endorsement (or willingness to be endorsed) not required but strongly preferred
- Work cooperatively as a member of a team with program staff and community partners.
- Conduct comprehensive mental health assessments to evaluate clients' emotional, behavioral, and psychological needs, as well as their strengths and support systems, in order to develop appropriate treatment goals.

- Respond appropriately to crisis situations, including mental health emergencies, risk of harm to self or others, and mandated reporting concerns.
- Monitor client progress through ongoing sessions, reassessments, and follow-up to ensure treatment goals are being met.
- Maintain accurate and timely clinical documentation, including intake assessments, treatment plans, progress notes, and discharge summaries in accordance with professional and regulatory standards.
- Collaborate with psychiatrists, primary care providers, case managers, and other members of the client's care team to ensure coordinated and comprehensive care.
- Provide psychoeducation and coping strategies to clients and families to support long-term mental health.
