

Speech Language Pathologist

Location Kalasho Education and Youth Services (Lorraine Center), 29900 Lorraine Ave.
Warren, MI 48093

Job Type Full-time

Salary Range Competitive, starting at $75,000 and may be increased based on experience.

Job Summary

Founded in 2001, Kalasho Education & Youth Services is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting youth with comprehensive educational programs, advocacy, healthcare, legal aid, and business literacy training.

The Speech Language Pathologist will work with children and adolescents to help assist in preventing, assessing, diagnosing, and treating speech, language, social communication, cognitive-communication, and swallowing disorders. This position will also work with the MINDgarden team of therapists and social workers in order to create specialized treatment plans for the individual.

Specific responsibilities for the speech language pathologist position include:

- Assess speech, language, and swallowing skills
- Create individualized treatment plans
- Help children learn to make sounds correctly and use them in words, phrases, and sentences
- Help improve the quality and volume of speech
- Aid in developing language skills, improving vocabulary and sentence structure
- Document progress and collaborate with team members

Qualifications

- A Master's degree in speech pathology or a related field
- State licensure in speech-language pathology

Benefits & Salary

- Salary compensated based on experience
- 401(k)
- Dental insurance
- Flexible schedule
- Health insurance
- Paid time off
- Professional development assistance
- Vision insurance

Application

Please provide a resume and a copy of your degree & licenses. Send by email to: Sumaiya Ahmed Sheikh, Executive Director, at sumaiya@kalasho.org.