A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Residents, Families and Friends,
 As the first signs of spring arrive, I'm honored to introduce myself as the new Executive Director of Legacy Village of Hendersonville. My journey in senior living has always been rooted in serving with honesty, compassion, and a belief that every person deserves to feel valued and at home. Over the years, I've had the privilege of working in Assisted Living, Memory Care, and Independent Living, as well as supporting families as a Senior Care Advisor. These experiences have taught me that strong teams, open communication, and consistency are the heart of quality care.

I'm truly excited to join this community and to get to know each of you—residents, families, and team members. Building relationships and fostering a welcoming, supportive environment is what I love most about this work. My door is always open, and I look forward to working together to make Legacy Village a place where everyone can flourish.

This season of renewal is the perfect time to embrace new beginnings, try something new, and celebrate the connections that make our community feel like home. We have a full calendar of events and activities planned for March, and I encourage you and your loved ones to join in and make new memories with us. Whether it's sharing a story, enjoying the sunshine, or simply spending time together, there is so much to look forward to.

Thank you for welcoming me so warmly and for trusting us with the care of your loved ones. I'm grateful to be part of this journey with you, and I look forward to all we will accomplish together.

With gratitude,

Kasey Commerer

JULIANA CRAMER: HEART FOR FAMILY, SPIRIT FOR DISCOVERY

Juliana Cramer's life has been shaped by a love of learning, a heart for service, and a spirit of adventure. Born in Detroit, Michigan, Juliana grew up enjoying academics and giving back—her time as a Girl Scout sparked an early passion for community outreach that's stayed with her through the years.

economics and child development, sharing her knowledge and nurturing the next generation. She and Bob went on to raise three children—two daughters, Susan and Amy, and a son, Scott. Looking back, Juliana counts raising her children as her greatest accomplishment, and nothing makes her prouder than seeing the people they've become and all they have achieved.

Her sense of curiosity and adventure didn't stop at home. Juliana's travels have taken her to Norway, Denmark, Sweden, and Italy—experiences that have enriched her life and broadened her perspective.

Whether you catch her sharing stories about Michigan's "fruit belt" or talking about her family's milestones, you'll find Juliana's warmth and outlook inspiring. She reminds us all that a life well-lived is filled with service, discovery, and, above all, love for family.

After college, Juliana taught home
