Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy) (A)

Acts 2:42-47 / 1 Peter 1:3-9 / John 20:19-31

ANN M. GARRIDO

We can readily understand Thomas' insistence upon seeing things with his own eyes. Would you believe it if someone told you that a friend whose funeral you had attended was now walking through walls?

At some time or other, all of us have been tricked into believing something we later found out was untrue and remember how foolish we felt. Haven't our parents told us not to believe everything we hear? Haven't our teachers taught us to do our own research? Doubt serves a valuable purpose, and we would be naïve to disregard it.

At the same time, we know that doubt can become a way of life, overstepping its usefulness. During the COVID pandemic, for example, some refused to believe even the most knowledgeable medical voices in the nation. Like Thomas, they insisted that unless they'd "done their own research," they wouldn't believe. Such a stance ignores that unless you are a scientist working in a medical lab, even "your own research" will be based on an act of belief that what you are reading of others' research is correct. Doubt is good, but only in combination with a healthy dose of humility. In the end, the world turns on an axis of trust.

At the close of today's gospel, Jesus names as "blessed" those able to discern what is true and believe not only because of what they have seen with their own eyes but also because of what they have heard through their ears from sources worthy of their trust. ●

A Note From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

Happy Easter!

Yes, Happy Easter! Lent goes for forty days from Ash Wednesday to Holy Saturday. Officially the Easter Season goes on for fifty days from Easter Sunday (April 5th) until Ascension Thursday (May 24th). It is the celebrating the fifty days from Jesus' resurrection until He ascends back to heaven to the right hand of the Father. Most Christian Churches also have added the ten days from Ascension Thursday to Pentecost Sunday with the Descent of the Holy Spirit upon Mary, the Apostles, and the Disciples in the "Upper Room" where the Last Supper was celebrated. Pentecost Sunday is often referred to as the "birthday" of the Catholic Church, as it was the first day of Simon Peter's powerful Spirit-filled preaching about the Risen Christ that "some 3,000" (Acts 2:41) new disciples were baptized on that very day.

In our St. John of the Cross Church, eight persons were fully initiated into the Catholic Church on the Easter Vigil through Baptism, Confirmation, and their First Holy Communion. There was also an additional Confirmation and first Holy Communion for family members of the neophytes (newly baptized).

The Easter Season actually has more significance as it was the time that Jesus after His resurrection continued to meet and give further instructions to the Apostles and disciples.

"And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Acts 28:18-20)

This special time is called the "Mystagogia" - the time of the "Mysteries of the Christian Life" were explained and lived for the very first time. The Baptism Sponsors (and Confirmation Sponsors) in the first century and even in today's times were through the forty days of Lent were instructing and preparing their candidates to understand and be prepared for their Baptismal Promises. These Sponsors are actually at the celebration of these sacraments to walk with and to assist their candidate as they went through the ceremonies. The candidates are often so overwhelmed by the complexity of the ceremony with the actions, the questions, their responses, that the sponsor is right next to them to whisper to them the proper responses and to help them perform the movements and actions of the ceremony. The best modern-day image is the Maid/Matron of Honor and the Best Man at a wedding when the Bride and Groom are so excited and emotional that their minds often go blank as they try to remember all of the details of a ceremony that they have never experienced. For an example, think of them fixing the dress or the veil, holding the rings, holding the bridal bouquet, and such.

At the Baptism, adult or child, the candidate goes through the sacramental ceremony leaving their old way of life and now starting their new life as a Christian and follower of the Jesus Christ. But how does a neophyte Christian live in a new lifestyle that they have never yet lived or experienced? And this is the real time of the role of the Baptismal and Confirmation Sponsors! The Sponsor has guided them and instructed them on the "new way of life", but now the Sponsor helps them to understand and live the "new life" as a Christian, spending the next fifty days like Jesus did with the Apostles after the Resurrection until His Ascension, giving them the final instructions as their embark on this new journey of life.

This is the deepest understanding of a Sacramental Sponsor, not to just be there for the ceremony or just to purchase any needed items/gifts, but to continually help them to learn and grow as a follower of Christ for the rest of their lives! The newly baptized (neophytes) have just gone through the Mystery, and now it is their time to learn and understand the Mysteries and "how to live them" on a daily basis and to create those new good habits of Faith – daily prayers, attendance at Mass and Holy Days, and many of the sacramentals (spiritual exercises and practices that support the Catholic Life i.e. rosary, crucifixes, devotional novenas, etc.). This is the life-long spiritual commitment made by the Sacramental Sponsor – to continue to lead and support their neophyte for the rest of their lives until they meet the Lord Jesus at the pearly gates of Heaven. Just as a newly married couple has a "honeymoon" (the first month from their wedding date until the first full moon following their marriage) living and experiencing their new life together, the newly Baptized have the fifty days of living and experiencing their new life as Christians which we call the Mystagogia! If you are a Sacramental Sponsor for someone, how are you doing in that life-long spiritual commitment?

So, let us continue to pray for these new Sisters and Brothers in Christ as they begin their new journey with Christ. We need also to pray for their Sacramental Sponsors to be good and helpful examples to their neophyte Brother or Sister in Christ!

Love and Prayers,
Fr. Patrick

Congratulations to the candidates who were fully initiated into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil.

Quinceañeras: The honoree and their family must be registered and participating in the parish for two years prior to the year of the Quinceañera (or Quinceañero). The young person must have Baptism & Communion in the Catholic Church, & be attending the parish Religious Education Program. The family is strongly encouraged to contact the Church for 2 years before the intended date.

Marriage: Arrangements must be made with the priest or deacon, preferably one year before the intended date, (minimum of six months in advance) to complete the necessary requirements. At least one person must be an active and registered member of this parish. No wedding date is guaranteed until ALL diocesan requirements have been fulfilled.

Blessing of Civil Marriages – If you were married before a judge, or a non-Catholic minister, and wish to be readmitted to Holy Communion, there needs to be a Blessing of your Civil Marriage. Please call the parish office and set up an appointment with Father Patrick so he can hear your particular situation and can guide you through the process. Father Patrick is always saying "Don't wait! Start the process NOW!"

Dear Padre,

We are told that when we receive the Holy Eucharist, our venial sins are washed away. Does the same thing happen when we receive spiritual communion?

Yes, and there are many other ways that venial sins can be forgiven. First and foremost is each of the sacraments of reconciliation: baptism, Eucharist, penance, and anointing of the sick. In addition to the sacraments, an Act of Contrition will also suffice, as will a simple prayer of intercession, such as, "Lord, Jesus, Son of the Living God, have mercy on me, a sinner." Forgiveness of venial sins is directly dependent on one thing: the sanctifying grace of the Holy Spirit at work in our world and in each one of us. Forgiveness is not merited; it is a gift, and, as a gift, it requires only that we ask and gratefully receive.

It is true that we are all sinful. We are also all blessed. As wonderful as forgiveness is, and there truly is no greater gift of God's love, an equally wonderful gift is gratitude. Perhaps, with every Act of Contrition that we pray, we should also offer a prayer of thanksgiving. It might help us find balance if we remind ourselves not only how we may not have measured up but also that we are blessed and graced. ●

ALESSIA RIBDOMENICO / SHUTTERSTOCK

The Lord shows us his wounds and says: Peace be with you. Do not be afraid to show your wounds healed by mercy. Do not be afraid to draw close to those who are trapped in fear or guilt. May the breath of the Spirit make us, too, witnesses of this peace and this love that is stronger than any defeat.
