Entering a New Season With God

As summer comes to an end and a new season begins, we are reminded that God is always with us through every change and every new beginning. Seasons may change around us, but God's love, faithfulness, and promises never change.

The end of summer gives us an opportunity to pause, reflect, and thank God for all He has brought us through. As we look ahead, let us enter this new season with faith, hope, and a renewed commitment to follow Him.

Just as the seasons change, God can bring new things into our lives. This may be a season of growth, healing, serving, learning, or drawing closer to Him. Whatever this new season brings, we do not have to face it alone. God goes before us and walks beside us every step of the way.

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the Heavens.”

— Ecclesiastes 3:1

As a church family, let us step into this new season together. Let us continue to worship, pray, encourage one another, and serve our community. May our hearts remain open to what God wants to do in each of our lives and in our church.

In His Service,
Pastor Brian N.
