PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

Sunday, Apr 26, 2026

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY; WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Hope beyond hope

One of the greatest gifts that comes with the knowledge of Christ's death and Resurrection is hope. Christians live free from existential fears of meaninglessness and extinction because Christ showed us that our lives have eternal purpose: To love and serve God and others. The vocation that is right for you is the one that enables you in your own unique way to follow the call of love and service most joyfully.

Acts 2:14a, 36-41; 1 Peter 2:20b-25; John 10:1-10 (49). "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

Monday, Apr 27, 2026

Pure grace

The notion of what is "clean" and "unclean" is very important in Judaism, especially among Orthodox Jews. Purification rituals are observed for various occasions, and many of them require the ritual washing of the hands, or at times a full immersion. Early Christianity had to struggle with questions of purity as it grew and encountered the Gentile world. Some say that Baptism represents a form of ritual purification adapted from Judaism, and that even the dipping of fingertips in holy water upon entering church is part of that tradition. The apostle Peter helped the Early Church move beyond a narrow definition of purity. Spend some time today reflecting on what helps you feel "clean and pure" spirituality, and then practice it.

Acts 11:1-18; John 10:11-18 (279). "What God has made clean, you are not to call profane."

Tuesday, Apr 28, 2026

How to define the Word

In today's reading the Jewish leaders ask Jesus to be straight with them: Are you or are you not the Messiah? Jesus says he's answered the question and they chose not to believe. In essence, Jesus says, "Every part of my mission screams savior." But Jesus is a man of metaphor. For Jesus, words are directly related to love. Words and deeds go hand in hand. If you aren't living out his saving mission, then you will have a difficult time recognizing the meaning and truth behind his teachings. Follow Jesus in deed, and his words will become easier to understand.

Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

Wednesday, Apr 29, 2026

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF SIENA, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Bringing truth and love to light

Saint Catherine of Siena (1347-80) was a fearless defender of the faith and papacy during fractious times. When declaring her a doctor of the church in 1970, Pope Paul VI referred to Catherine's unique "charism of exhortation," which is to say she never minced words. She sent copious letters to church officials and monarchs across Europe offering a piece of her mind. She berated cardinals for treachery, urged Pope Gregory XI not to be a coward, and told Pope Urban VI to control his temper. Catherine's spirituality centers on self-knowledge as the path to love and truth. Heed her advice and spend time in honest self-reflection, which, says Catherine, allows you to know God's goodness toward you, and "upon knowledge follows love."

Acts 12:24-13:5a; John 12:44-50 (281). "I came into the world as light."

Thursday, Apr 30, 2026

Home-grown forgiveness

Home cooking is great, but sometimes we are hurt the worst by the folks who share food at our table. Our spouses, our siblings, our children, and our grandchildren often betray the family trust and cause us pain that's hard to forgive. Yet there is within us the presence of the one who carried the cross of our own sinfulness. Just as Jesus forgave his closest disciples, those who betrayed him, denied him, and abandoned him in his hour of need, we have the power to forgive our family members for their offenses against us. "Sometimes 'plates fly,'" said Pope Francis about family life, "but if love is real, then peace is made quickly." Indeed, peace, like charity, begins at home.

Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "The one who ate my food has raised his heel against me."

Friday, May 01, 2026

The winding path of faith

The apostles didn't know who they were destined to be when they began to follow Jesus. The same could be said of all of us who start down the path of faith with faltering and uncertain steps. Maybe someday we'll be part of the canon of saints like Thomas, who up to the Last Supper was still asking Jesus where this road was headed. Obviously it had yet to occur to him that he would be one of the 12 founders of our apostolic tradition. Nor can we imagine who we might become if we continue on this faith journey. Saint Angela Merici has some advice that might help us plan our course: "Do now—do now—what you'll wish you had done when your moment comes to die."

Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283). "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?"

Saturday, May 02, 2026

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Stand firm

Saint Athanasius was the fourth-century bishop of Alexandria, an important city in Egypt. He is best known for his opposition to the Arian heresy, which denied the full divinity of Christ. In taking this stand, Athanasius faced opposition by many within the church and incurred the wrath of emperors, who banished him five times. He spent a total of 17 years in exile. His courageous witness gave rise to the expression Athanasius contra mundum: "Athanasius against the world." When you take a stand against misinformation and moral error, you may share in the pain of persecution. In those moments remember these encouraging words attributed to Athanasius: "No one, ever, will prevail against your faith."

Acts 13:44-52; John 14:7-14 (284). "Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me."

BLP

Thank you, Msgr. Weiss, for covering our parish while I was away after Easter. We are blessed to have such a competent, caring, and experienced good shepherd to watch over the flock of St. Joseph Church!

This weekend we celebrate the 4th Sunday of Easter — Good Shepherd Sunday. The last vestiges of the Easter decorations have, for the most part, been removed, but we still have four more weeks in the joyous Easter Season.

In today's Gospel reading from St. John, Jesus instructs his faithful using the image of the allegiance that sheep have for their own shepherd — they hear his voice and will always follow him. Of course, Jesus' point is that we are the sheep, and we follow him as our Shepherd. However, sometimes his voice gets drowned out by the chaotic drama in the world around us. We need to always make time for quiet prayer so that the voice of our Shepherd can guide us down the proper paths and away from all those other voices that so often lead us astray.

You'll note that changes to our sanctuary continue. The main altar has been taken away to be restored and has been replaced by a new temporary altar built by Candlewood Valley Builders, who will also be doing the restoration of the main altar. We have also procured a beautiful oriental rug, which will lie beneath the temporary altar and the main altar when it returns. We continue to endeavor to improve our altar area and worship space so that it is conducive to both communal and individual prayer. God bless you and have a wonderful week!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: If you are interested in helping out with our Hot Dog Ministry, which will be starting the Sunday after Memorial Day, please call the office, leave your name and number, and we will get back to you.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

In our politically charged society, I imagine many have heard the quote, "It takes a village..." Whether or not one likes the politics of the author of that quote, in the words are truth. It takes many people to create and sustain a community.

For those of us who are Catholic, we believe in the power of vocations to help spread the Gospel message. And vocations are an important part of the community. The vocations to priesthood, or the diaconate, or religious life are at the center of our efforts to spread the good news. However, we need to also speak about the vocation of married life as service to the church; and furthermore, the vocation of single life. It is at our baptism that we are given the mandate to spread the Gospel through our vocation in the church.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me" (Rv 3:20).

We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete.

Let us pray...

God of the invitation,
 you knock upon the door of everyone's heart.
 We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes.
 We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance.
 We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead.
 Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.
 Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives.
 We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit.
 Amen.

"How long has Jesus been knocking at the door of your heart, waiting to enter?"
