

At Aesthetics by Nicolette, we believe true beauty is never one-dimensional. The health and appearance of our skin are shaped by a lifetime of living—by genetics, hormones, stress, sleep, hydration, nutrition, environmental exposures, the way we care for our skin, and even the health of the gut microbiome. That’s why our approach to aesthetics goes beyond surface-level treatments. We care for the individual as a whole, knowing that lasting, natural-looking results often begin with the basics.

Our philosophy blends wellness and aesthetics to help you achieve your goals from the inside out. For some, that may mean going deeper functional testing and optimization. For others, it may include thoughtfully selected aesthetic treatments such as neurotoxins, dermal fillers and biostimulators, microneedling, hair restoration, and luxury medical-grade skincare. Every plan is personalized with the goal of restoring confidence, enhancing natural beauty, and helping you look as vibrant and radiant on the outside as you feel within.

Dysport 300 unit Vial	$600-$900

Neurotoxin (wrinkle relaxer) is a safe FDA-approved injectable that works locally by relaxing targeted muscles—softening lines and helping prevent deeper wrinkles. Most people think of forehead lines and “11s,” but it can also be used for a subtle brow lift, crow’s feet, bunny lines, nasal flare or a droopy nasal tip, gummy smile, lip flip/smoker’s lines, chin dimpling, downturned mouth corners (DAO), jaw clenching/TMJ (masseters), neck bands and jawline tightening (Nefertiti lift), and even excessive underarm sweating.

Hyaluronic Acid (per syringe)	$650
Radiesse (per syringe)	$750
Sculptra (per vial) (per kit-2 vials)	$800 $1,400

Dermal filler is an injectable treatment used to restore volume, soften lines, and enhance natural contours—either with hyaluronic acid (HA) or with collagen stimulators that help your body build firmer, smoother skin over time. It’s also a great option after weight loss (or with natural aging) when the face can look more “deflated,” helping bring back balanced, refreshed structure. Most people think of lips, but filler can also be used to support the temples, cheeks, under-eyes, jawline, jowls, and chin, as well as to soften smile lines and refine facial balance. In select cases, filler can also be used beyond the face—such as the neck, hands, and décolletage—and for targeted skin-smoothing/contouring in areas like the stomach, buttocks, arms, and thighs.

MANUFACTURER REWARDS ARE PATIENT-DRIVEN AND MAY BE USED.

Microneedling is a collagen-stimulating treatment that creates tiny micro-channels in the skin to improve texture, tone, pores, fine lines, acne scars, and overall glow—with minimal downtime and results that build over time. Want to level it up? Add-ons can supercharge your results: PRP uses your body’s own growth factors to support healing and rejuvenation, while biosomes help boost brightness, hydration, and skin quality for a smoother, more radiant finish. You can also treat the neck and décolletage to extend your results beyond the face and improve crepey or sun-damaged skin in those areas.
