PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

What is the World Day for Consecrated Life?

It's a worldwide celebration held on February 2nd that coincides with the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus.

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

Sunday, Feb 01, 2026

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Who wants to inherit the Earth?

The simplest way to think of humility may be “knowing one’s limitations.” Don’t be more—or less—than you are. For Christians, though, humility means something deeper than practicing a virtue; it’s a matter of putting others first, and “others” include God, people, and all of creation. The monk Thomas Merton wrote, “. . . The right of another . . . is the expression of God’s love and God’s will.” Why follow this crazy-sounding advice? “Because Christ emptied himself . . . he humbled himself” (Philippians 2:7). As he did, and does, so we are to do: give of ourselves for the good of others. The stories of the saints reveal such humility. Their first thought was of God and the needs of those around them, not themselves. It’s a tall order, but humble attitudes and actions can connect you to God in your everyday life.

Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13; 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; Matthew 5:1-12a (70). “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.”

Monday, Feb 02, 2026

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Open the gifts children bring

Like most parents, Mary and Joseph wanted the best for their child. They were faithful Jews and desired their son to be raised in the faith that had sustained them. They took Jesus to the Temple to be consecrated and presented to God, where they met Simeon and Anna, elders of the community. The elders immediately recognized Jesus as the Messiah, the fulfillment of God’s promise to Israel, a light to the whole world. What can you do this day to call forth the gifts of a child and encourage them to use those gifts to give light to the world?

Malachi 3:1-4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40 or 2:22-32 (524). “The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.”

Tuesday, Feb 03, 2026

God has a hand in healing

Many stories of healing in scripture are of the miraculous variety; they’re “supernatural”—“above” nature—and on God’s power over everything, including natural things like illness. While such miracles seem rarer today, one of the keys to healing remains trust: in God, whether the outcome is an actual cure or the acceptance of one’s situation. Either way, suffering eases. “Grace does not destroy nature but perfects it,” says Saint Thomas Aquinas. Let the grace of faith bring some healing to your life.

2 Samuel 18:9-10, 14b, 24-25a, 30-19:3; Mark 5:21-43 (324). “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.”

Wednesday, Feb 04, 2026

When familiarity breeds contempt

“Well, who do they think they are?” neighbors wonder as they gossip about the behavior of other neighbors and make decisions like “they’ve grown too big for their britches.” In traditional societies—today and in the time of Jesus—such criticism tells people that the priorities of the community to fit in and get along are valued over priorities of the individual. But judging the personal lives of others can create conflict and cause jealousy. Indeed, “Envy is the mother of murder,” says Saint John Chrysostom. Do you indulge in character assassination? If so, why? Take time to think about your motivations.

2 Samuel 24:2, 9-17; Mark 6:1-6 (325). “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin.”

Thursday, Feb 05, 2026

MEMORIAL OF AGATHA, MARTYR

In solidarity with saints

When facing challenges, we can turn to the saints for help. The church raises up women and men who are in solidarity with us, including saints who have experienced some of the same horrors that people today have. As we fight for human dignity and the protection of life, we can look to saints like Saint Agatha, who knew personally the terror of sexual assault and torture, or to Saint Josephine Bakhita, who was sold into slavery at the age of 7 and eventually won her freedom and became a Canossian sister, or to the saints among us, including many contemporary Catholic sisters, who are at the forefront of the struggle against human trafficking. Play your part in protecting the dignity and freedom of all people. 1 Kings 2:1-4, 10-12; Mark 6:7-13 (326). “They anointed with oil many who were sick.”

Friday, Feb 06, 2026

MEMORIAL OF PAUL MIKI AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

A fruitful rain continues to nourish

Brother Paul Miki, a Jesuit and a native of Japan, is the best known among the 26 martyrs who died in Japan in 1597. As he died on a hill in Nagasaki he said, “After Christ’s example I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain.” Indeed, it did. Centuries later, missionaries returned to Japan to find thousands of Christians who had quietly preserved the faith underground until it was legalized. Let your life’s work also be a fruitful rain, nourishing all with whom you come into contact.

Sirach 47:2-11; Mark 6:14-29 (327). “I want you to give me at once on a platter the head of John the Baptist.”

