Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Isaiah 49:3, 5–6 / 1 Corinthians 1:1–3 / John 1:29–34

ANN M. GARRIDO

Of the many names Scripture provides to help us ponder the mystery of Jesus, one of the most intriguing is the name that John the Baptist offers at the opening of today's gospel: "Behold the Lamb of God!" (John 1:29).

Scripture scholars debate what John means here. Is he alluding to the Passover lamb—that unblemished lamb whose blood the enslaved Israelites were to post over their doorways? The angel of death knew to "pass over" these homes. Perhaps John was saying that by Jesus' blood, the people would be freed from death.

Or was John thinking about the guilt offerings mentioned in the Hebrew Scriptures when priests offered animal sacrifices to God as a way of seeking the removal of their sins? Leviticus mentions use of a scapegoat who would carry the sins of the people away into the desert. (See Leviticus 20–28.) Could John have understood that Jesus would bear the sins of the world?

Or did John have in mind the great constellation Aries, the ram, considered the prince of the stars of the sky, the center from whom all the other constellations were mapped in ancient times? Perhaps John was pointing out that Jesus was the center around whom heaven and earth revolve, like the ruling lamb mentioned in the Book of Revelation.

Today at Mass, when the host is elevated and you hear John's words again—"Behold the Lamb of God!"—take a moment to savor these words anew. ●

A Note From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

Welcome back to “Ordinary Time” in the Church’s liturgical calendar! It has been a fast and furious eight weeks since we celebrated Thanksgiving last November. We had a momentous series of an almost weekly celebration in the church and here is the quick list of ten of those for reference: Feast of Christ the King, Thanksgiving, First Sunday of Advent, my birthday, Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Solemnity of Christmas, Feast of the Holy Family, Solemnity of Mary-Mother of God (January 1st), Epiphany, and the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord! And this Sunday we take a breath and return to “ordinary” time. Breathe in! Breathe out!

Last Sunday all of the Christmas decorations in the church were taken down and stored for next year, and the sanctuary looks a bit bare without the evergreen trees and the Nativity display. The same is true for each of your houses as well with the Christmas tree and decorations being put away for another year. And our lives begin to return to a regular schedule of weekly events. But we are still living and celebrating our family life – in your houses and in the Church. It is the ongoing daily routine of our lives that continues to propel us slowly forward in time and space. While this time of the year is not as exciting as the Christmas Season, it is just as important and necessary to our life and growth. Our daily prayers and weekly attendance at Sunday Mass being the first on the list of ongoing ordinary family life. Then there are those weekly household projects and duties (cleaning, laundry, food shopping, paying the bills, etc.) and the major repair tasks that we put off during Christmas (HVAC maintenance, toilet & plumbing repairs, painting the house, cleaning out the garage/storage/attic, taking care of the lawn, etc.) which have once again risen to the top of the weekly “to do” list of our daily home life.

We need to approach this change of “season” not as a time to “slow down or relax,” but as a time to refocus our energies and priorities for the coming months. What are the next series of events and activities that our families and our church will be celebrating and for which we need to begin some long-term preparation? For many families there are the upcoming graduations from school and college in May, as well as Mothers’ Day, Fathers’ Day, and the summer vacation planning. For the Church there is the season of Lent, Holy Week, the Solemn Easter Vigil, Easter Sunday, and the Easter Season. We will be celebrating many sacramental moments in our Church as well. There are Baptisms and Full Initiation into the Catholic Church on Easter Vigil, First Holy Communions, Confirmations, and the Sacramental Blessings of civil marriages, all in the upcoming months. It looks like a busy Sacramental Springtime!

Last September we began the “Our Living Church Capital Campaign Building Fund” to raise $685,000.00 for necessary repairs and renovations to our parish campus. I am incredibly happy to report that through the great generosity of you, the parishioners of our church in these four short months, we have raised $117,603.16 of that goal! The first renovation/repair projects of this campaign are for our church building, namely the exterior stucco of the church and the stained-glass windows. When we reach the first milestone donation level of $185,000.00 of cash received on our pledges, we will be able to execute signed contracts for these church projects to begin.

