PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT; RITE OF ELECTION
Pray for your fellow travelers

Now is the time to become aware of your parish’s catechumens or candidates. Assure them that you are walking with them all through the season. At the Easter Vigil the assembly will witness their Baptism into the Lord. Make room in your daily prayer for these people who are taking significant steps to orient themselves toward the cross and Resurrection of Jesus. Ask them to pray for you. Let the joy of being a companion brighten your own journey as well as theirs. They are soon to be your sisters and brothers in Christ. Recognize today that you have a role to play to provide encouragement and example to the elect on their path toward the Paschal Mystery.
Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7; Romans 5:12-19 or 5:12, 17-19; Matthew 4:1-11 (22). “Through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all.”

Bring Christ into focus

In our Creed, we profess faith in “all that is seen and unseen.” The unseen is not only the parts of the created universe we’ve yet to discover but the Spirit’s workings we’ve yet to comprehend. Jesus tells us he can be found in the least of our brothers and sisters, yet most of us squint and strain and still find our vision blurred. Next time you pass one who is hungry and thirsty, try to see your father, mother, child, spouse, or friend in the face looking up at you. Could you pass that person by? No? Now see in that face the one who saved you for all eternity. Can you refuse to lend him a hand? Seeing is believing.
Leviticus 19:1-2, 11-18; Matthew 25:31-46 (224). “Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink?”

Heaven is at hand

Think about the Lord’s Prayer and the words “who art in heaven.” Those words are not referring to heaven as a distant place. It is the place we can enter here and now. The “Our Father” reveals not so much where God is but who God is and how God acts. God is holy. God is in charge. God hears and responds to the needs of those who call for help. God offers forgiveness and shows us how to forgive. God does not abandon us to temptation but rather delivers us from the prison of evil. God is the one on whom we rely, because Jesus taught us to trust no other. The Lord’s Prayer invites us to get our daily dose of the divine.
Isaiah 55:10-11; Matthew 6:7-15 (225). “Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.”

Relapse and restart

Just one week ago, each of us vowed to avoid temptations and distractions and turn our attention toward God. How’s it going? Remember change is a process—as one psychology professor put it: “It’s a marathon, not a 100-yard dash.” No doubt you still have many moments each day when you forget who loves you and who deserves your love. Don’t worry. The key is to not give up when you slip up. Remember the words of Saint Josemaría Escrivá: “A saint is a sinner who keeps trying.” Let your relapses strengthen your resolve to be all the more aware of your need for God. Indeed, you are powerless without the power of God.
Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 11:29-32 (226). “No sign will be given it, except the sign of Jonah.”

What should we ask for?

Even those who rarely think of God know how to pray in case of emergency. We are readily moved to pray when someone we love is sick or in need, or when we ourselves are lost or scared. But is there a prayer for other times, when the immediate concern is not so pressing? The church recommends this formula: Pray first for the universal church and its leaders. Second, pray for the world and global concerns. Next, intercede for the sick, remember the dead, and pray for your faith community. And finally, pray for yourself and what you need to become whole, healthy, and holy.
Esther C:12, 14-16, 23-25; Matthew 7:7-12 (227). “Ask and it will be given to you.”

Leave your gift and go be reconciled

While Lent is about being turned around and setting things right with God, it is not only a matter of regular churchgoing. In fact, Jesus says that offering a gift, a ritual sacrifice to God, definitely takes second place to being in right relationship with one another. Because, as Pope Francis says, “Outside of forgiveness there is no hope; outside of forgiveness there is no peace.” Today’s a day of abstinence. Hunger pangs may be useful as physical reminders that we have fence-mending to do. Become reconciled with family members, friends, coworkers, not only asking forgiveness (which is hard enough), but also offering forgiveness—whether it’s requested or not. That will be a worthy Lenten turnaround.
Ezekiel 18:21-28; Matthew 5:20-26 (228). “Settle with your opponent quickly while on the way to court.”

The secret lives of our enemies

Love your enemy. It’s a simple statement. Clear. Concise. Direct. But oh, how it makes us squirm. Yet this commandment is the heart of Jesus’ message: love has no cut-off points. There is no end to loving. No time when we get to say, “Now you’ve done it. No more love for you.” Without God, unending love is impossible. It is only in God—living inside the mind and heart of God—that loving our enemies becomes possible and, indeed, the most natural way to live. Consider this insight from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow as you turn to face your enemies today: “If we could read the secret history of our enemies, we should find in each man’s life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility.”
Deuteronomy 26:16-19; Matthew 5:43-48 (229). “Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.”

Peace be with you-

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Father Larry Carew this week. Father Larry passed away peacefully at home on Sunday morning, after a courageous battle with the progression of pulmonary fibrosis. A beloved shepherd to our parish community until his recent retirement, Father Larry was a true blessing—offering compassionate spiritual direction, wise guidance, and unwavering faith to so many who sought his counsel. He will be deeply missed by all whose lives he touched. His Funeral Mass was celebrated on Friday at St. Joseph Church in Danbury, followed by his burial in the Priests' Circle at St. Peter's Cemetery in Danbury.

May Father Larry rest in the peace and joy of eternal life. Any donations in Father Larry's behalf can be made to the Christian Counseling Center of Greater Danbury.

The beautiful medallion has just been installed in the center aisle of the church, just in time for Ash Wednesday and the Season of Lent. I am sure you'll agree that it is magnificent. The quote "Ecce sum Panis Vitae"—I am the Bread of Life—is certainly appropriate at the center-aisle Communion stations. The final stage of Phase Three of the flooring project will be the installation of handrails for entry into the sanctuary. They have been ordered and are scheduled to be installed within two weeks.

It is with sincere and humble gratitude that we thank Dr. Vince and Lucy Miscia for funding the sanctuary flooring and medalion project. We are truly blessed by their kindness to St. Joseph Church. Vince and Lucy are parishioners from Bridgewater who have relocated to Nebraska but still faithfully watch the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass on our parish website. Thank you, Lucy and Vince!

Your Guide to Lent

Overview

Ash Wednesday marked the beginning of a solemn season of penance. The day itself is a day of fasting and abstinence to begin the season of Lent. As you journey through these 40 days, think of it as "tune up" for our faith, taking some time to renew ourselves through prayer, meditation, and education. The Lenten season is a 40 day period of reflection and penance that prepares us to celebrate the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ. Making restitution for sin as well as disciplining our hearts and minds to focus on God is the purpose of penance. It helps us restore a sense of balance to our souls, thrown off kilter by sin. Penance includes personal sacrifice, self-denial, fasting, almsgiving, and charitable works. ©LPI

1. Prayer

God invites us into a relationship with Him that is both personal and communal. He speaks to us through His Son, Jesus Christ, the Word-made-flesh. Prayer is our response to God who is already speaking or, better yet, revealing Himself to us. Therefore, prayer is not merely an exchange of words, but it engages the whole person in a relationship with God the Father, through the Son, and in the Holy Spirit. Regarding how to pray, various forms of prayer are presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 2623-2649). These various forms include prayer of blessing or adoration, prayer of petition, prayer of intercession, prayer of thanksgiving, and prayer of praise. *

2. Almsgiving

The foundational call of Christians to charity is a frequent theme of the Gospels. During Lent, we are asked to focus more intently on "almsgiving," which means donating money or goods to the poor and performing other acts of charity. As one of the three pillars of Lenten practice, almsgiving is "a witness to fraternal charity" and "a work of justice pleasing to God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2462)*.

3. Fasting

LENTEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.
