Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Jeremiah 20:10–13 / Romans 5:12–15 / Matthew 10:26–33

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

Secrets. The disabling fear of discovery. Trying so hard to conceal something that we do not want others to know. Often, we guard secrets closely because we believe we will be embarrassed, punished, or excluded if our secrets are made known.

Sometimes, we hold tightly to secrets because we are ashamed. We keep other secrets because of the dynamics of family life: “We do not share our family business with anyone.” All secrets can be difficult to keep—some more than others. Perhaps the most difficult secret to hold is one that we fear defines our personal integrity and authenticity. It is the fear not only of discovery but also of perception: How will I be perceived if this is made known? Will I still be accepted? Or, even more painful: Will I be rejected, and how complete will the rejection be?

The “good news” of the gospel is that “nothing is concealed that will not be revealed” (Matthew 10:26). In other words, there is nothing that can remain tucked away forever. Everything is revealed in one way or another. Gospel grace and freedom result when a person chooses to freely release whatever it is that burdens them, including closely held secrets. It is the ultimate experience of dying to self to claim eternal life. ●

A Note From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The ongoing packing is taking longer than I thought it would! You do not know how much “Stuff” you have until you have to box it all up and move it to a new home! And then there are the numerous questions, “Will I need this in the future? This piece of clothing does not fit anymore; do I take it just in case I gain/lose weight? Does this item (chair, glasses, pot/pan) belong to me? Or to the parish?” Some of the furniture in the rectory that came from my parents’ home belongs to me, and it will be going with me, but most of the furniture and fixtures in the rectory belong to the parish and always remain for the incoming priest. A parish rectory is like a “furnished apartment” with all that the new occupant might need – bed, chairs, TV, dishes/glassware/silverware, pots & pans, etc. The priest /pastor brings with him his personal items to make it more of a home to his liking, but most everything else he might need is already in the rectory. There is usually a need for the parish to purchase a few new items to turn the generic rectory into “his new home.” And moving into a new living space requires “where and how do I hang the pictures and rearrange the furniture to make it comfortable for me.” So, please be patient as Fr. James Stembler moves into his rectory.

Oops! I just realized that I have not announced the name of your new pastor – Rev. James Stembler. Fr. Stembler will be in and out over the next few weeks to bring his personal belongings into the rectory as I start taking my things out for my relocation. His actual first day will be on Monday, July 6, 2026, and his first Mass in his new assignment will be on that same Monday morning at 8:00 AM. Currently, he is the Rector of the Corpus Christi Cathedral. He has served as Pastor at St. Elizabeth’s Church in Alice and as Pastor at St. Gertrude’s Church in Kingsville. Several parishioners here and at the mission have already told me that they know him from his previous assignments – and they said “they liked him” as their priest. From my own personal friendship with him over the last 35 years, I have found him to be a good and compassionate priest who preaches well. It is my hope and prayer that you receive him with kindness and openness as he navigates his way into his new assignment.

As I have done in my last eight transfers from one parish to another, I often just waited quietly for a while to get a feel for the new parish and the parish community. And if Fr. Stembler asks, “How have you done this in this parish before?”, the best response is “We (or Fr. Pat) did it this way - but you are our new pastor, and we want to know how You want to do it”. Every parish has had a change of pastor over the years, just take a look at the wall of pictures of your previous pastors on the wall in the parish hall. And as I am sure every person in this parish has experienced a “new pastor” either by the change of the pastor or by you changing to a new town and parish. And each new pastor usually brings their own style of pastoral leadership to the new community. And just like it might happen at your place of employment with a change of supervisors, it always takes a few weeks to adjust to the new style. And while you may have liked my style of doing things in the past, it is always better for you to keep your focus on the future of our parish and on welcoming your new pastor! And to help Fr. Stembler establish his authority and style in his new assignment, I will be following my own rule of not returning to the parish unless invited to be a substitute priest while he is away or for a special occasion.

