PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

Intimate details

Near the end of his earthly life Jesus spoke to his disciples about his living on in the Father as well as in them, and them in him. This notion of indwelling is a unique feature of Jesus' message, bringing a deep intimacy to our life in faith. Jesus has taken up residence within us, and we in Jesus. Talk about having a "personal relationship" with our Savior—it doesn't get more personal than that! Take a moment today to appreciate how great it is to be considered worthy of such intimacy.

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17; 1 Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21 (55). "I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you."

Please respond correctly

For all the good that religion has done and continues to do in the world, from time to time all the great religious traditions have been distorted and misused to justify intolerance and violence. Such violence was used against Jesus' early followers, and in every century since it has reared its head in some corner of the world. "In a world where the name of God is sometimes associated with vengeance or even a duty of hatred and violence," says Pope Benedict XVI in his first encyclical Deus caritas est, it is good to remember that the appropriate response to God's love is to "love your neighbor as yourself."

Acts 16:11-15; John 15:26-16:4a (291). "The hour is coming when everyone who kills you will think he is offering worship to God."

Advocating on our behalf

"The gift and presence of the Holy Spirit is the most magnificent and wonderful thing that can happen to us, the human community, all living things, and this Earth," wrote German theologian Jürgen Moltmann. The disciples didn't see it that way at first. They were filled with grief when Jesus told them he would soon be departing from them. They did not understand the gift they were about to receive in the Holy Spirit, the Advocate. An advocate "pleads the cause of another" and "supports or promotes the interests of another." It is nice to know we have a champion at our side. Draw on God's ever-present wisdom each day, with the simple prayer, "Come, Holy Spirit."

Acts 16:22-34; John 16:5-11 (292). "But if I go, I will send him to you."

Wisdom takes time

Fortune-telling is an ancient practice that indicates at least one thing: Some people have always wished they had knowledge of the future. But as every generation learns, knowledge without wisdom is as good as ignorance, if not more dangerous. It takes time for a fact to pass from "knowing" to "understanding"—the way we are first told not to touch a hot burner and later appreciate why. Jesus did not tell his disciples everything at the Last Supper, nor do we gain instant understanding with our reception of the Holy Spirit. Wisdom deepens with learning and experience. Take time to learn something new every day. The Bible is a good place to start. As Saint Ambrose says, "Divine scripture is the feast of wisdom and the individual books are the various dishes."

Acts 17:15, 22-18:1; John 16:12-15 (293). "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now."

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

So far and yet so close

The story of the Ascension of the Lord brings us joy because it tells of how the risen Jesus begins his reign in heaven at the right hand of God. Jesus leaves the physical company of the disciples, but in doing so becomes available to all who believe in him. He goes away, but in his Spirit, he will be closer than ever. Now he fulfills his promise to be with us always. "For although he ascended alone," says Saint Augustine, "we also ascend, because we are in Him by grace." Be mindful that God's Spirit is as close as your next breath.

Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23; Matthew 28:16-20 (58). "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky?"

Friday, May 15, 2026

Glimpse the Divine

"No one," God says in the Book of Exodus, "can see me and live" (33:20)—almost no one, that is. Moses, for example, used to speak with God "face to face, as a person speaks to a friend" (Exodus 33:11) without undergoing instant vaporization. Christian theology calls this experience the beatific vision: the total heavenly awareness of God that would overwhelm most mortals during their earthly lives. That doesn't mean you can't get a glimpse of the Divine every now and then. The adoration and service you offer as a Christian open a door to the holy and will eventually lead you all the way to complete communion with God.

Acts 18:9-18; John 16:20-23 (295). "I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice."

Saturday, May 16, 2026

Asked and answered

Jesus constantly urged those he encountered to ask God for what they need. He not only preached that message, he practiced it. Prayers of petition, along with prayers of blessing, intercession, thanksgiving, and praise, constitute the basic forms of Christian prayer. A petitionary, or asking, prayer is simply your part in a conversation that God initiated. At times we will have a lot to say, at others we may simply pray "in sighs too deep for words," as Saint Paul puts it. Yet, no matter how we articulate our needs, we remain confident that God will understand and respond.

Acts 18:23-28; John 16:23b-28 (296). "Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete."

2026 Blessing of the Bikes Sunday May 17th at 1:00pm

St Joseph Church in Brookfield in the upper parking lot

We will have the Blessing then a short ride around southern Litchfield County. Upon our return to St. Joseph Church we will enjoy some light refreshments.

FROM THE PASTOR

Sixteen St. Joseph third-graders received Holy Communion for the first time last Saturday morning. These children have been preparing to receive this sacrament since the first grade. It is always a beautiful day in the lives of these little ones when they receive their third sacrament of initiation for the very first time.

I tried to impress upon them that this is one of the greatest gifts Jesus left to us all to assist us on our life's journey of faith. Certainly, at their age, they are more focused on the new experience itself, which is completely understandable. However, I told them to move past that quickly and to focus on the wonder of the One they had just received by remembering Jesus' words: "Take and eat, for this is my body."

It is a hard concept for third-graders to fully comprehend; however, it is an excellent image of Jesus' sacrifice and love for them—one that will hopefully comfort and console them as they grow older. This will be reinforced as they continue in their religious education in our EDJE program.

Many thanks to all those who helped prepare them for their special day: Pat and Kathy from our Religious Education department, the parents who worked with them at home on their catechesis lessons, and their class monitors who cared for them during the Sunday EDJE Masses. It's the teamwork that makes the dreamwork! Thank you all!

As I write this, we are still unsure of the timeline for the return of the main altar. Hopefully, it will be here for the weekend, but if not, we don't want to rush such an important feature of our sanctuary. I have to keep reminding myself that patience is a virtue.

Blessing for Mother's Day

Dear Lord,

Pour your goodness and grace upon the women of our community today in a special way. For mothers: fill them with joy and blessing.

For those who have lost children: hold them in their sorrow.

For those who have hoped for children: surround them with Your love.

For those who have lost a mother: may they know Your comfort.

For those carrying difficulty on this day: bring them consolation.

Bless all women this day. Thank you for the love they bring to this world, no matter their circumstances or story.

Amen.

Coping with the loss of a loved one can weigh us down physically, emotionally and spiritually, but it is not a journey we need to walk alone.

St. Joseph's 8th Station Bereavement Ministry offers comfort and help during the grieving process.

This group meets the 2nd Saturday of each month, at 10:00 AM in the Parish Center. The sessions are led by Mary Shaughnessy and Patricia Tharrington.
