TODAY'S LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Paul and Barnabas speak to the people in the synagogue. At first the people are receptive, but later some Jews are filled with jealousy at seeing the crowds. Consequently, Paul and Barnabas evangelize the Gentiles, who are delighted and glorify the Lord. In the second reading, John writes of his vision where a multitude have washed their robes in the blood of the lamb who shepherds them. In the Gospel, Jesus says that his sheep hear his voice and that he and the Father are one. Can we hear Christ's voice speaking to us today? Or are we like those who, recognizing God's intention to gather the whole world into his fold, were filled with jealousy and deaf to the Good News? We may have moments where we can hear, and moments where distractions deafen us to our shepherd's voice. Let us pray for receptive hearts and open ears to follow Christ.

TODAY'S RESPONSORIAL PSALM: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, MAY 18: Acts 14:21-27; Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13; Rev 21:1-5a; Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

MOTHER'S DAY CARNATION SALE/BABY BOTTLE

In honor of Mother's Day, we will be supporting women in three ways: two area women's centers with their efforts to help pregnant women with their needs – Birthright in Frackville and CareNet of Carbon County – and a local gynecologist and her non-profit mission to support women and return values to family and life through daily care and education, one person at a time. We will host our annual Carnation Sale for Birthright, our baby bottle campaign for CareNet, and this year will add a way to help create a culture of life through United Hearts Life Mission. The carnations will be available in the St. John XXIII narthex before and after both Masses on Mother's Day weekend – suggested donation $2.00. The baby bottle campaign will begin on Mother's Day weekend and end on Father's Day – bottles will be available in St. John XXIII narthex and hall. Take a bottle, fill it with change or gift card or check, and return it on Father's Day. Information will be available for ways to donate to United Hearts Life, including T-shirts available for sale. For more information, refer to the flyer that was in last week's bulletin, check the events on our website (www.sj23tamaqua.org), or call Cheryl at 484-866-3835.

MOTHER'S DAY RAFFLE IS TODAY