My actual assignment at St. John of the Cross is concluded with the Sunday Evening Mass on July 5th. Fr. Stembler will arrive late on Sunday evening and he will wake up at his new assignment as the new Pastor on Monday July 6th. Over the next few weeks, I will be moving my personal things out of the rectory to my new residence in Corpus Christi. My new residence is at the St. John Vianney Residence for Priests, 6301 Kostoryz Rd., Apt #602, Corpus Christi, Texas 78415. My pastororangevotx@gmail.com email address will remain active for the near future. And those who might have my current cell phone number 361-739-6853, it will also remain active for a while. And with all the kindness that I can give you, please do not call me or communicate with me regarding any displeasure or difficulty with your new pastor. He now has all of the authority and care of St. John of the Cross Church / St. Francis of Assisi, and you should turn to him with your questions. All of those needs to be addressed to your new pastor, or if you feel it is extremely serious, you contact the Vicar for Priests at the Diocese of Corpus Christi. I will have a sympathetic ear to listen, but my response will be for you “To contact your pastor with your concerns or questions, as I am no longer the Pastor of St. John of the Cross and you need to speak to him.”

Every time I have been transferred over the last 50 years of service to the diocese, it is always a time of sadness to leave the current location with its friends and memories, but it has also been a time of new adventures and new experiences. You may have some of the same experiences whenever you have moved into a new house or moved to a new city. Excitement and sadness go hand in hand at this time. I am hoping to spend more time visiting my family and doing some of “my bucket list” travels to places around the world. During this time of ups and downs of emotions, please pray for me and for my future retirement!

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Patrick

AGAPE RANCH—Dream Big Bed Build— June 27, 2026, 8AM—1PM, Corpus Christi

Many children in foster care have been wounded by trauma of their past. Agape Ranch reflects the heart of Christ by surrounding children and aged-out young adults from foster care with unconditional love, steady support, and intentional community. Through lasting relationships and a dedicated network of support, a space is created for deep healing and builds a legacy of hope that changes generations.

Agape Ranch has taken the initiative to provide a bed, a basic need for the proper physical, emotional, and mental support that a child needs.

Through the Agape Ranch Bed Build events, we are able to build beds that support vulnerable children and their families with a safe sleeping space.

Our 2026 goal is to build one hundred twin and twenty-five toddler size beds that will serve our community through requests from our partnering child serving agencies. Agape Ranch will provide all lumber and supplies while our volunteers bring their willingness to help and valuable time.

Religious Education

Catechists and classroom aides are needed! ~ As the office staff prepare for the 2026-2027 year of religious education, they are faced with the possibility that some grades of religious education cannot be offered next year since there are not enough teachers for every grade level, as TWO adults are required for EVERY classroom (one teacher to prepare and present weekly lessons and one classroom aide to assist the teacher in classroom management)

Committed Catholics who have received all of their sacraments and are living out these sacraments daily are needed to teach our youth the traditions of the Catholic Church. All volunteers MUST be Safe Environment certified through the Diocese of Corpus Christi.

If you feel God's call to serve in this ministry, please call the parish office to find out more about how you can help our religious education program. (361-384-2795).

The future of our religious education program really depends upon YOU!.

Save the dates: Registration for the 2026-27 religious education program will take place on August 26 and August 30.

Dear Padre,

For the past year or so, I have been trying to pray on a regular basis, but I am constantly distracted. My mind wanders so easily. Do you have any suggestions?

Distractions in prayer are an inescapable part of the human condition and the results of our imagination. Even great saints experienced distractions in prayer. Some of their suggestions may help. For example, when St. Thérèse of Lisieux struggled with prayer, she would recite an Our Father or Hail Mary or read from the gospels. Praying as an act of faith or returning to God's presence and love can turn our focus away from other concerns, but, even then, distractions may still arise.

When we become aware of distractions, we should calmly renew our focus and continue our prayer. Saint Teresa of Ávila wrote in The Interior Castle, "We should not be distressed by reason of our thoughts, nor allow ourselves to be worried by them.... [Thoughts are] inevitable. Do not let [them] disturb or grieve you." No matter how often distractions return or how long they last, they are not sinful; rather, they are opportunities to show God that we are sincere about praying.

Saint Alphonsus, another great teacher of prayer, reminds us that prayer is necessary, beneficial, and always possible. He advises us to hang in there, because the devil would like nothing better than for us to stop praying. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

It is wonderful to think that, when we consider our individual calling...each of us can say with confidence: "Despite my weakness, the Lord is not ashamed of my humanity. Instead, he comes to dwell within me. He accompanies me with his Spirit; he enlightens me and makes me an instrument of his love for others, for society, and for the world."
