

a FORM series

What is Beauty?

A one-day workshop for young professional women

Whether it is in nature, art, music, fashion or within our relationships, we are all innately drawn to beauty.

We recognise its qualities when we encounter it, but what is it that makes something or someone beautiful?

This workshop will explore how and why beauty attracts, inspires, and enables us to strive for greatness.

We will examine what the pursuit for beauty reveals more deeply about our human nature and whether it is true that "beauty will save the world".

DATE Saturday, 7th November

TIME 10:30am - 4pm

LOCATION 176 Albert Rd, Strathfield

COST* $40 per person or bring a friend, and pay $60 for two people *covers morning tea, lunch and activity materials

Register here

Please RSVP by 2 Nov. Spaces are limited

Timetable

Saturday, 7th November

10:30am Arrive (Morning tea available)

11am Keynote & Q&A session
(Catherine Bonner)

11:50am Break

12pm Workshop

1pm Lunch

2pm Activity

4pm End

What is FORM?

A forum created by young professional women for young professional women. FORM invites us to think deeply, aspire to higher ideals, and consider how we can contribute meaningfully to the world.

Through conversations rooted in philosophy, we explore the questions that shape how we see ourselves, our relationships, our work and the world: What is true? What is good? What is beautiful? And what does it mean to live a truly fulfilling life?

For more information, please contact:

Maggie - 0452 011 291 or

Emily - 0422 269 362

