Decorations & Setup

We welcome decorations to help personalise your event.

To protect our venue, decorations, signage, nails, screws, hooks, adhesive tape or other fixtures must not be attached to walls, windows, ceilings or furniture without prior approval. Confetti, glitter, party poppers, smoke machines and similar products are not permitted. If you are arranging external suppliers (e.g. balloons, florists, entertainers or event stylists), please coordinate delivery and setup times with our team prior to your event.

Function spaces are generally available 30–60 minutes prior to your scheduled start time unless otherwise arranged. All decorations and personal belongings must be removed at the conclusion of your event unless prior arrangements have been made.

Venue Access

Palace Hotel Wagin is a fully operational hospitality venue during normal trading hours.

Unless Exclusive Venue Hire has been arranged and confirmed, other areas of the hotel will remain open to the general public. Exclusive use of the Lounge Bar Café is available by prior arrangement and is subject to venue availability and applicable hire conditions.

Liability & Damages

Palace Hotel Wagin accepts no responsibility for the loss, theft or damage of personal belongings or third-party equipment before, during or after your event. The function organiser accepts responsibility for any loss or damage caused to the venue, furniture, fixtures or equipment by guests, contractors or suppliers attending the event. Repair or replacement costs may be charged accordingly.

Pricing & Menu Changes

Whilst every effort is made to honour quoted prices, Palace Hotel Wagin reserves the right to amend menu pricing due to seasonal availability, supplier price increases or unforeseen market conditions.

Where possible, any changes will be communicated no later than 14 days prior to your event.

Food Safety

All food prepared by Palace Hotel Wagin is intended for consumption on the premises.

Guests choosing to take leftover food do so at their own risk. Palace Hotel Wagin cannot guarantee the quality or safety of food once it has left the premises. No outside food or beverages are permitted without prior approval, with the exception of a celebration cake. Cakeage charges may apply. Fish and seafood items are not available for takeaway. Platters are recommended for dine-in only to ensure the best quality.

Responsible Service of Alcohol

Palace Hotel Wagin practices the Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) in accordance with Western Australian liquor licensing laws. Management and bar staff reserve the right to refuse alcohol service to any guest who is intoxicated or whose behaviour is considered unsafe or inappropriate.

Guests who become intoxicated, disorderly or pose a risk to others may be refused service and asked to leave the premises.

No refunds will be provided for unused food, beverages or associated function costs.

Children

Children attending private functions remain the responsibility of their parent or guardian at all times.

Children must be supervised and are not permitted to enter restricted areas including the bar, kitchen, bottle shop, service areas or any staff-only areas.

Payment

The remaining balance must be paid on or before the day of your event, unless otherwise agreed in writing with Palace Hotel Wagin. Any additional food, beverages or services requested during the event that are not included in the original booking will be charged accordingly and are payable at the conclusion of the function.

Palace Hotel Wagin reserves the right to request full payment prior to the commencement of the event where deemed necessary.

Management's Right to Refuse. Palace Hotel Wagin reserves the right to refuse or cancel a booking where the safety of guests, staff or the venue may be compromised, or where function requirements cannot be reasonably accommodated.

Management reserves the right to refuse entry or service to any person in accordance with venue policies, licensing requirements and applicable legislation.