Saturday, Feb 07, 2026

Give it a rest

Is the weekend a time to relax for you? Saturday will find some of us on the job, for sure—someone’s got to keep those stores, restaurants, and theatres open. But even those of us who don’t go into work will still keep plenty busy over the weekend, driving the kids around, catching up on laundry, getting groceries, and doing everything else put on hold from Monday to Friday. Jesus invites his friends to step aside and “come away” from all that once in a while to rest our bodies and our spirits. Reserve a bit of Saturday for leisure.

1 Kings 3:4-13; Mark 6:30-34 (328). “He said to them, ‘Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.’”

“What do you call the lettering on an invitation to a baby’s first Sacrament?”

“The Baptismal font.”

Inside of every Catholic church, there is a Baptismal font. The Baptismal font is typically a pedestal that holds holy water in it, and it’s used for the Sacrament of Baptism.

Peace be with you!

O snow, you don't! I think we've had enough snow for this year—and a few years after—but we'll see what Mother Nature has in store for us. Thank you all for your patience as we navigate snow piles, slippery parking lots, sub-zero temps, and a church sanctuary that looks like Armageddon unfolded where the altar and tabernacle used to be.

Phase Three of our church flooring project has commenced. Hopefully, what you are seeing today (as I write this on Wednesday) is new sanctuary hardwood flooring that is partially installed—if not completely—and awaiting the process of applying stain and polyurethane next week. Please be patient for one more week, and prayerfully our sanctuary and church will be finished and as beautiful as was promised.

The Blessing of Throats for 2026 occurs around the Feast of St. Blaise (February 3). St. Joseph Church is offering this blessing this weekend during all Masses (January 31–February 1). The blessing entails using crossed candles while praying for protection from throat illnesses for the faithful. The priest says: “Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness.” The Blessing of Throats will take the place of the communal Sacrament of the Sick this month. However, please see Father for any specific or immediate medical needs regarding the Sacrament of the Sick.

The Lenten Season starting on Ash Wednesday (February 18th) is right around the corner, so you should begin making remote preparations for your own personal Lenten observance this year. Stay warm and all prayed-up!

Father O'neill

Devotions, Explained! St. Blaise Blessing of the Throat

Perhaps it's an example of divine providence that the feast of St. Blaise falls on Feb. 3 — right in the middle of cold and flu season! This fourth-century Armenian saint was a bishop and martyr and is venerated as the patron of those who suffer from illnesses of the throat.

On his feast day, Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat. This blessing is administered by a priest, deacon or a lay minister who follows the rites and prayers designated for a layperson. During the blessing, the minister takes two candles that were blessed on the feast of the Presentation and makes a cross in front of the throat, saying “Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness.” A priest or deacon will then make the sign of the cross.

The Knights of Columbus want to personally thank the Pastors, Parishioners, Friends and Family for making this year's Coats For Kids Drive a huge success!

Through your overwhelming support and generosity we were able to deliver and distribute over 500 Coats, 50 sweaters and sweater shirts, 200 plus hats, gloves, mittens, and scarves to those less fortunate than ourselves. Please know that through your support hundreds of working poor and homeless will be a little warmer this winter season.

Additionally, Ignite Youth Group is so grateful to the Knights of Columbus, the participants of the Strikers Bowling Fundraiser, and for all Coats for Kids Donors. Your collective effort helped make our Annual Stuff A Box campaign a tremendous success. We were able to create and deliver 75 Boxes to Brookfield Social Services right in time for Christmas. We extend a special thank you to our Young Families Ministry who donated socks they collected from their Pancake Breakfast with St. Nick. Ignite Youth truly appreciates everyone's generosity in donating items and funds that helped to make a local child's holiday a little brighter.

Thank You and May God Bless You.

Martyrs and Monastics

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein, Professor of Theology at the Augustine Institute Graduate School, to discuss her Short Course: Martyrs and Monastics. Who are the early Church martyrs? What fueled their witness to the faith? How did monasticism develop? These questions and more are addressed in this show.

Bereavement Ministry

Coping with the loss of a loved one can weigh us down physically, emotionally and spiritually, but it is not a journey we need to walk alone.

St. Joseph's 8th Station Bereavement Ministry offers comfort and help during the grieving process.

This group meets the 2nd Saturday of each month, at 10:00 AM in the Parish Center. The sessions are led by Mary Shaughnessy and Patricia Tharrington.
