

30TH ANNUAL

Safe & Civil Schools National Conference

July 12–16, 2026, Portland, Oregon

We look forward to hosting you for in-depth professional development for educators.

Four-Day Sessions

Each session is designed to deeply immerse you in your content area of choice.

Creating a Comprehensive Continuum of Support for Behavior

With Jessica Sprick

Build an effective MTSS (Multi-Tiered System of Support) for behavior to ensure that layers of support are available to meet the varied needs of students and to help all students thrive.

CHAMPS and Classroom-Based Behavior Interventions

With Kim Earthman

Participants will learn how to use CHAMPS to implement a proactive, positive, and instructional approach to classroom management and tools to support the students who chronically misbehave.

Coaching CHAMPS

With Tricia Skyles

This session is built around the concepts of an effective MTSS system for students. We take the same MTSS framework and use it to guide how we support staff with coaching as a vital piece of all three tiers.

Prerequisite: Must have attended a CHAMPS training within the last 3 years.

Developing Effective Behavior Interventions

With Dr. Tricia Berg

Chronic misbehavior often gets in the way of our ability to provide effective academic instruction. The goal of this session is to expand your toolkit with intervention strategies that can support students who demonstrate challenging behaviors.

Explicit Instruction

With Dr. Anita Archer

This session will immerse practitioners in the theory and practice of designing and delivering instruction in a manner that is systematic, direct, engaging, and success oriented—in a word: explicit.

Leadership in Behavior Support

With Jacob Edwards

Effective schools have effective leadership. This workshop focuses on the instructional leader's role in building and maintaining a positive and proactive school climate for students, staff, and the community.

Registration fee of $1,495 includes course textbook(s) and continental breakfast and lunch Monday through Thursday.

The conference will kick off Sunday evening, with a keynote presentation at 6:30 pm.

In-depth sessions begin Monday and continue through Thursday. Select one four-day session. Sessions will meet from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm across all four days. These four-day sessions will allow you to explore your chosen content area in depth.

Preregistration is required.
