PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

A rock of faith

Of the two sisters of Bethany, Mary is usually considered the “spiritual” one, and Martha is relegated to the category of “hostess with the mostest.” But after the death of their brother Lazarus, it is Martha who shows her spiritual mettle in her encounter with Jesus on the road. She gives her profession of faith with as much insight and certainty as does Peter when he was once asked by Jesus, “Who do you say that I am?” Peter’s response earns him the role of first leader of the church. Martha’s faith ensures that Lazarus is returned to her family and demonstrates that she, too, is a “rock.” Ezekiel 37:12-14; Romans 8:8-11; John 11:1-45 (34). “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God.”

Withhold your judgment

If you read the scripture for today, you’ll find two long and dramatic stories about the dangers of judging others. You’ll see the hazards of denying your conscience, bearing false witness, and having the attitudes of judgmentalism and self-righteousness. Believing in Jesus, on the other hand, and following him, leads to humility, honesty, integrity, and compassion. The next time you’re about to judge someone—talk down a friend, coworker, or member of your family, or get mad at someone in a service job—step back and offer your resentment up to God. “Do not judge, and you will not be judged,” Jesus says in Luke 6:37. “Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.” Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62; John 8:1-11 (251). “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

Tuesday, Mar 24, 2026

The sender in the sent

At the end of every Mass, we hear some version of the words, “Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.” This moment is not the end, it’s the beginning. We celebrate the Eucharist so that we might become for others what Jesus was for us—sustenance and life poured out for the good of all we meet. When we go forth “in his name,” we carry Jesus with us in a very real way, to our families, workplaces, and neighbors, and to strangers alike. Next time as Mass comes to a close, listen to those words commissioning you to bear Christ to the world. Take them to heart. Numbers 21:4-9; John 8:21-30 (252). “The one who sent me is with me.”

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

Play the favorite

It’s not easy for us to explain why we hold certain people in special esteem above others. We have our favorites, and we don’t usually analyze it much beyond that. But if we did, we would probably find that we enjoy the person’s company because what they do pleases us. For these same reasons Mary found favor with God. She chose ways that were God’s ways. “Mary’s greatness,” says Pope Benedict XVI, “consists in the fact that she wants to magnify God, not herself.” She is the “mirror of all holiness.” Follow Mary’s example and strive to be a shining example of God’s love. Isaiah 7:10-14; 8:10; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38 (545). “The angel said to her, ‘Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.’”

Naming rights

As Christians we often take on new names at Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, and marriage to mark entrance into a new phase of our faith life and discipleship. When God entered into a covenant with Abram and his descendants, Abram got a new name—Abraham—that signified the renewed relationship between God and God’s people. Simon became the Peter as Jesus called him to be his rock. Each Lent as we review and renew our relationship with God, perhaps we should consider giving our faith life a new name. What will yours be? Genesis 17:3-9; John 8:51-59 (254). “No longer shall you be called Abram; your name shall be Abraham, for I am making you the father of a host of nations.”

Prayer stations

Today is the last Friday before Holy Week and the last one before Good Friday. As the day of the week on which Jesus died, Fridays have had a special place in Christian tradition. There was a time when Catholics abstained from meat on every Friday, not only those in Lent, as a reminder of Christ’s sacrifice. Another traditional Catholic practice associated with Friday is the Stations of the Cross. Every church has the series of 10 shrines devoted to the Stations. Going from one to another as you pray retraces Jesus’ footsteps to the place of his Crucifixion and offers a kind of pilgrimage in the same sacred space where we celebrate the Eucharist. From life to death to new and transformed life: This is the mystery we enter into at this time of year—and all year round. Pray the Stations today. Jeremiah 20:10-13; John 10:31-42 (255). “The LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph.”

Saturday, Mar 28, 2026

Renew, repent, repeat

Being human, it is likely we would sin every day. That is why we are encouraged, particularly during Lent, to renew ourselves daily. “This is what we do with houses, says Saint John Chrysostom, “we keep constantly repairing them as they wear old. You should do the same thing to yourself. Have you sinned today? Do not despair, do not despond, but renew your soul by repentance, and tears, and Confession, and by doing good things.” And the great doctor of the church adds, “Never cease doing this.” Ezekiel 37:21-28; John 11:45-56 (256). “Make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit.”

I was going to give up lunch meat for Lent...

But I just couldn’t quit cold turkey.

I’m giving up negativity for Lent.

We’ll see how long that lasts.

This year for Lent, I gave up using past tense.

I’m giving up spreadsheets for forty days.

Excel Lent.

Peace be with you!

Two weeks ago we listened to the story of the woman at the well and her conversation with Jesus that brought her from skepticism to faith. Last week we listened to the story of the man born blind who regained his sight from his interaction with Jesus. This week we listened to the story of the raising of Jesus' close Lazarus from the dead. Each one of these stories build on each other progressively to show how faith will grow when nurtured with a humble heart all as a primer to the Palm Sunday and Holy Week Triduum.

The OCIA program (formerly RCIA) has used these stories to walk with the catechumen on their journey to the Easter Vigil where they will receive the fullness of the Sacraments of Initiation; from the well to their resurrection in faith. We are accompanying Devon and Ella on their journey this year along with Andrew and Madeline who are preparing to receive their Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost.

A MEGA BIG round of applause for the San Giuseppe Festival Committee who under the leadership of Mike Carneglia and Bill Gonch pulled off the best festival we have ever had. It just keeps getting better each year. Thank you also to all of our home chef's who prepared the feast day meals that we all enjoyed! A special thanks as well to the unsung set up and clean up volunteers who set it up and left it like it never even happened. You guys are great and look forward to seeing you again at work for our parish picnic in September!

Pope Leo said, and I agree, that Mike et.al. can never retire! Take a moment to go to the parish website to see all the pics from this year's event. Our site is <http://www.stjosephbrookfield.com> and from there, look under parish life drop down.

Bereavement Ministry

Coping with the loss of a loved one can weigh us down physically, emotionally and spiritually, but it is not a journey we need to walk alone.

St. Joseph's 8th Station Bereavement Ministry offers comfort and help during the grieving process.

This group meets the 2nd Saturday of each month, at 10:00 AM in the Parish Center. The sessions are led by Mary Shaughnessy and Patricia Tharrington.
