

Third Sunday of Easter

April 19, 2026, 10 a.m.

Holy Eucharist

Welcome to Trinity!

Whether this has been your church home for many years, or this is your first time visiting us, we hope you feel at home here. If you are new or visiting, please fill out the Welcome Card in your pew and put it in the offertory plate or hand it to an usher.

This bulletin is designed for use with the Book of Common Prayer. Text in bold is read aloud by the congregation. Text in italics provides directions or details. Unless otherwise indicated, hymns can be found in the 1982 Hymnal.

TRINITY
300TH
1726-2026

Prelude	These are the holy Ten Commandments	J.S. Bach
Processional Hymn 193	That Easter day with joy was bright	Puer nobis
Opening Acclamation		BCP 299
	Alleluia. Christ is risen. The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
The Collect of the Day
	The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson

Acts 2:14a,36-41

The people sit

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 116:1-3, 10-17

Peter Hallock

sung by the choir

- 1 I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.
- 2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
- 3 Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
"O Lord, I pray you, save my life."
- 10 How shall I repay the Lord * for all the good things he has done for me?

- 11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 12 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.
- 13 Precious in the sight of the Lord *
is the death of his servants.
- 14 O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.
- 15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 16 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people,
- 17 In the courts of the Lord'S house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah!

Second Lesson

1 Peter 1:13-35

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The people stand for the Gradual Hymn and the reading of the Gospel

Gradual Hymn 178 Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to the risen Lord Alleluia No. 1

The Gospel

Luke 24:13-35

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now on that same day two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!” Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ

The Rev. Norman MacLeod

About our preacher:

The Rev. Norman M. MacLeod, retired and living in Newport, serves as Co-Chair of the Creation Care Ministry in the Diocese. While serving parishes in New England over 30 years, he has worked on environmental ministry projects, with a focus on ways in which our concern for the Earth can be expressed in our worship together.

The Nicene Creed

The people stand

BCP 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers

Rejoicing in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, let us pray for the Church, the world, and all people in need.

We give you thanks, O God, for the glorious resurrection of your Son, for the promise of new life, and for the hope that sustains us. We thank you for the beauty of creation, for the gift of community, and for all the blessings of this life.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for your holy Catholic Church, that it may be filled with truth, unity, and love. We pray for Sean, our Presiding Bishop, Nicholas, our Bishop, and all bishops, priests, and deacons. In this Easter season, renew your Church in the power of the resurrection, that we may proclaim the Good News with boldness and joy.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the peace of the world, for the leaders of nations, and for all in authority. Guide them in the ways of justice and peace, that all people may live in freedom and dignity. We pray especially for places of conflict and suffering, and for all who work for reconciliation and healing.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all who are in any kind of need or trouble: for the sick, the suffering, the lonely, and the oppressed. We pray for those who are poor, hungry, or homeless, and for those who are burdened by grief or fear. We remember especially Eric, Joan, Jackie, Miriam, James, Sandra, Todd, Anita, Michael, Karen, Peter, Laurie, Elizabeth, Susan, Robby, Leonard, Bob S., Lewis, Anne H, Kathy, Pam F., Waring, Pam S., Ryan, Terry, Mimi, Anne G and David. In the light of the resurrection, bring healing, comfort, and hope.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died, that they may share in the fullness of the resurrection. Remembering Arthur Theodore (TR) Roach III, and all who have gone before us in faith, we trust in your promise of eternal life.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for ourselves and for this community, that we may be faithful witnesses to the risen Christ. Send us forth in the power of your Spirit to love and serve you in all persons.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

With other churches in the diocese during Easter, we add this special petition for Creation Care:

As the disciples saw the presence of Christ in the breaking of bread, we pray we may see and hear Christ's glory in the more-than-human world around us. As many celebrate Earth Day, we give thanks for the return of ruby-throated humming birds and the choruses of spring peepers. We pray they have the space to flourish.

Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

The Celebrant says

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace

BCP 360

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Welcome & Announcements

The Offertory

The people remain seated as an offering to support the mission and ministry of the church is collected. If you would rather give online, you can give at www.TrinityNewport.org or scan the QR code on the right.

Offertory Anthem

Stetit Jesus

Jacob Handl

Stetit Jesus in medio discipulorum suorum et dixit eis: Pax vobis. Alleluia. Videte manus meas et pedes meos quia ego ipse sum. Alleluia. Gavisí sunt discipuli, alleluia, viso Domino. Alleluia. John 20:20; Luke 24:18

Jesus stood in the midst of his disciples and said to them: "Peace to you." Alleluia. See my hands and my feet, because it is I myself. Alleluia. The disciples rejoiced at seeing the Lord. Alleluia.

Presentation Hymn 380 (Verse 3)

Old 100th

Please stand as the offering is brought forward.

Praise God, from whom all blessing flow; praise him all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

HOLY COMMUNIONEucharistic Prayer C

BCP 369

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and Praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts, by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please follow usher directions to the altar rail. If you are sitting in the balcony, come down whenever you wish to receive. If you are unable to come forward, communion can be brought to you in your pew, please just let your usher know.

Gluten-free wafers are available at the rail, just place your hand over your heart (like the Pledge of Allegiance). If you are not receiving, you are invited to come forward for a blessing (indicated by crossing your arms over your chest). If you wish to receive wine, you may either sip from the cup or dip (intinct) your bread carefully into the wine.

Communion Anthem

Come Away To the Skies

Paul Halley

Come away to the skies,
My beloved arise
And rejoice on the day thou wast born,
On that festival day
Come exulting away,
To thy heavenly country return.

Jesu, dulcis memoria,
Dans vera cordis gaudia:
Sed super mel et omnia
Eius praesentia.
Nil canitur suavius,
Quam Dei Filius.

We have laid up our love
And our treasure above,
Though our bodies continue below;
The redeem'd of the Lord
We remember his word,
And with singing to Sion we go.

Jesus, how sweet the very thought,
Giving true joy to the heart,
But above honey and all else
Is His presence.
Nothing more lovely is sung
Than "Son of God".

Now with thanks we approve
The design of thy love
Which hath join'd us, in Jesus his name,
So united in heart,
That we never can part,
Till we meet at the feast of the Lamb.

Hallelujah we sing
To our Father and King,
And his rapturous praises repeat;
To the Lamb that was slain
Hallelujah again
Sing all heaven, and fall at his feet.

And there at his seat
We shall suddenly meet,
And be parted in body no more,
We shall sing to our lyres
With the heavenly quires,
And our Saviour in glory adore.

For thy glory we are,
Created to share
Both the nature and kingdom divine:
Created again
That our souls may remain
In time and eternity thine.

St. Botolph

Post Communion Prayer

BCP 365

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
