FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Make the connection

In his birth (Christmas), his adoration by the Magi (Epiphany), and the coming of the Spirit upon him (Baptism of the Lord) Jesus is revealed to be the Son of God. These significant events in Jesus' life are so closely tied that the Eastern Orthodox Church observes the coming of the Magi and the Lord's Baptism on the same day. In the same way, our own births and Baptism signal that we are children of God and followers of Christ. As a new year begins, find ways to reconnect with your family of faith and make daily choices that reveal your divine heritage.

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7; Acts 10:34-38; Matthew 3:13-17 (21). "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

Listen up

The tech industry would have us believe that the most important connections we make are virtual. While it's true that tech devices are useful in today's world, there remains the crucial connection with that still, small voice within our own hearts that no computer or phone can reach. That voice, which is God's, can only be heard in stillness: in the bare branches of trees against a winter sky, the quiet of new-fallen snow, the starry brilliance in a winter night sky, our breathing in and breathing out. What is God calling you to do now? Spend some time today just listening.

1 Samuel 1:1-8; Mark 1:14-20 (305). "Jesus said to them, 'Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.'"

Tuesday, Jan 13, 2026

"I was a stranger"

Of all the lessons Jesus tried to teach us, the one that is perhaps hardest to believe—and therefore easiest to forget—is that we are all one. Jesus reminded us of this truth a number of times, most notably when he declared, "Just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me" (Matt. 25:40). Take a few minutes today to reflect on what life would be like if you knew, with as much certainty as you know your own name, that there are no strangers among us; we are all one, united through Christ. What would be different? How would you act toward yourself? Toward others?

1 Samuel 1:9-20; Mark 1:21-28 (306). "What is this? A new teaching with authority."

Now appearing

You don't have to look very hard into Catholic tradition to find stories of supernatural appearances of Jesus, the saints, and especially Mary to believers through the centuries. These kinds of occurrences really go back to biblical times. In the New Testament the Holy Spirit "appeared" in the form of a dove at Jesus' Baptism, Jesus himself appeared to his disciples after his Resurrection, and the risen Christ made a decisive personal intervention in the life of Saint Paul, to name a few examples. Most of us will never have such an experience, but we can indeed learn to make ourselves aware of the presence and guidance of God.

1 Samuel 3:1-10, 19-20; Mark 1:29-39 (307). "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Wanted: Good leaders

The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were the trusted priests of the ancient temple in Shiloh. But they were stealing from the temple in Shiloh. But they were stealing from the temple and committing immoral acts. As a result, the army of Israel was cursed and got hammered by the Philistines. Hophni and Phinehas were slain and the Philistines took the ark of God captive. It is a cautionary tale about the faithful's need for good leaders. Pray for vocations, and very specifically for men and women to serve the Lord in truth and integrity.

1 Samuel 4:1-11; Mark 1:40-45 (308). "The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were among the dead."

Move on

There's a lot in life that can get us down. Sometimes they are things of our own making, and sometimes, well, it's life. It's not always easy to know what to do. We can stand still and try to figure it out, or we can backtrack to see what happened. At some point, however, it is time to move forward—to step out of what happened and to imagine something new. "Begin now," says Saint Jerome, "to be what you will be hereafter."

1 Samuel 8:4-7, 10-22a; Mark 2:1-12 (309). "Rise, pick up your mat and walk."

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY, ABBOT

Alone with the truth

Few of us would take aloneness to the extent of Saint Anthony of the Desert, who spent much of his 105 years in solitude. Stories of Anthony say he was besieged by all kinds of temptations in the desert night. At some level we know that silence forces us to confront the reality of who we are before God. But, as Saint Anthony explains, it is a worthy pursuit: "One who knows oneself, knows God . . . Therefore, my beloveds in the Lord, know yourselves." Opening up at such depth is indeed terrifying, but Jesus "gets" the weakness of being human. He calls each of us not for condemnation but friendship.

1 Samuel 9:1-4, 17-19; 10:1; Mark 2:13-17 (310). "Jesus said to him, 'Follow me.'"

Peace be with you!

