Ministry Guide

> As each one has receivedage, useitserveoneanother as good stewardsofGod's varied grace. Peter4:10

Stewardship is based on the understanding that all we have and all we are is a gi from God—our me, our talent, our treasure, and even the gi of life itself. We show our gratitude by returning a poron of them back to God.

Please read these following ministry descriptions and fill out the form provided in the pews. Training will be provided for all ministries, and three-year terms will apply to most ministries. A background check and Safe Environment training is required for those working with vulnerable adults and children.
Thank you for sharing your gifts!

LITURGICAL MINISTRY

Sacristan: a vital role in preparing for the celebration of Mass. Sacristans help set up the altar and liturgical items, prepare vestments and sacred vessels, care for church linens and supplies, and ensure everything is ready before and after each liturgy. Through their quiet service behind the scenes, they help create a prayerful and reverent worship experience for the parish community.

St. Vincent de Paul: "No work of charity is foreign to St. Vincent de Paul." We meet with our neighbors in the local community in need within their homes to provide hope, comfort, help, and guidance. We help them with rent, ulles, food, and many other items.

Knights of Columbus: Involvement is a chance for personal growth, responsibility, and leadership. Host annual Lenten Fish Fry, lead Rosary, and help with parish fundraising events. This Catholic men's group supports vocations to the religious life and Outreach projects.

FAITH FORMATION

Sunday Classes: Volunteer teachers (catechists) and classroom helpers assist in the faith formation of children from kindergarten through the 6th grade. Classes are held on Sundays at noon.

First Reconciliation/Communion Prep: Volunteers assist or teach children for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Eucharist. Commitment begins in the fall and ends with the First Communion in May.

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW): Volunteers provide an opportunity for children to learn about the Word of God by hearing and discussing the Sunday readings in a small group at a more understandable level. Children's Liturgy takes place at Sunday Mass once a month.

Youth Group: Through faith discussions, fellowship, and activities members find support, encouragement, and a sense of belonging in a vibrant Catholic community.

Bible Study: invites parishioners to grow in their faith through prayer, Scripture reading, and discussion. Using Catholic study materials, participants deepen their understanding of God's Word.
