AND LOTS LOTS MORE

SPORTS DAYS 2024/25

Our annual tradition of water races was very much needed this year. Lots of fun and memories made, in a real celebration of sport and perseverance.

Thank you to the year 3 and 4 team who brought an extra element of fun with their dress up! AND thank you to the year 6s who cooled me down with a bucket of water on the leg... and thank you for supporting our events.

We made some adjustments to the parent areas for year 5 and 6, which seemed to give better viewing and allow the event to run more smoothly.

Remember that photos can only be of your child and no photos of others or staff can be shared please.

Thank you to those parents who supported staff decisions positively and respectfully.

Please remember for future events that attendees respecting staff is essential to ensuring the children have great role models.

We don't always get things right, but we do expect respect.

Thank you to Miss Neave and Mrs Davies for supporting the refreshment stand! All proceeds go into school funds and spent on brilliant things for learning!

BIG SING TCA

I had the privilege of accompanying our 39 strong choir to the Big Sing at TCA, with more than 10 schools representing the local area.

The choir was phenomenal!

Behaviour was great and we received good feedback from other schools and the organisers on how we move in fantastic lines, using fantastic walking!

AWARD CEREMONY

YEAR 3,4,5

NEXT WEEK

We are especially proud that Bonnie was picked to teach the sign language to everyone!!

Katrina also got a shout out by the lead singer, for being the most 'Jason Donovan' like person on the front row (we were singing one of his songs from Joseph!)

Friday 18th July 2025

TIME MOVED TO 9.30am (we have moved the time on account of how hot the hall has been getting in the afternoon!)

Some parents will have received dojo's/emails today to invite them to the event. Although we are proud of every child in school who shows the pillars and achieves great things, teachers have

This was a fabulous event last year and so we hope that the invited parents can make it.