Happy Feast of the Baptism of our Lord and the winding down of the Christmas season. Years passed swiftly in the Gospels, jumping from Jesus' infancy events to His baptism at age 30—but focus stays on His ministry's start, not His age. John's baptisms were of repentance, which Jesus—being sinless—certainly did not need. Yet Matthew says He pursued it “in order to fulfill all righteousness.” In short, He obeyed the Father's will in salvation's blueprint—through His passion, death, resurrection, and ascension into heaven. His journey presses on. Stay prayed up!

We held our first Parish Council meeting of 2026 and hit the ground running. Council Chair Andy Pacuk shared a solid agenda filled with events and projects we will endeavor to undertake this year. Priority one—prep for the San Giuseppe Festival, honoring Saint Joseph. It will take place on Sunday, March 15 after 11 a.m. Mass. Festival Chair Mike Carneglia's geared up to get the “meatballs” rolling with his spreadsheets in-hand, assigning roles with co-Chair Bill Gonch. Be on the look out for sign-up sheets where you can sign up to make your top Italian recipe. As always, feel free to submit receipts for reimbursement anytime. Meanwhile, I'm prepping a repeat order of Caraluzzi's giant zeppoles—hope they can handle it!

Turning to our church flooring project, Phases 1 and 2 will wrap up soon. We are awaiting the delivery of the medallions which will be installed in the center aisle near the altar and in the Baptistry. Phase 3 entails replacing the sanctuary carpet, extending the hardwood from the music area into the entire sanctuary. Then, we'll darken the stain, and add wood bullnoses and tiles from the center aisle to the steps. Scheduling details coming soon!

Father O'Neil

Virtues, Explained!
Joy

Though it is often used as a synonym for happiness, joy has far more to do with the choices we make than the emotions we feel.

Joy is the experience of achieving what we most desire — and what we most desire is love. God made us in love and for love, and so, in the same way that a flower seeks the sunlight, our souls seek the warmth of true, selfless love. The virtue of joy, therefore, is a fruit of the virtue of love, or charity (CCC 1829).

“We are meant to have our human joys: the joy of living, the joy of love and friendship, the joy of work well done,” said Saint Pope John Paul II. “We who are Christians have a further cause for joy: like Jesus, we know that we are loved by God our Father. This love transforms our lives and fills us with joy.”

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS: Lessons from Baptizing a Frog

I used to lead an RCIA session on baptism, where I would bring in my Kermit the Frog toy from when I was a child and pretend to baptize it. It was a session I especially made sure I led when we had children preparing for Easter sacraments. You would think Kermit would have become super holy having been baptized so many times, year after year. But, if he had been real, he would not have been any holier due to multiple baptisms than he was after the first baptism. He couldn't be re-baptized. (Not to mention, of course, he is a FROG.)

When Jesus came to John for baptism, he transformed the baptism of repentance that John was practicing into a baptism of redemption. And although we are called to repentance over and over in our life, redemption comes to us only once. We cannot get baptized again in the Jordan or Sea of Galilee because of romantic notions, or come into the Catholic Church by a second baptism so we can start all over. Our baptism, whether we can remember it or not, is a one-time deal. But it is the real deal. Whether you feel it or not, you are sealed for Christ, and the stain of original sin has been washed away.

Too many of us take that moment for granted. Yes, you may have been baptized as an infant. But much time has passed since then, and you can work to understand the impact that it had on your life. We sometimes look for a good time to begin living a stewardship way of life. However, that time already passed, and God has been waiting. We are called to reflect on our baptism and respond to the call it has placed on our lives. We can respond and be disciples, or we can be like Kermit the Frog, always searching for a new start that never comes.

ANNUAL APPEAL

GOAL: $150,000

The Saint Joseph Annual Collection is underway. Over the years your generous financial support has been one of our greatest blessings.

Our Finance & Parish Councils have earmarked the proceeds of this 2025 Annual Collection for a particular project, the cost of which, as in past years, exceeds what can be funded through the regular weekly offertory. This year, our plan is to replace all the flooring in the church, both the seating area and the sanctuary, as well as the narthex and hallways. Please take a moment to prayerfully consider your support of this project. Thank you for your continued faith, love, and generosity.
