A message from Mr. Redmile

It will be an honour and privilege to be your head teacher in September! I have worked in the school for 3 years across years 5 and 6, and I have enjoyed every second of it! St.

Peter's children are amazing: from the conversations I have everyday to the work they produce.

Some of you might know my love for chess and football (long suffering Nottingham Forest fan), but I also enjoy history and reading.

Have a great summer!

NEW CLASSES

We ask that families ready themselves for some changes in class organisation for next year.

What is staying the same:

- 8 classes; 2 per year group
- Location of year groups in the building
- Names for the classes in each year group eg. Year 3 Carter and Anning

What is changing:

-As your children prepare to step into Upper Key Stage 2, we have carefully regrouped our Year 4 classes. This positive change is designed to help students broaden their friendship groups, build new collaborative skills, and approach the exciting challenges of Year 5 with a fresh perspective.

- Class teachers: We have 3 new members of the teaching staff coming on board, which will be revealed on Monday.

DfE ANNOUNCEMENT - YEAR 6

The DfE have announced that Pearson the SATs markers will not be completed in time for the release of results on 7th July and have pushed it back to the 16th July... which is meaning:

- Year 6 will receive their end of reports on Wednesday 8th, but not their results, they will receive a letter on the 16th July.
- The Leaver's assembly needs to be postponed to 2pm, because school leaders have to be available in the morning for the release of results and we can't be in two places (although that would be handy!)

We are as frustrated as you guys! And we are sorry on the Government's behalf!

CALLING FOR HELP!

If you see parents blocking driveways with their parking, please inform staff of the registration plate. With a neighbour shouting at school staff this week, we need to report parking to the police and remind all adults in the community that by showing courtesy to each other, you might prevent school staff from getting abused.

GOLDEN RULE

THIS FORTNIGHT'S REFLECTION:

PERSEVERANCE!

The Little Light

When the road is steep and high,
And a tear falls from your eye,
Take a breath and do not stop,
Step by step you'll reach the top.
If a game is hard to win,
Keep the hopeful heart within.
Try again and do your best,
Stronger than the toughest test.
While you climb your rocky hill,
Share a smile and show your goodwill.
Lift a friend who's feeling low,
Help their little light to glow.
Kindness makes a heavy day,
Bright and sunny anyway.
Do not quit and do not fear,
Keep on pushing, victory's near!
