ABOUT THE ARIZONA CATTLE GROWERS' ASSOC.

Since 1903, the Arizona Cattle Growers' Association (ACGA) has worked to protect, promote, and sustain Arizona cattle ranching for future generations. Founded by ranchers who wanted fair laws to protect livestock and property, ACGA has grown into a strong statewide voice for the beef industry.

Our members stay involved—advocating at the Capitol, speaking in their communities, mentoring young producers, and sharing the positive impact of ranching. Through grassroots advocacy, policy development, and education, ACGA continues to keep Arizona ranching strong.
