FANTASTIC READER, JENSON EYRE (YR 6), HAS BEEN SELECTED TO READ AT ELY CATHEDRAL!

An amazing email landed in Mrs Brown's inbox this week... Out of hundreds of nominees, Jenson Eyre, from Year 6 Turing class, has been selected to do a special reading at Ely Cathedral.

Along with 20 members of our Choir, Jenson will travel to Ely Cathedral in December to perform in front of around 1000 people.

Nobody from St Peter's has been chosen before, so we are giddy with excitement.

The semi-opening of our our new CALM
COURTYARD

We were thrilled this week, when the main building work was completed and the final fences went, revealing our new calm courtyard.

Children have loved chilling out and exploring the new artificial grass, cross, mound and umbrella shelters.

We hope the investment in the space will be respected and ready for 1000s of children to come.

Work still left to complete:

- Courtyard markings
- Buddy benches
- Shrubs and live planting

When it is completely finished, we will host an official opening ceremony.

Thank you for your patience and trust in the projects we are doing to make St Peter's a school to be proud of!