“Thank you” to everyone who has made a pledge and is making their ongoing payments to fulfill their pledge. Please continue to support this important long-term building campaign. If you have made a pledge, please renew your commitment for the coming year 2026 and keep your donations coming. When I ask you the members of our parish to pledge and support an endeavor for our church, please remember I also have made a monthly pledge to “Our Living Church Campaign” which is auto deducted from my checkbook each month. If you have not made a 2026 pledge toward the “Our Living Church Capital Campaign” there are brochures available in the foyer (and hopefully in the end of your pews). As soon as we reach that milestone donation level of $185,000.00 cash on hand, we will be able to start the renewal and beautification of our church building. Any donation in any amount (one-time donation or an ongoing pledge) moves us ever closer to our goals. Over the last twenty years we have had three major construction projects ranging from $368,000.00 to $611,000.00. The loan amounts for these large projects were: $305,864.53 loan with the interior renovations of our church in 2005 (twenty years ago), $184,351.00 loan with the Rectory/Office Construction in 2013, and the $284,343.94 loan with the 2017 construction of the new Religious Education Building just 8 years ago. We did it before, and we can do it again! Let’s Do It!

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Patrick

Deacon's Corner

Welcome to Ordinary Time! This is the start of the second week. The first week started with the Baptism of the Lord from Matthew's Gospel. This week the Baptism of the Lord comes from John's Gospel. The Baptism of the Lord is all four gospels—Mt. 3:17; Mk 1:11; Lk 3:22 and today's Gospel, John 1:29. I want to suggest that you look at all four renditions, and see if you can spot differences and similarities. In today's version, according to John, it is a little different. For those of you have the readings that I attach for everyone, except the parish bulletin, you will notice a slight difference: John has it: "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' The footnote to the New American Bible has an explanation that examines the differences of the Matthew, Mark and Luke versions with the John version. You can meditate about that if you want, but I think that John had the benefit of the other three gospels (called Synoptic, meaning similarity) because he wrote his Gospel about 20 to 30 years after the Synoptics; so, he had the benefit of understanding that was based on practice by the community. I think that means John the Baptist's baptism was symbolic, and the Baptism in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit had become the practice of the Church by the time John the Evangelist wrote his version. It was to become the first sacrament, the most important sacrament, the most necessary sacrament. It signifies commitment, repentance, liberation from the slavery of sin and death, and the first participation in the Paschal Mystery (the death and Resurrection and Jesus). The Church of St. Paul found it to be so special, that he said that we can only receive it one time. Of course, we renew our commitment every time we overcome temptation, or we sin, and when we do we reconcile ourselves to the Church because of the Sacrament. The second reading today is to the Corinthian Church: "...to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." I think this Second Sunday in Ordinary Time is setting the stage for us to live the entire liturgical year in terms of our commitment to the Sacrament of Baptism by which we become children of God, and by which we can learn how to behave like good human beings, which is the main purpose of the Incarnation.

Good luck on the journey.

Deacon Cavada

Dear Padre,

I thought only priests and bishops should distribute Holy Communion at Mass. In my parish, the priest allows laypeople to help him, and I thought laypeople couldn't because our hands are not consecrated.

You're not the only person with this concern, so thank you for taking the time to write. The distribution of holy Communion has nothing to do with "consecrated hands." Ordinary ministers of Communion include bishops and priests, as you rightly identify, but also deacons and installed acolytes. Of the four ordinary ministers, only the hands of bishops and priests are consecrated. Laypeople are extraordinary ministers and are installed to help the priest so that everyone can receive holy Communion without long lines or wearying the (sometimes elderly) priest. Most extraordinary ministers of Communion approach this ministry very prayerfully.

Your question brings up the subject of the full participation of the laity in the Mass, which is part of a highly contentious theological discussion on social media. There is an unfortunate conflict between so-called "traditional Catholics" and "Vatican II Catholics" or, as they are often misrepresented, "Novus Ordo" Catholics. Some Catholics are led to believe that the "new Mass" is not authentic, even though it has been the ordinary form of the Mass for well over fifty years—that is, since the authoritative Second Vatican Council. Many good and faithful people suffer with doubt and anxiety as a result of this confusion. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Ours is a time marked by a growing search for spirituality, particularly evident in young people, who are longing for authentic relationships and guides in life. Hence, it is important that the Christian community be farsighted in discerning the challenges of today's world and in nurturing the desire for faith present in the heart of every man and woman.
